

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.

H. H. Brown has a very interesting history in this issue.

Patrons are urged to secure their tickets early for the Arena Rink.

The Rev Canon Simpson enters upon his twenty-fourth year at St Peter's Church tomorrow.

An Arena Rink ticket, now on sale, would make a nice Christmas box for the children.

Lieut. H. Hood, of the Salvation Army, who has just arrived in this City, is conducting a special meeting on Sunday night at 7.30, entitled, "Shipwrecked for Two worlds." The Scanzlers will render special singing. Everybody is welcome.

Hear Glib. 12-17dtf.

M. Gallant, Rustico has been engaged as teacher for Covehead school.

D. B. McDonald, Bedeque, well known in this city, was among the stockholders present at the recent meeting of the Campbell Clad Company in Moncton.

Rev J. F. Floyd will preach his first anniversary sermon Sunday evening in the Central Christian Church. All the members and friends of the Church are specially invited to be present.

Attention is directed to the fine line of reading matter which G. E. Ritchie, Queen Street, is advertising. The latest authors are represented and there is a great variety to choose from.

The store of Simon Joseph, Queen St., presents a lovely appearance these days. The counters and shelves are filled with many tempting bargains. Almost any hour of the day or evening crowds of satisfied customers are to be found there.

The annual meeting of the Long Creek Farmers' Institute will be held at Long Creek Hall on Monday 20th Inst. at 7.30 p. m. A full attendance is requested as matters of interest, including telephone extension to Long Creek and New Dominion will be discussed.

James Tait, Jr., Florist, City, has The Guardian's thanks for a neat and useful cased pencil. This little article so universally used is made in attractive form and has the name and occupation of the donor neatly inscribed on the case which is nicely capped. This is a practical little souvenir for his many customers.

The splendid line of fiction now being offered, at an exceptionally close price, by Carter & Co., Ltd., should commend itself to all book lovers, especially at this season of gift giving. A typographical error passed in proofreading made the word "fiction" read "friction," but when Carter & Co Ltd, supply the goods there is never friction, only entire satisfaction.

Many persons in this Province will hear with pleasure that A. Alex McLeod, the well known New York Artist, has appointed J. A. S. Bayer, photographer of this City, as his agent. Mr McLeod's oil paintings and pastels are so well known that comment is unnecessary as several of his portraits, have from time to time, been exhibited in this City much to the delight of citizens as the high artistic talent displayed by Mr McLeod in the life like pictures have won for him the appreciation of all.

The White Candy Co Ltd, whose goods are to be had at all the leading confectioners in this City and Province, have solved for many the question of "What Shall I give her?" They have supplied the trade with some of the most exquisite packages and baskets of chocolates, for the Christmas trade imaginable. Any one can accept a gift of this kind, and it is always an appreciated one, one that lingers long in the mind of the recipient. The flavors are so varied that every one will be suited, whether it is the soft or hard chocolate that is desired. Then again, if the purchaser wishes all of any one kind, the want can be supplied as these high class, pure, rich chocolates are also to be had in bulk and will be packed in any way as desired.

One of the attractions on Queen Street for the past few days has been a large bell at the front of H. H. Brown's store, which has been constantly calling attention to that popular business house.

The ladies of St Vincent de Paul Sewing Circle of this city held their opening meeting at Notre Dame Convent Thursday afternoon. The election of officers was held and resulted in the re-election of Mrs John Byrne as President, Adrian Peters as Secretary and Rev with Mrs Dr Kelly Vice President, Mrs Dr McLellan as Treasurer. A committee of six ladies were appointed to visit the deserving poor of the City.

James A. and Mrs Alley, formerly of this province, and now residing in Saskatoon, arrived in the city on an extended visit to friends in this province. Mr and Mrs Alley have been absent from this province about five years and they find many changes in that short time. They will remain in this city for a few days and will spend Christmas with friends in Tryon. Mr and Mrs Alley have resided in different parts of the province and have a great number of acquaintances all of whom will be delighted to see them again.

Every day brings new customers to our store. Former buyers told them of the good values we were offering. Simon Joseph's, Queen St. 12-18dtf.

The Arena Rink will open on Christmas night and the tickets are now on sale.
