Mr. W. B. Bowness, New Annan, was registered at the Hotel Minto yesterday.

LOYAL CRUSADERS.—The Crusaders picnic this year will be held on Monday, July 3rd.

SONG SERVICE at the gospel meeting in Prowse's New Block, to-morrow afternoon at 3.45. Strangers always welcome.

THE Wesleyan of June 14th. contains cut. of Rev. K. W. Weddall B. A., Rev. Ralph Brecken D. D. President of N. B. and P. E. Island Conference.

ACCORDING to Horace G. Mallin, the statistician of the Commonwealth, there are more Canadians in Boston than any other town in the United States. According to his figures 3,158 are natives of P. E. I.

THE first moonlight excursion of the season takes place Monday night. Boat leaves Steam Nav. Co's wharf at 8 p. m. Galbraith's band will be there and the best of music for dancing. 25c. takes you there.

At the Forester's Parade Committee meeting last night, every detail for a first-class parade was arranged to perfection. The very fact of the procession being marshalled by Major H. M. Davison insures procession's regularity, order and good marching. Don't miss the sight, nor the privilege of hearing a fine pulpit orator.

JULY FIRST.—The C. A. A. A. track presents a lively appearance every afternoon now, when the bicycle riders and runners may be seen getting into shape for the Abegweit-Crescents' big meet on Dominion Day. The most of last year's athletes and a score of new ones are in training, and the competition in the different events promises to be very keen.

THE Moncton Times says:—The Charlottetown police authorities offer great inducement than most places to the unfortunate inebriate, who finds his way to the police magistrate's office to contribute to the city treasurer for the privilege of getting drunk, rather than laying out his fine. The ordinary penalty imposed is $2.00 or ten days, while in Moncton a common drunk for first offence is given the option between paying $3.00 or laying out 72 hours.

THE Hants Journal says:—Mr. J. McIntosh is now laboring as a catechist at Dufferin Gold Mines. He is a native of P. E. Island, and last winter attended Union Seminary, New York. From this institution he carried off a $250 scholarship. Another Islander has distinguished himself this spring at the same institution. Rev. J. K. Frizer, former pastor at Alberton, P. E. I. graduated a B. D., receiving the highest marks of any student for that degree in the history of Union.

THE Annual Convention of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Summerside District will be held in Bedeque on Tuesday, July 4th. There will be two sessions (the first beginning at 10 a. m.) and a public meeting in the evening. Through the kindness of the railway officials, visitors paying one first-class fare will be allowed to return free, on presenting certificate of attendance. Visitors from the West will be met with teams at Coles wharf. The attendance of all W. M. S. workers is cordially solicited. Nina Loewther, Dist. Secretary.

MR. J. F. MARTIN and bride arrived in the city by the Princess yesterday afternoon and was busily engaged receiving the congratulatory wishes of his many friends. Mr. Martin is the representative of the Canada Paper Co. While in Charlottetown Mr. and Mrs. Martin will be guests of Mr. W. P. Pickard. Mr. and Mrs. Martin will spend about ten days on the Island and will visit Brackley Beach. THE GUARDIAN extends a hearty welcome to Mr. Martin and his fair bride and trusts that their sojourn in Charlottetown will be a most enjoyable one.
