An interesting speech was made by the Bishop of Stepney at a meeting held at the Mansion House, London, recently, in aid of the Police Court Mission.

In praising the work of the police court missionaries, the bishop drew a comparison between the pranks of young university bloods and the exuberance of spirit which frequently led London lads to the police court.

It was simply human nature in each case, he declared, but with the university lad it left no more serious result than a lecture from the dean or rustication, whereas in London many lads with no more real viciousness in their characters than their more fortunate brothers got sent to a prison for which they were never destined.

"It may be considered unconventional of me to say so," added the bishop, "but it is no less a fact that I have seen in prison girls who are as good and pure as the daughters of any member of my audience."

"A girl of the lower classes yields to the pressure of friends to take intoxicating drinks; she gets excited, commits some freak, and goes to the police court as a 'drunk and disorderly.'"

"But I have known girls in the highest circles who say they dare not refuse to have a little gambol for fear of offending their hosts and hostesses."

In each case there was, said the bishop, a breach of the moral code, but the former instance was no more deserving of punishment than the latter.

Lord Provost of Edinburgh.

Sir Robert Cranston, the Lord-Provost-elect of Edinburgh, may be described as Edinburgh's "universal provider," says The London Chronicle. As treasurer of the city, he was knighted by the King on the occasion of his visit last spring. Of Border extraction, with all the fine old fighting spirit of the Liddesdale Reivers, he is one of the keenest volunteers in the kingdom. He was one of the first to join the ranks of the Queen's Edinburgh Brigade, the largest of its kind in the country, and he once boasted that for a quarter of a century he had never missed a parade.

He enjoys the distinction of having been the first volunteer officer to be appointed adjutant to his own corps, and to this honor he attained by special staff studies in London and at Aldershot. Several years ago, when the Duke of Connaught was still commanding at the Camp, he invited Col. Cranston down to join his staff on the occasion of the army manoeuvres. His fame is sealed by the familiarity of the populace with "Bob" Cranston.

"Father, have you read my ode 'To the Pines'?" asked the youthful poet.

"No, John, I haven't" was the old man's reply. "But you just take this here ax an' cut down a few 'em. The pines are owin' me 'bout ten cards o' wood!"

DOES CHILDREN GOOD.

Mrs. Joseph Langtry, Brookville, Ont. "I have used Dr. Low's Worm Syrup in my family, and it has always been effective and has done the children good. I can highly recommend it."

Jason—"Smith says that he believes all women should be allowed to vote."

Mason—"He does, eh? Well that is what comes of marrying a lady you can't lick."

INSTANT RELIEF.

Mr. Robt. Jennings, Mansfield, Ont., writes: "I have used one bottle of Dr. Low's Oothahe Gum for severe toothache, and received instant relief. Besides this, it acted as a splendid temporary filling. Price 10c."

He—I have saved up enough for us to live at the rate of $10,000 a year. She—For how long? He—Oh, one year.

Laxa-Liver Pills are the ladies' favorite cathartic, as they do not grip or pain, sicken or weaken or cause the slightest inconvenience. Price 25c., all drugists.

Anxious Arabella:—"I hope it doesn't bother you to have my hair blow in your face!" The Brute:—"Not in the least. I was born in China. I can eat rats."

EARACHE CURED.

Miss J. J. Johnson, Innisfail, Alta., says: "I was troubled with Earache for a long time, and nothing helped me until I used Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which cured me completely."

Mistress—Did you bring any references with you? Cook—No'm I thought I'd set the place first.

Husband—"What does it matter how plain your clothes are? Beauty, you know is only skin deep, and— Wife—"And I really would like to make mine as skin deep just for once."

Stupefying headaches are cured, the head cleared, and the brain brightened by Millburn's Seering Headache Powders, which do not weaken the heart. Price 10c. and 25c.

Father—"Don't ask so many questions. Tommy, you are not supposed to know everything that goes on around here." Tommy—"No, but I do, though."

Rooney—"Where did ye git the black eye folks?" Clancy—"Why, Tim Dolan's just back from his honeymoon, an' 'twas me advised Tim to git married."

All the lung healing properties of the pine are bottled up in Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It is the most satisfactory remedy for coughs and colds of all kinds. Price 50c.

Willie—"Pa, when you say a man's 'wool gathering' it means he's lazy, don't it?" Pa—"Not necessarily. He may be gathering the wool of the lambs in Wall street. Minard's Liniment Relieves Neuralgia."

UPPER MAGAGUADAVIC, N.B. THE BAIRD CO., LTD.

DEAR SIRS,—For seven years I was troubled with a sore foot. I was to the head doctors of the Boston Hospital, also to several other doctors, but they could do nothing to cure it. I tried everything I could think of, and was just about giving up when I thought I would try KENDRICK'S LINIMENT. I had not used quite one bottle before my foot was entirely well. Father keeps a store, and he would not be without Kendrick's Liniment. He recommends it highly to everybody.

Wishing you every success with the medicine, I remain, Yours truly, CORA MAY WILSON.
