This new candy-coated gum delights young and old.

It "melts in your mouth" and the gum in the center remains to aid digestion, brighten teeth and soothe mouth and throat.

There are the other WRIGLEY friends to choose from, too:

IN MEMORIAM

MR. H. J. CARVER

On Thursday the 5th day of October, Mr. H. J. Carver, a very highly esteemed resident of Hazelbrook passed peacefully away at the age of 59 years.

During his long and lingering illness the kindness and attention of his wife, children, relatives, friends and neighbors, coupled with the medical skill were always in evidence, but proved inadequate to cope with the dread disease, so with a firm trust in his Saviour and desire to submit to His loving will, passed away to enter into and enjoy the Bliss of that Heavenly Home, where pain nor suffering are unknown.

He was a kind and loving Father and with his princely bearing, his kind and genial manner, and his willingness to be of service to all he will be much missed in the whole community, but when the end came he was found ready.

The funeral which was one of the largest in that vicinity was held on the afternoon of Saturday, October 7th. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Lindsay, assisted by Rev. Mr. Tilley, who spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family and who often visited and comforted the deceased during his illness.

The interment took place in the cemetery of Hazelbrook where a large number of relatives and friends gathered to pay their last respect to the one they held in high esteem.

He leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing widow, two sons and four daughters, Harold Carver and Hamble at home, Mrs. Wilfred Lawton Pownall Mrs. Chas. Hamm and Lilian Carver, Charlottetown; Boswell Carver, Hazelbrook; also three sisters and five brothers.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Bertram Ings, Henry Jones, Mat. Jenks Wood, Alfred Lund, Albert Jenkins and Wm. McEachern.

The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful and comprised the following: The family, crescent, wreath, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Parkman Jenkins, Miss Florence Bourke, Mr. and Mrs. Titus, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Carver and Mrs. Chas. McLeod, Mr. Geo. Binns, wreath.

The sympathy of their many friends is with them in their sad bereavement and his memory will be long cherished by his large circle of friends.

THOMAS SHREENAN

The death took place at the home of his sister Mrs. John K. Brown, New Glasgow, of Thomas Shreenan. Mr. Shreenan was born in Fierou County, 72 years ago in his childhood he served with his parents to Pt. DesRoches where he remained until some twenty years ago, when he came to New Glasgow. He was a faithful worker at the Nova Scotia Steel Company, where he was loped by his fellow workmen. About a year ago he was stricken with cancer and although he had three operations and the best of medical attention, he did
