PERT-COOPER WEDDING

Chalmers United Church, Montreal, Que., was the scene of a pretty wedding on the evening of June 27, 1947, when Joyce Catherine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William George Cooper, Murray Harbour, P.E.I., was united in marriage to George Terrier, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Pert, Verdun, Quebec. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Gardner Ward before an altar banked with pink and white peonies. Mr. Lester Woodin provided the wedding music. The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Max Benson, looked charming in aqua blue suit, black halo hat and black accessories. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations and hollyhocks. The bridesmaid, Miss Eileen Topping, chose a grey print dress and yellow and white accessories. She carried a nose-gay of yellow roses and mauve sweet peas. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. John Pert, Mr. James Pert Jr., and Mr. Bill Weir acted as ushers. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Vice-Regal suite of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel. The table was centered with a tiered wedding cake, and floral decorations were peonies, snapdragons and stock. The toast to the bride was proposed by the best man and responded to by the groom. Following the reception the bride and groom left by motor to spend a short time at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec City, and later visited the bride's family in P.E.I. For travelling the bride chose a pink and black print dress and black accessories. Her corsage was a single orchid worn on her dress. Previous to her marriage the bride was presented with a coffee-table by her former employers R. L. Crain Limited. She was also guest of honor at a shower given by her girl friends and was presented with a set of crystal. On the eve of their marriage the bride and groom were presented with a silver service by the groom's fellow employees. The couple will reside in Montreal.

Address And Presentation

On Wednesday evening June 26th, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hickox and family were again honored when Mrs. Horace and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ling opened their hospitable home to friends and co-workers of New Glasgow Christian Church to bid farewell and tell them how they will be missed in the community. Mr. Hickox was escorted to the living room and seated beside his wife by Mr. Earl Houston while Miss Shirley Campbell and Miss Beverly Crockett were escorts to Hilda and Evelyn. Mr. Eddison Rollings capably presided explaining the purpose of the gathering and assuring the family that a hearty welcome awaits them in the homes of New Glasgow at any opportunity. He then called on Mrs. P. L. Campbell to read a nicely worded address while Mrs. Richard Dickieson and Mrs. Howard Ling made the presentation of a lovely occasional chair. Mr. and Mrs. Hickox on behalf of their family spoke feelingly thanking their friends for their kind words and lovely gift and extending thanks to the Ling family for the use of their home for the occasion and inviting all to visit them at their home in Burlington. Complimentary remarks were made by Mr. Rollings, Mr. Percy Dickieson, Mr. Richard Dickieson, Mr. Howard Ling, Mrs. Horace Ling and Mrs. Preston Campbell. "For they are jolly good fellows" was sung after which a sing song was enjoyed. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies and "Blest be the tie that binds" brought a pleasant evening to a close. Following is the address: To Mr. and Mrs. Dannie Hickox, Dear Friends: It is with feelings of regret that we your friends and co-workers of New Glasgow Christian Church have assembled here tonight to say farewell and to extend our good wishes for a large share of happiness in your future home. A number of us have lived beside you for many years and learned to appreciate your kind hospitality recalling many pleasant evenings spent in our home. We will cannot let you go without expressing in some manner at least our appreciation for the part you and your family have played in church and community activities. We will very much but we must remember circumstances require changes and that our loss will be another's gain. So I unite to wish be so happy but all unite to wish you health and happiness in your Go-getters in Lower Montague W. I.

"Go-getters" is the name applied to the person who sees what he wants and then goes and gets it. There seem to be a number of go-getters in the Lower Montague Women's Institute.

When the TB League announced the summer schedule for the Mobile X-ray Unit a stand at Montague was planned, but there was no mention of Lower Montague. And then the Institute ladies set to work. Mrs. David Wright called on the League organizer and asked that the Mobile Unit be brought to her district, and she was advised to have the Institute canvass the district to see how many there were to be X-rayed.

Mrs. Harvey Ross, president of the Institute, Miss Margaret Poole and George Wright, made this survey promptly. The unit technicians readily agreed to bring the unit along some evening after their regular work, and on Thursday last, after an early meal at Mrs. Wright's they started work at the school house. Miss Dorothy Taylor assisted as clerk. Ninety-one persons were X-rayed in about one and one half hours. This was the second visit to this progressive community, as the people had been X-rayed in November, 1945.

you marry. It will be happier for you and far, far happier for the girl if you marry in your own class.

DEAR MISS DIX: I have been married a year to a boy whom I love very much. We get along together fine and the only trouble is that he never bothers to kiss me when he comes in or when he leaves. Also, he never tells me he loves me. Can it be that he is just not of an affectionate disposition, or has he come to care for me? I don't know whether to speak to him about it or not. MRS. R. A. R.

ANSWER: Not all men are kissing bugs and because your husband doesn't bestow a smack on you every time he comes and goes is no sign whatever that he doesn't love you. Why wives lay such stress upon kissing and make it a test of their husbands' affections, is a mystery.

For, in reality, there is nothing so meaningless as the domestic kiss, that is flavored with bacon and eggs that a man gives his wife as he is rushing to make his train and that is as likely to fall on the back of her hair or the rim of her ears as on her lips, and which the wife does not bother to return because her mind is on the grocery list and getting the children off to school your husband not giving you a kiss everytime he starts to work or comes home from work. And don't ever ask him to kiss you. Wait until some time when he gives you a spontaneous kiss of his own accord. It won't taste so much like something that came out of the icebox.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Is a man a gentleman who wears the finest of clothes, holds a good job, has perfect manners, but borrows money from his lady friends and never pays it back; lets the girl pay the bill when he takes her out stepping, and is constantly touching every woman he knows for a loan? LOU

ANSWER: No. I'd say that he is the lowest of all heels, and that no girl with any self-respect would ever have anything to do with him. A man who preys on women is the most despicable of all dead-beats.

It is an indication that the years are overpowering if one is unable to make and enjoy new friends. "Older, Ellen?" James remarked absently this morning "were not getting any younger at all and such!" he said, as he proceeded to straighten a limb which of late has had a misery in a knee, before going out to the hoing. His kiss offered on anniversaries and such, though it has dwindled into a mere peck, which may however indicate an unsuspected depth of sentiment was, so he informed Jeanie, "one that I was almost as shy about, as the first one I used in my courting." "Old" he repeated, easing himself out of his armchair and picking up his cap "it's said, 'you're only as old as you feel.'"

be like then." It is an intriguing subject this matter of aging, though I much doubt that the future will be kind enough ever to lessen our calendar years. "You're only as old as you feel" James repeats his statement of the morning and as he eases his now bandaged limb to a more comfortable position, he adds "tonight, I feel to be about a hundred — I don't see how I'll be able to make the stairs, with this knee bound so tightly." There it is then, a pleasant birthday gone to join others that are past and gone, but which in the interests of my future youthfulness I may not dwell upon. This one was wrapped about with sunshine and good wishes from relatives and friends. It was threaded with bird song and the plaintive lowing of cattle in daisied meadows, and for shadow, a concern for James and all of those who at present may not enjoy their usual measure of good health. And now to climb "dem stairs." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills — Diary — Goodnight.
