TWELVE HOURS IN A SUBMARINE

LONG BEACH, Cal., June 11—Six men, sealed up in a new type submarine boat, surpassed the submergency endurance record on the floor of the ocean off here today. They went down yesterday morning at five o'clock and in a message telegraphed shortly before noon, over a marine cable leading to shore, declared that they expected to remain down until five o'clock this afternoon.

The old record was established in 1907 by the United States submarine Octopus, which remained under the water 24 hours. The boat which has stood the new record differs from other types in having gasoline motors, whereby with a special exhaust device, are able to run while the vessel is submerged without polluting the air for the crew.

TO CROSS THE ATLANTIC IN TWENTY-FOUR HOURS

MONTREAL, June 11—C. F. Montague Chambers, the aviator from St. John, arrived here today with his business manager, W. F. Hackman, with the view of arranging financial matters in connection with the proposed flight across the Atlantic for the price of fifty thousand dollars put up by the London Daily Mail.

The aviator speaks in optimistic terms, confident in the belief that it is possible with present day machines to cover the journey from land to land in 24 hours and if Mr. Chambers can get the necessary financial backing he will make the attempt late in August or early in September of the present year. He points with assurance to the achievements yesterday of Brindjonc des Moulinais, the French aviator, who flew from Paris to Warsaw, covering the 933 miles in 13 hours.

Mr. Chambers, relying upon past experience in flights over both land and water, holds that it is much easier to fly over water than land, owing to the absence of the excessive air eddies to be met with over land. He believes the journey can be made with thirty-five gallons of gasoline or forty-five gallons of oil, and that little or no alteration is required in machines already built.

BOURASSA'S IDEA OF CANADA'S FUTURE

EDMONTON, June 11—That the maintenance of the French language, the retention of the distinctive characteristics of the French-Canadian race in the Dominion, formed the principal safeguard against the Dominion ever being politically absorbed by the United States, was the principal contention put forward by Henri Bourassa, the nationalist leader, who was the guest of the Canadian Club at luncheon this afternoon.

The relations between the United States and Canada, from geographical and commercial reasons, said Mr. Bourassa, were much more intimate than those existing between the Dominion and Great Britain.

English was the prevalent language spoken in the United States, and if the same tongue were exclusively spoken in Canada, there would be, Mr. Bourassa contended, a grave danger of the great republic, with its hundred million inhabitants, mentally, morally and intellectually assimilating the Dominion with its seven million people.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. ALBERT E. CHANDLER.

The funeral of the late Albert E. Chandler was held from his late residence on Water Street, Halwell, Maine, Tuesday afternoon, May 13th, Rev. Fred V. Stanley officiating. The bearers were George Cole, William Wedge, W. G. McGray and Wilbur Sproul. Mr. Chandler, who was 52 years of age, was a granite cutter by trade, having worked at that business for the past 24 year. He was a man well liked by his fellow workers, and was always ready to help any, who might be less fortunate than himself. A widow, one daughter, Doris A. Chandler, a mother living in Mt. Albion, P.E.I., and six brothers, Daniel M. and James H. of West Newton, Mass., Charles and John of Sydney, Cape Breton, William A. and R. Westmay Chandler of Mt. Albion, P.E.I., also two sisters, Mrs. Flora McDonald of Mt. Albion, P.E.I., and Mrs. Margaret Myers of Mt. Albion, P.E.I., survive. (Mr. Chandler was a son of the late Mr. Wm. Chandler, Mt. Albion.)

Delights Ladies

Parisian Sage, the Great Hair Beautifier is Guaranteed.

Hair that is irresistibly attractive will make any woman look more youthful.

In Paris the clever French women fully realize this and retain their youthful appearance even in the fifties.

While Parisian Sage is known the world over as a certain cure for dandruff and falling hair and is sold by Geo. E. Hughes on the no-cure-no-pay plan, it is especially recommended to society women who greatly desire lovely, fascinating hair.

It will put life and lustre into dull, faded hair in one week.

Parisian Sage makes the head feel good the minute it is applied.. The first application creates confidence, for the user cannot help but feel that such delightfully cooling and exhilarating tonic will do what ordinary commercial tonics have failed to do.

Parisian Sage is sold in Charlottetown by Geo. E. Hughes and by leading druggists everywhere.

Guaranteed to kill dandruff microbes, cure dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Comes in large 50-cent bottles and "The Girl with the Auburn Hair," is on every package.

::When you feel like a glass of good soda water, call at The Central Drug-store—we make our own soda, use pure fruit flavors only, and the best cream obtainable. These together with cleanliness, liberality, and good service make our big Fountain a popular resort—E. A. Foster—Sunnyside Druggist Mtf.

LATEST FROM THE THEATRES

F. F. PROCTOR'S NEW YORK.

First time features are the predominating factors in the immense bill of vaudeville attractions to be enjoyed next week at F. F. Proctor's 125th Street Theatre. A grand total of twelve standard acts with change of bill every Monday and Thursday will be the Summer policy. Heading the list will be Edison's Peerless Talkies and the following array of novelties; Lowell and Esther Drew in the comedy skit "At the Drug Store"; Casn and Limit, comedy acrobats; Rogers, Rock and company in the comedy dramatic sketch "My Father"; Brighton Quartette, Comedy and songs; Albert Donnelly, shadowgraphist; Gertrude Dudley and company, entertainers de luxe; Jane Knowels and company in the skit "What Henrietta Did"; Walter Weems, blackface monologist; Cardo and Noll, operatic soloists; Four Brass Men, comedy Instrumental; Lockart and Eddy, comedy knockabouts, continued presentation of the Kinemacolor and black and white photo plays which are changed daily.

PROCTOR'S 58TH STREET THEATRE.

Topping the list of June novelties will be The Great Barnetti in his wonderful feats of prestigidation, Others are Harry Botter and company in the ludicrous melange "The Matrimonial Blizzard"; The Three Libins, singers and dancers; The Be Anos, comedy acrobats; Grace Dixon comedienne; Kennedy and Kramer, talking, singing, and dancing. Kinemacolor and black and white photo plays.

PROCTOR'S 23RD STREET THEATRE.

The Modern Svengali, one of the weirdest mysteries on the vaudeville stage will be the headliner of a very diverting bill. The special added attraction will be Luigi Del Oro and his wonderful musical novelty. Others are Gertie Gilson, singing comedienne; Emma De Castro and company in the comedy sketch "Winning the Widow"; Empire State Quartette; Macauley and Connell, black face comedians; Paulinetti and Biquo, eccentric acrobats, Kinemacolor and black and white photo plays.

WEEK OF JUNE 9TH.

At Proctor's 5th Avenue, the bill represents class and quality to the ninth degree, every turn being distinguished by an air of refinement and culture, assets not always in evidence at the vaudeville theatres. Stellar honors will be accorded Emma Dunn, justly acclaimed "the most versatile woman on the stage," in a new sketch "Making Good" in which a whole-comedy element abounds. Next in importance will come Miss Grace Edmond, until recently Delphine in "Oh, Oh, Delphine"! Miss Edmond was first introduced to New York at Proctor's and it is but fit that she shall return to vaudeville there. Singers and dancers of ultimate grace and talent are Elphye Snowden and Earl Benham, while second to none in the same line are Paul Morton and Naomi Glass who will offer "My Lady of the Bungalow". Doris Wilson and Company will contribute a refreshing novelty while Ismed, the leading piano virtuoso of Turkey will endeavor to entertain.

Others on a programme of sustained excellence will be Howard's Animal Novelty; Graham-Dent Co. in "The Packing Day"; Three Oberita Sisters in electrically embellished dances, and Williams and Rankin, premier cornetists.

B. F. KEITH'S UNION SQUARE THEATRE, NEW YORK.

There is diminution in the crowds during the hot weather at B. F. Keith's Union Square Theatre, for that popular playhouse has been equipped with the latest Poole Ventilating System, which sends continuous cool air throughout the auditorium. The ventilating fans placed in prominent locations, large palm fans in every chair, cracked ice with distilled water served to every patron during the entire performance, the ushers and attendants wearing light uniforms, the theatre decorated with light silk curtains, not only have a cooling effect at all times, but make the patron imagine he or she is sitting on the beach witnessing a vaudeville entertainment.

So many headline features vie with one another in the bill arranged for the week of June 16th, it is hard to name the one to whom precedence should be given. However, honors are divided between Miss Lillian Shaw and Mr. Paul Dickey. Miss Shaw is one of the most gifted and original of vaudeville entertainers. She is not only the writer of her own brilliant material, mainly in dialect, song and story, but she has a most original way of putting that material over the footlights so as to create the strongest impression. Miss Shaw makes a welcome return with new song hits and other material after an absence of twelve months.

Mr. Paul Dickey has starred in several successful plays during the past year and has just been persuaded to enter vaudeville for a tour of the Keith Circuit. Mr. Dickey will present a comedy in one act, a romance of the Campus, called, "The Come Back." which is very amusing being full of funny lines and situations. He will be supported by a company of four players.

Other prominent names will be Yvette, the dainty violiniste, in a new musical creation, "A Study in Black Art"; John and Winnie Henning, two clever entertainers coming from the west, where they have made a colossal bit with their comedy, "The Kill Kare Kouple," the Nine Crazy Kids, a company of juvenile comedians, offering a sprightly musical skit in which they render some of the most popular song hits of the day, interspersed with cleverly rendered dances and Prof. Dirkin's Pantomine Dogs, will be a treat for everybody, as they give an entire pantomine without the aid of their master.

AT B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE, BOBTON.

Vinie Daly, the popular Boston musical comedy favorite, who has just returned from Europe, will make her reappearance in vaudeville in this country at B. F. Keith's Theatre, Boston, on Monday afternoon. As leading lady with George M. Cohan in "George Washington, Jr.," and numerous other successes, Miss Daly has been studying for grand opera abroad during the past two years. It is especially fitting that she should make her re-appearance on the American stage at B. F. Keith's Theatre, where she has so often sang and danced as a vaudeville headliner. Miss Daly will be but one feature of a really great summer show. Jack Kennedy and his players will present that most amusing of comedies, "A Business Proposal," while Kimberly and Mohr have a most novel offering in the comedy line entitled "In Clubland," introducing some splendid songs. Leitzel Sisters and Jeanette, the Spanish aerialists, will display their skill on the trapeze; O'Brien and Havel have a funny skit called "Monday Morning," full of bright lines and clever situations; and other strong features will be The Stanleys in "Shadow Fun in Silhouetteland;" Sue Smith, the singing comedienne; Miller and Mack, eccentric dancers; Lord and Payne, comedy acrobats; The Edison Kinetophone with the latest talking motion pictures; Pathe Weekly, with the world's current events pictures in motion.

The Moistersingers of Boston, composed of the famous Harvard, Schubert and Webar Quartettes, will make their third annual summer appearance at B. F. Keith's Theatre very shortly in a brand-new spectacular production.

Looked Like Intended Suicide.

The citizen who was brandishing a fierce looking razor says it wasn't suicide but corns he was thinking about. Needless to says his wife bought him Putnam's Corn Extractor, and hid the razor—very wise, because Putnam's cures in 24 hours; try it, 25c at all dealers.

Where Shall I Invest My Money?

One of the first things a man thinks of in this world, is, how to get rich, how to provide for independence. Men who are born rich and have wealth left them do not find it hard to answer this question.

They Invest Their Money

Some in business, some in real estate, some in stocks and bonds.

BUT

The majority of the public were not born rich and have only their small savings to invest. It is not possible to invest in business, stocks and bonds which pay a large dividend are prohibitive in price. The banks don't pay anything worth while.
