The latest news, first of all.

The masquarade skate at the Asena Tuesday night will prove a sure cure for the blues.

L. M. Poole & Co, Connolly's wharf, city, have on hand a large quantity of smelt box shooks for sale.

Fred Ings, High River, Alta, who has been visiting in this city leaves this morning by the Earl Grey on return.

Any girl from fifteen to seventeen years of age, who desires a position, should write K, P. O. Box 99, City, at once.

There will be popular prices at the Hillsboro Rink tonight. The Fourth Regiment will be present with their lovely music for two hours for fifteen cents.

The trains inward to this City Saturday were all delayed considerably by the condition of the track being such as to prevent trains making time.

J. W. McLeod, a student at Prince of Wales College, who has been spending the Christmas holidays at his home in Culloden, has returned to attend college.

Tomorrow's issue will contain an important ad for D. Stewart, Ken Street, setting forth the merits of Evaporated Cream Bread which is daily growing in popularity.

Miss M. A. Beers, City, was a guest at the marriage in Bridgewater, N. S., on Dec 28 of Miss Mary Beatrice Miller and Dr Mason W. H. Pitman af Augusta, Me, formerly of Montreal.

A copy of the sermons of the late Dr Dobson can be purchased at the four bookstores of this city. All who have bought express themselves as charmed with the edition which is very moderately priced.

The sermons by the late Dr Dobson can be purchased at Carter & Co's Haszard & Moore's, J. D. Taylor's and G. E. Ritchie's bookstores. They are nicely printed and bound and would make ideal reading for the home.

The Charlottetown subsidiary Branch of the Anti-Tuberculosis Association acknowledges with thanks a donation from Messrs Murley and Garnhum of $8.40 being the cost of printing 200 copies of the constitution of the Charlottetown Branch of the Society.

A well chosen program of interesting pictures delighted the large Saturday night audience at New Wonderland. Martyr or Crank deserves special mention as it deals with an unusual and not over-worked subject It was well acted and the points were all wonderfully well brought out. Finnigan's Initiation was more than funny and the excellence of such pictures as Varsailles and the Sign of the Cross cannot be spoken of too highly. It is not strange when such an entertainment can be had for so little money that Moving Picture Theatres are fast taking the place of those of other natures throughout the whole country.

The MacKinnon Drug Company, Proprietors of "The Best Drug Store" received on Saturday last their three new signs made by Charlottetown's well known artist H. H. Crossman Two of these, placed one at the bottom of each of the large windows on Great George and Kent Streets are probably the best signs to be seen in this city. They read "The Best Drug Store," are each six and a half feet long, and are most beautifully lettered, inlays of pearl with gold borders making up each letter. The background is oxide and all this is enclosed in glass and brass mounted The completed sign is a most handsome piece of workmanship and reflects great credit on the artistic taste and skill of the capable sign builder. A new fanlight sign over the entrance has also been placed in position and this is also a thing of modest beauty made with pearl and gold lettering each letter shaded with broken gold leaf. These are perhaps the most expensive signs procurable and their appearance on the exterior is suggestive of the good things to be found in the interior all true to the wording of the signs and the name of the store—"The Best."

::Lodenta, This is what Miss Edna Goodrich "the most beautiful brunette" on the N. Y. stage says:—"It makes the teeth gleam brilliantly. So white, so pure, so nice to the taste is Lodenta," It is an ideal tooth preparation and sold at 25c a tube by A. W. Reddin, Phem B.

Miss Helen C. Eden, City, is visiting in Halifax.

A masquarade skate on Tuesday night in the Arena. There will be loads of fun.

The Fourth Regiment Band will be at the Hillsborough Rink tonight. Nothing more need be said.

Paton & Co, City, are offering some exceptionally close prices on furs as will be seen by their ad in this issue.

In the January issue of the Methodist Quarterly Review, United States, Rev W. Harrison contributes an extended notice of The Autobiography of Sir Henry M. Stanley, journalist, explorer, etc.

The next meeting of the West Devon Farmer's Institute will be held in the West Devon school-house on Jan. 5th, at 7 p. m. Subject for discussion, Our Provincial Seed Fair and other business, etc.

The City of Charlottetown presented a handsome appearance on Saturday with the trees and buildings sparkling in the sunshine with their icy covering. As the sun came up in the morning scores of people watched the charming effect, especially noticeable on lower Queen Street, the ruddy glow casting a gleam of brilliant crimson which appeared as if reflected from a great fire.

The following were registered at the Revere Hotel Saturday: P. A. Robertson, New Glasgow, J. M. McPhee, Rockwood; Alex McKenzie, Pictou; F. Bearisto, wife and children, Wetaskiwan, F. Parquharson, Savage Harbor; J. J. McDonald, Vernon, Peter Jackman, Village Green; Seymour Wood, Mt Herbert; W. J. Macdonald, Mt Stewart; V. Crockett, York; M. L. Morris, Montreal; J. R. Clark, Sock.

The Minto crossed from Georgetown on Saturday and the Earl Grey came from Pictou to this port bringing over 25 passengers, 110 bags of mail, 900 barrels of flour and two cars of mixed freight. This morning the Earl Grey will leave at the usual hour for Pictou and the Minto will leave the latter port for Georgetown, the usual special train bringing the mails and passengers to this City. The above is of course, subject to changes caused by unforseen weather conditions.

The news of the death of Elmer McLean, son of Charles D. McLean, of Clyde River, which took place in Saskatchewan, some days ago, will be received by his many friends with sincere regret. Mr McLean was a young man of sterling qualities and his early demise removes a man of much promise. His death occurred as the result of an accident. The young man was driving a load of lumber which was to be used in the construction of a house which he intended building for himself. In some manner he was jolted off the load and fell to the ground, the wheels of the heavy wagon passing over one of his legs and crushing it very badly. He was taken to a hospital where it was the intention to have the injured limb amputated but the patient was found to be too weak to stand the ordeal. His father was telegraphed for and arrived just in time to see his son before his life passed away. Mr McLean left his Province about a year ago and took up a homestead in the west where he intended to locate permanently. The body arrived in this city Saturday, from Pictou by the Earl Grey and was removed to the home of his parents. He leaves to mourn besides his father and mother, a number of younger brothers and sisters, to all of whom The Guardian extends its sincere sympathy.

::The (late) Right Hon Lord Overown speaking of Herbert Booth's lecture says:—I derived great delight and much profit from those beautiful pictures and that admirable address. You can hear and see Booth and his pictures, Thursday, January 20th in First Methodist Church. 1—10d3i.

::Water Rates. Monday, January 10th, is the last day for receiving water rates for the quarter ending March 31st. 1—6d4i.
