THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block, Charlottetown.

Work on the new rink is well under way. The roof is almost all covered in and an idea of the immense size of the building may now be gained by passers-by.

The S. S. Bonavista arrived at 6 o'clock last evening from Montreal with a very large cargo of general merchandise. Consignees are requested to take delivery of their freight as it is discharged from steamer.

The engagement is announced of Miss Millie A. Campbell, daughter of John B. Campbell, Windsor, to Rev. Ernest B. Spurr, Wilton, Annapolis. Mr. Spurr will be remembered by many people in this city.

A cow that had arrived at Picton from Charlottetown a few days ago, and was driven from the cattle pen to the cars, took a notion to take a dip and jumped over the wharf. She proved a good swimmer, landing on the shore near Dwyer's wharf, none the worse.

CAPT. WIGLAND, of the Russian ship Sovinto, wrecked on Prince Edward Island arrived in the city last night to confer with the Russian Consul, Mr. Mathers. The captain leaves on the mail steamer Virginian tomorrow for England, en route to his home in Finland, which he has not visited for some time, and where his 20 months infant child, which he has never seen, awaits him.

"THE GUARDIAN MAN" will make his second round some evening this week and will distribute three more envelopes. Number one envelope will contain Mark Wright Furnishing Co's order for $10.00 worth of furniture or carpets.

The schooner Albana, Captain James Lanigan, arrived from Souris, P. E. I. Wednesday evening with a cargo consisting of 1,900 bushels of potatoes, 1,000 bushels oats, 600 bushels turnips, a large quantity of cabbage, parsnips, carrots and beets, besides some geese, sheep and dressed hogs.

A Sussex, N. B., correspondent of the St. John Sun says:—Seldom does a social event occur in which the spirit of good fellowship is more manifest than in the gathering held Wednesday evening to bid farewell to A. E. Vessey, the retiring manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia here.

Mr. Thomas, manager of the Bank of N. B., spoke feelingly of the friendly relations which had always existed between himself and Mr. Vessey. Excellent humorous anecdotes were told by J. T. Kirk, Rev. S. Neale, W. C. Hunter and others, interspersed with solos by J. D. McKinnon and selections by the Sussex male quartette.

British Cough Cure is an article that every house should have at this time of the year, when coughs and colds are so prevalent. There's nothing like it for children. It cures every time. Prepared and sold at 25c per bottle, by A. W. Reddin, Pharm. B., The Central Dispensary.

The last directors' meeting for 1906 will be held by the Y.M.C.A. Board tonight at 8. Any suggestions for the better management of the Association sent addressed to Secretary Aruhbald will be taken into consideration by the Board this evening.

On the 20th instant, at St. Malachi's Church, Kinkora, John T. Mulligan, Middleton, and Miss Rosella Hughes, daughter of James Hughes, Kinkora, were united in matrimony, Rev. J. J. Macdonald officiated. The bride very beautifully attired in a suit of grey chiffon broadcloth and white picture hat was attended by her sister Miss Regina Hughes while the groom was ably supported by Amos P. Monaghan.

After the ceremony the wedding drove to the home of the bride's parents where they received the hearty congratulations of their friends. Dinner was served in Mrs. Hughes's usual good style after which a piano evening was spent in a music singing and various games. The wedding presents were both numerous and valuable, giving testimony of the high esteem in which Mr. Mrs. Mulligan are held by the community. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful gold bracelet.

MISS KATIE McQUAID who was visiting her sister Mrs. Chas. Bradley, St. Teresa's, returned to her home in Kelly's Cross last week.
