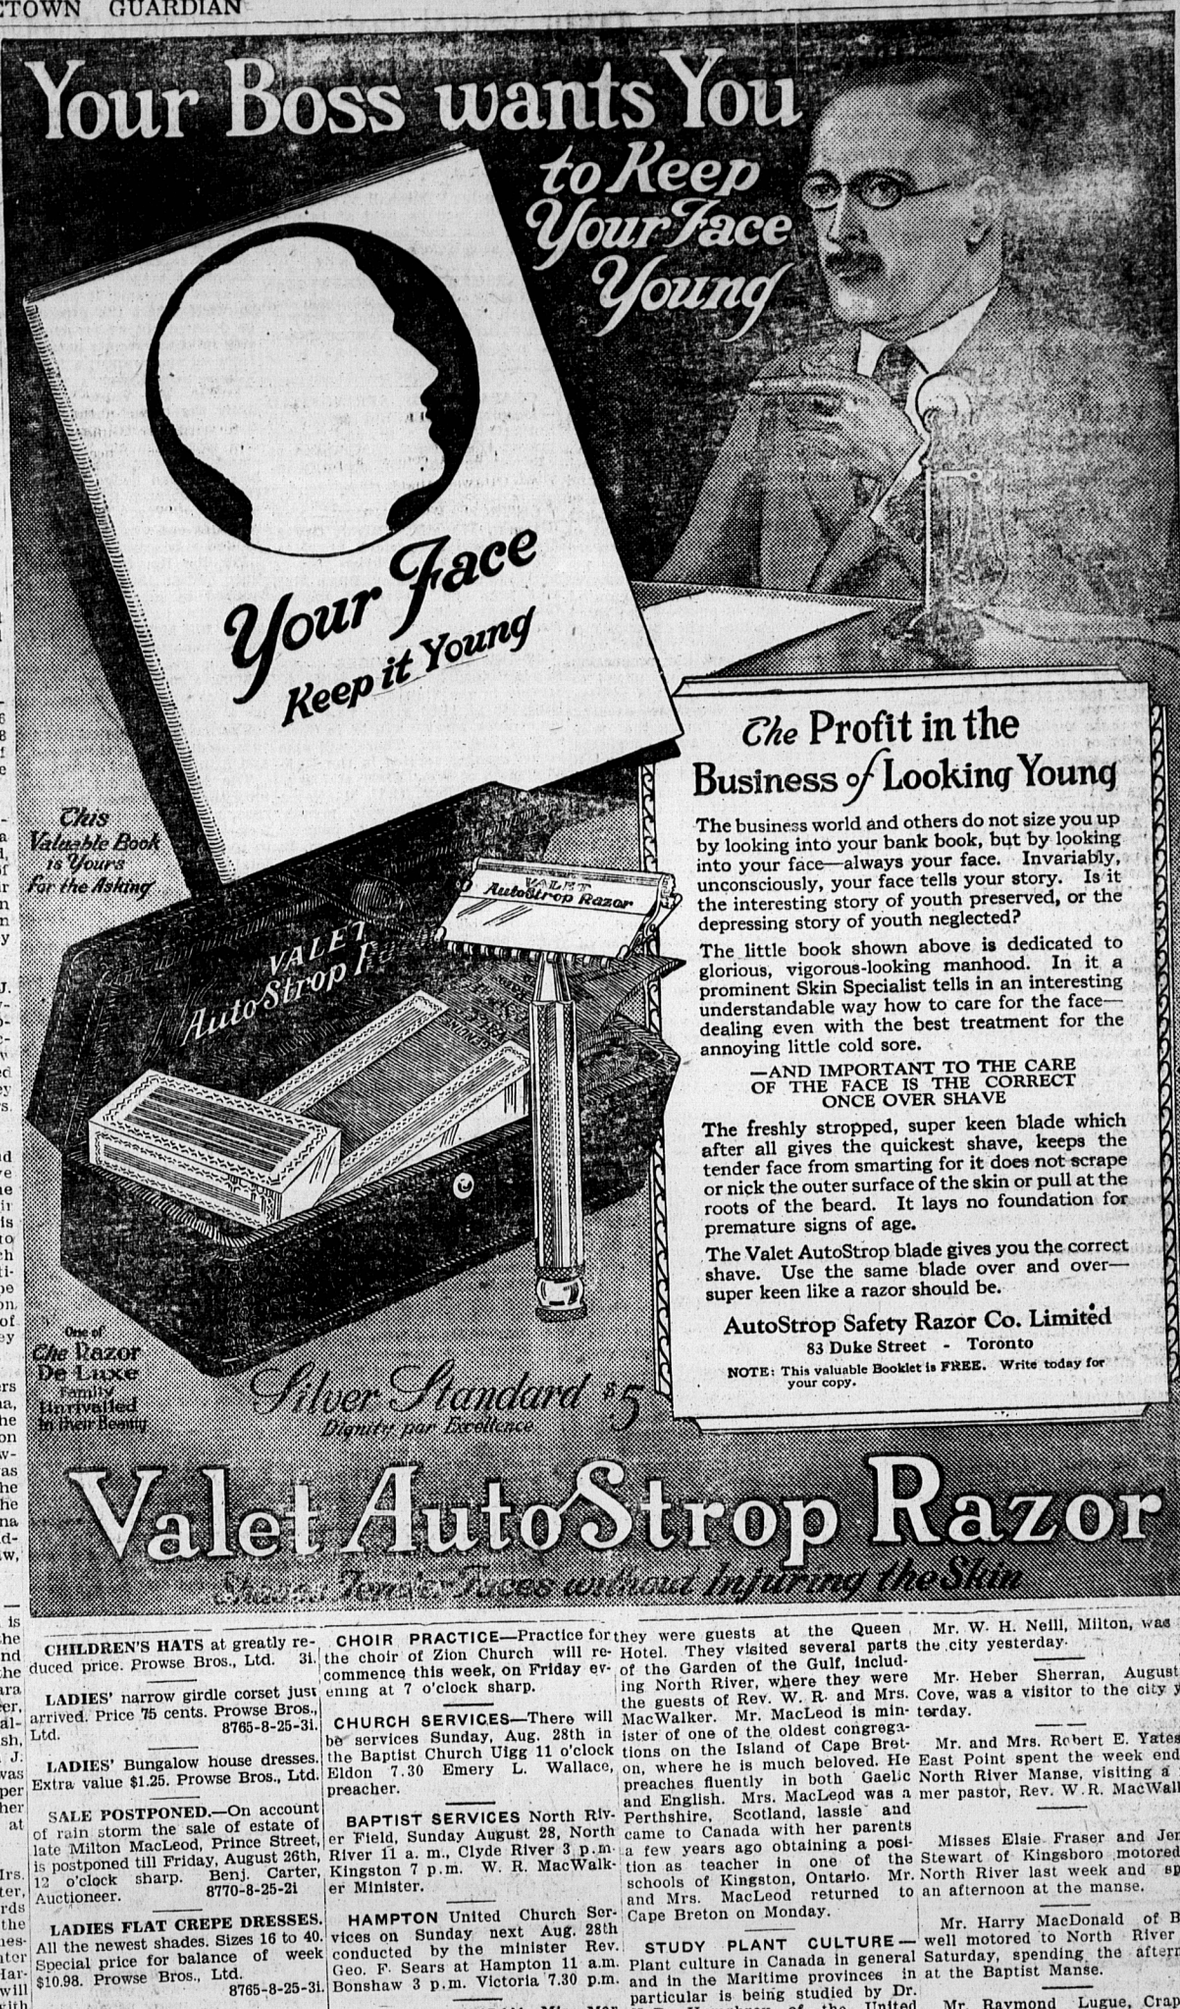
Your Boss wants You to Keep Your Face Young



The Profit in the Business of Looking Young

The business world and others do not size you up by looking into your bank book, but by looking into your face—always your face. Invariably, unconsciously, your face tells your story. Is it the interesting story of youth preserved, or the depressing story of youth neglected?

The little book shown above is dedicated to glorious, vigorous-looking manhood. In it a prominent Skin Specialist tells in an interesting understandable way how to care for the face—dealing even with the best treatment for the annoying little cold sore.

—AND IMPORTANT TO THE CARE OF THE FACE IS THE CORRECT ONCE OVER SHAVE

The freshly stropped, super keen blade which after all gives the quickest shave, keeps the tender face from smarting for it does not scrape or nick the outer surface of the skin or pull at the roots of the beard. It lays no foundation for premature signs of age.

The Valet AutoStrop blade gives you the correct shave. Use the same blade over and over—super keen like a razor should be.

HAS FRIENDS HERE—Mr. Fritz Schaefer, Manager of the Royal Bank of Barcelona, Spain, has arrived in Shediac on a two month's vacation, part of which he spent at the Cape Brule summer home of his mother, Mrs. H. H. Schaefer. Since his last visit to his old home surroundings here Mr. Schaefer has become the head of a family. He was married overseas to Miss Jean Webster, daughter of Mrs. Albert J. Webster of Shediac. Mrs. Webster and Mrs. Schaefer spent the winter in Spain, and with the latter's infant daughter, came to Mrs. Webster's Shediac home early in the summer season. Mr. Schaefer has many friends in the Maritime Provinces. His father was the late H. H. Schaefer, for many years, I.C.R. terminal agent at Point du Chene and later a traffic official of both the Canadian Government system and Dominion Atlantic railway, controlled by the C.P.R. The city of Barcelona has a population of well over half a million and is an important manufacturing and shipping centre—Moncton Times.

ON WEDDING TRIP—Rev. D. J. MacLeod and Mrs. MacLeod of West Bay Cape Breton have been spending their honeymoon on "the Island." While in Charlottetown they were guests at the Queen Hotel. They visited several parts of the Garden of the Gulf, including North River, where they were the guests of Rev. W. R. and Mrs. MacWalker. Mr. MacLeod is minister of one of the oldest congregations on the Island of Cape Breton, where he is much beloved. He preaches fluently in both Gaelic and English. Mrs. MacLeod was a Perthshire, Scotland, lassie and came to Canada with her parents a few years ago obtaining a position as teacher in one of the schools of Kingston, Ontario. Mr. and Mrs. MacLeod returned to Cape Breton on Monday.

STUDY PLANT CULTURE—Plant culture in Canada in general and in the Maritime provinces in particular is being studied by Dr. H.B. Humphrey of the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, who passed through Moncton Tuesday en route to Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. Dr. Humphrey plans to visit the various experimental farms and stations in the three provinces, Charlottetown, Nappan, Truro, Kentville and Fredericton before returning to the United States. He has been in Quebec recently. Dr. Humphrey spoke of the progress that had been made in raising certified seed in the Maritime Provinces and along the St. Lawrence river in Quebec and said that it probably would never be possible to raise anything of a similar character in the United States. The northern climate and the more suitable soils prevented "mosaic" and the potatoes in consequence were much superior.—Moncton Transcript.

FERGUSON'S STAND DOES NOT SPOIL FEDERAL CHANCES

QUEBEC, Que., Aug. 25.—"Hon. Howard Ferguson, one of the outstanding Tories in Canada, has given the rumor that he wanted to be Hon. Mr. Meighen's successor as chief of the opposition in Canada a coup de grace by officially denying it," says L'Evenement, Conservative French daily of Quebec, and adds: "This declaration comes early enough so as not to embarrass friends of Mr. Ferguson, and yet late enough for him to have benefited by the national publicity that has been given his name.

"Mr. Ferguson's refusal will not affect his chances of promotion in any way, if he ever feels the urge to enter the federal arena. No matter who may be the choice of the Winnipeg convention, the next Conservative leader will be a voluntary victim on the altar of sacrifice. Mr. Meighen's successor is crushed in advance by the superiority of his predecessor and the anarchy which followed his departure."

"In two, three or four years the endurance of the next leader will probably be exhausted, and conditions will then be more propitious for a leader of Mr. Ferguson's calibre providing that in the interval he carefully looks after his legislation and repairs the wrongs done the French-Canadian minority," continues the paper in its leading editorial under the heading, "Mr. Ferguson is not wrong."

Donald was invited to the golden wedding of a very old and trusted friend. He hesitated to accept, however, knowing that he would be expected to stump up a present in gold. At length, however, he decided to go and on the day appointed appeared and presented the happy pair with a tin of Golden Syrup.
