In Memoriam

In loving memory of Harold S. Jordan who was killed in C. N. R. yard, Charlottetown, October 14, 1941.

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead,—he is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
If needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you—O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return,—
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead—he is just away!
Lovingly Remembered by Wife and Son.

Canadian Legion Behind Third Victory Loan

"To the last man, and every possible dollar" was the terse reply of Capt. Norman W. Lowther, M.M. President of the Provincial Command Canadian Legion, when asked to what extent was his organization behind the new Victory Loan.

"If the Canadian Legion has any criticism to offer" stated Capt. Lowther, "it is that our efforts have been inadequate to the needs of this 'All Out' war.

"There must be an end to apathetic thinking. There must be an end to smug complacency. There must be an end to half-hearted effort and indifference on the part of Canadians if each person is to pull his share of the load.

"Every Canadian has his responsibility. Some must serve on the front lines, or face the enemy and the elements on the turbulent Atlantic aboard freight craft or Corvettes. Nurses care for sick and wounded in hospitals that are liable to be bombed at any moment. Women doing men's work in factories, and in almost every branch of the services without thought of danger. They are all offering their lives as the price of victory and freedom.

"Others for many reasons cannot take their places at the front. They may be out of immediate danger, but they have for that reason, an even greater responsibility to their country. They should consider themselves roaming patriots, ever watchful for sabotage of any kind—ready to stop harmful gossip concerning the war or the movement of ships and troops, and ready to expose any violations of the war regulations that might hamper the war effort. There are so many things—so many ways that each individual, man, woman, boy or girl can help in the war effort, enumeration seems unnecessary.

"But the greatest and the most pressing need at the moment," said Capt. Lowther, "is presented in the appeal of the War Finance Committee for $750,000,000 to prosecute the war to the utmost. Our enemy has over-run and plundered defenseless countries and peoples, and is forcing them by bomb or bayonet to help him against their friends. The choice is between acquiescence or the firing squads, hence the wholesale murder of hundreds of thousands of unwilling victims.

"Members of the Canadian Legion know from the experience of the last war what we, as a people are up against. They know the kind of enemy that we must defeat, and they know that it will take everything that we can muster in the way of heavy equipment of every kind to defeat him. Tanks, planes, guns, ships, and such equipment cost tremendously, and yet they must be used in overwhelming force, hence the reason that the Canadian Legion are supporting the Third Victory Loan to the very limit of their ability. We feel that this is our duty, and nothing less than the greatest sacrifice will be good enough to win this war."

Plans Proceed For Ceremony Here Sunday

Plans for holding a ceremony at the Forum, preceded by a parade through the city, on Sunday next to inaugurate the third victory loan campaign, were further discussed at a meeting held in the Council Chambers of City Hall late yesterday afternoon. The parade will arrive at the Forum at 2.50 p.m. and the ceremony will get underway almost immediately.

A tentative program submitted yesterday outlined the route of march for the parades, army and civilian. The former, marshalled by Lt.-Col. F.I. Andrew, M. M., will assemble at the Armouries and move off at 2.30. At the same time the civilian parade, including Canadian Legion, Girl Guides, Boy Scouts, A.R.P. workers, etc., will line up on Market Square.

The commando dagger, emblem of the third loan, will be taken by a Guard of Honor, comprised of members of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve, to the Forum. It will be presented to the Guard in front of City Hall by Deputy Mayor J.T. McKee and turned over to His Worship Mayor B. Roy Holman at the Forum.

His Honor, Lieutenant Governor B.W. LePage will be present at the Forum and short addresses will be given by Premier Campbell and Hon. Dr. W.J.P. McMillan.

The various committees reported on the numbers expected to take part in the parade. It is estimated that 1400 will be seated in the main part of the Forum which is reserved for these in the parade. The usual seating accomodation of the building, capable of holding several thousands, will be available to the general public.

Arrangements are being made to have the Sunday School children freed for attendance at the ceremony which, as Mayor Holman said is considered "of a religious nature".

The various active and reserve army units, Air Cadets, Sea Cadets, C.O.T.C. etc., will form part of the Military parade. Several bands will accompany the parade including the recently organized Royal Air Force Pipe Band from the Charlottetown Airport.

There will be a master choir at the ceremony which will lead in the singing and the band of No. 62 Canadian Army Basic Training Centre will probably play some selections. There is also a possibility that the Charlottetown Girl's Band will take part in the civilian section of the parade.

His Worship, Mayor B. Roy Holman presided and the meeting adjourned to meet again Thursday evening at 7.30.

Citizens are requested to have their flags flying in all parts of the city next Sunday when the third Victory Loan drive gets underway.

Another Large Crowd Attends Hospital Bazaar

Another large crowd attended the Charlottetown Hospital bazaar in the Sporting Club last night. The various amusement booths were again well patronized with bingo attracting the largest following. The dart game, wheels of fortune and other games were also going full swing throughout the entire evening. The sale of fancy work and home cooking again proved quite successful and the lunch counter in the building got many calls during the evening as many people refreshed themselves. Once again Charlie Chamberlain appeared on the stage at the far end of the Sporting Club to entertain the large crowd with several vocal solos. The bazaar continues every night this week and winds up on Saturday night when the drawing for the bazaar tickets from the Murnaghan barrel will be held. Mr. Joey MacDonald has donated the Sporting Club free of charge for the entertainment. In addition to this he spent a great deal of time helping get it in shape for the bazaar.
