Starr Trophy From Orioles By a Score of 13-2

The Victorias of Charlottetown had practically all their own way last night in the first of the Starr Trophy series with the Orioles of Halifax...

The score was 13-2 and is a fair indication of the one-sided nature of the game. During no stage of the match were the Vics pressed and without great effort they held down their opponents...

For a youngster the 17 year old O'Connell did well in goal and stopped many hot ones. The Victorias did not seem to be kicking too hard, but in many instances got in goals from good combination formations and nice individual work...

ENGLISH SOCIETY FAD SKETCHING GOWNS

LONDON, Feb. 24—Smart society women and girls are finding a pleasant and sometimes a lucrative alternative to the big-saw craze which at one time threatened the popularity of bridge.

Others, intent on pin money, are taking lessons from fashion artists, and some who have passed through this course of tuition are already a temporary hobby, as it is undoubtedly a new experience for women to spend the afternoon sketching one another's gowns.

The catalogues issued from time to time by West end firms also offer a ready market for the wares of these blue-blooded artists who pursue their profession with astonishing zeal.

But the professionals at the business are not at all alarmed, as they know the drudgery of the work and can afford to smile at the artistic enthusiasm of the girl from Mayfair and Belgravia, realizing full well that this fashionable energy will be switched into another direction by the next craze that happens along.

British Coal Miners' Delegates Stormy Meeting But Decide for Peace

(Canadian Press.) LONDON, Feb. 28—The Times says the Government last night submitted definite proposals for the settlement of the coal strike and a definite answer is expected to be given by both the mine owners and the miners today.

The British Miners' Federation' after a long stormy meeting this morning, passed a resolution deciding to continue negotiations with the owners which are proceeding under the auspices of the Government with a view of bringing about a settlement of the dispute.

Some of the miners' delegates are bent on war, especially the representatives of the collieries employed in South Wales, but the executive finally succeeded in inducing the meeting to make a further effort for peace.

LONDON, Feb. 28—The Govt admits its failure to settle the dispute between the mine owners and miners breaking out. The secretary formally observed the negotiations with official statement issued regarding the proposals submitted.

The government said to fix the cases of the underground miners who were unable to secure adequate remuneration. The Government is prepared to confer with the parties concerned by district conferences. The proposals were considered in the afternoon with the result that those in the federated areas including Yorkshire, Lancashire, Midlands and North Wales accepted.

More than sixty percent of the coal trade of the country accepted the proposals. The miners Federation maintain there can be no settlement of the dispute unless the principle of a minimum wage scale be adopted for all miners and for all underground workers.

LONDON, Feb. 28—At the request of the Prime Minister representatives of both parties have agreed to be available for further conference tomorrow morning. It is evident the situation offers hardly any chance of reaching settlement in time to avert a national coal strike.
