WINNIPEG, Man., April 23.—That an October 23rd night had playfully blown a 25-pound basket to the land of the missing was the explanation given by Mrs. Maud Thomas yesterday in court. Vernon River And Vicinity

Mr. Sterns of Sterns' Steam Laundry, Charlottetown, and McIntosh McKinnon of Ulg, made several calls in Vernon River on Sunday last. Their many friends were very much pleased to see them, and regretted that they were unable to remain longer.

Miss Phoebe Richards, Vernon River, recently installed a beautifully toned new organ in her residence at Vernon River station. Miss Richards was a well qualified singer and musician. This will be quite an acquisition to social life in the village. Miss Richards, assisted by Mrs. W. Carver, is at present busily engaged papering and decorating the residence on the old Weatherlie homestead. Recently purchased by her nephew, Mr. W. Carver, from the Vernon River station. Miss Richards purposes renting rooms and otherwise catering to the summer tourist trade.

Mr. William Smith, mechanic, Millville, recently completed enlarging the store building shelves, drawers and making other improvements to the store of Mr. H. S. McLeod, Vernon River. Mr. Cephas Ross, the famous artist, Vernon River, has given the finishing touch in painting. The work reflects much credit on both workmen and adds greatly to appearance and accommodation.

Owing to increasing business and in order to better serve the increasing number of customers patronizing their store, Jenkins Bros., merchants, Millville, installed a new and up-to-date elevator. The elevator will be used for passengers or goods. This will be a great convenience as the large and varied supplies of goods carried by the firm necessitated frequent use of the upper flats.

The potato trade at Vernon River is assuming large proportions. During one week twelve carloads left for St. John's, and five other cars loaded for shipment. Jenkins Bros., Millville, and H. S. McLeod, Vernon River, were the principal shippers.

Mr. R. McDonald, C. N. R. car-penter, recently installed a modern platform scales on the freight house at Vernon River station. The capacity of the scales is six thousand lbs., and will be a great accommodation in handling the large quantity of freight shipped at Vernon River station.

The many friends of Miss Janey Acorn, Hermitage, will be pleased to know that she has returned from Boston and other New England cities, where she spent the winter.

Miss Margaret McPhee, teacher, Hunter River, returned after visiting in Vernon River, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McDonald.

Miss Nora Walsh and Miss Sadie McInnis returned to their homes in St. Peter's after visiting in Vernon River, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Cairns.

Mr. Patrick Cairns, of Vernon River, sold a valuable horse to a purchaser from Pownal.

Mr. E. Dingwell, travelling salesman for DeBlois Bros., Charlottetown, returned to the city after a business visit to Vernon River.

Mr. A. E. McDonald, Vernon River, purchased a large barn from Mr. A. Huntley. The barn is located on the farm purchased by Mr. McDonald from Miss Christie McQueen at Orwell. The haul to Mr. McDonald's home at Vernon River is two miles. The hauling is being done by Mr. McPherson, the well-known building mover of Orwell. The building is intended to replace the barn destroyed by fire on Mr. McDonald's premises a short time ago.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. John Fraser, of Avondale, is recovering from a recent attack of illness, and his many friends hope to see him around soon again.

The many friends of Mr. P. M. Brothers, Vernon River, are pleased to see him resuming his outdoor occupation after being confined to his house for some time owing to serious illness.

A dead crow lying by the railway track in Ulg caused considerable discussion as to the cause of death. The conclusion arrived at was that a death was caused by electricity. The atmospheric disturbances caused by a former resident of Ulg charged the sun, moon, stars, fields, forest and railway track with enough electricity to blow up the Glencoe Bridge, and Mr. Crow coming in contact with the step rail instant death was the result. An sacrifice comes before achievement we hope the good people of Ulg will soon get the much-needed booking station.

Mr. George VanDerstede, of Montague, is visiting in Vernon, the guest of Mr. Wallace Drake.

Mr. A. Weatherlie is negotiating for the purchase of the old homestead owned and occupied by Mr. J. F. Nutlow, Millville. Mr. Weatherlie made Mr. Nutlow a pretty good offer and is now being considered.

Mr. Bert Drake, Millville, is the owner of a beautiful Rex Heart chestnut mare. The mare is a beautiful animal, an excellent driver, and we understand Mr. Drake turned down a pretty good cash offer for her.

A prominent farmer of Vernon River, and his amiable partner purchased a pair of ducks of the most approved breed. The birds were well cared for and fed, but non River station on foot.

PERSONALS

*Mr. John M. McKenzie, blacksmith at Lyndale, has spent the past week at his home in Seal River.

*Messrs Lawrence Bouchard and William McPhee, Mitchell River recently visited Strathroy combining business with pleasure and were the guests of Mr. George Hume.

Litholium looks better and lasts longer if given an occasional rub with a tannal cloth dipped in kerosene. All dirt or stains will be removed in this manner.

strange to say eggs were not forthcoming. After searching in all likely places for eggs and getting none after keeping the birds two years, they decided to exchange one for a duck of another strain and this they probably make a couple better crossing. When securing the duck, to their amazement they ascertained that they were feeding two drakes for two years and waiting patiently for eggs. As the couple were both good tempered and not at all given to profanity, they enjoyed a good laugh over the affair and rectified it.

Mr. Arthur Walsh, son of Mr. John Walsh, Elliotville, left by rail for New York a few days ago. Mr. Walsh has several members of his family in New York he will very likely locate there. We wish him success in the land of the Stars and Stripes.

Performers got to work. Dancers bounded light as cork. I tell you it was some spree. You heard it, my boy, the deafening cry. When like lightning they turned up toes. And oh! what a cheer, when after a fly couldn't light on a nose. The dancing and fiddling contest which came off at Lake Verde Friday night last was a great success. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity. Mr. Owen Callaghan, president, and Mr. John Boylan, acted timer. Mr. James O. Trainer, Mr. Francis Drake and Mr. J. A. O'Keefe, acted judges. Four minutes were allowed for each act. An exhibition step dancing was given by Mr. John McLellan. Mr. McLellan did not enter the contest.

The most pleasing feature of the evening was the dancing of the highland fling by Miss Marie Curley, daughter of Mr. J. J. Curley, Hermitage. Miss Curley did her part creditably and received well merited applause from the audience. The fiddling and dancing was so keenly contested that only superb qualifications of the judges could award the prize. The following are the names of contestants, winning in order named:—Fiddlers: Mr. P. Shea, Mr. J. Griffin, Mr. J. Grimes, Mr. D. H. Hughes, Mr. H. Callaghan and Miss L. Callaghan. Dancers: Miss Mary Hughes, Mrs. J. Fisher and Mrs. J. Lynn; gentlemen, Chester Hughes, Aeneas Curran, Chester Hughes, M. McGuirk.

Mr. Cronin, Summerville, recently purchased from Tweedy Bros. Vernon River, the dwelling house formerly owned and occupied by the late Mr. McMillan. The farm dwelling and outbuildings were sold by Mr. McMillan some years before his death to Tweedy Bros.

The basket box social and dance held in Avondale school Monday night last was a grand success. A very large crowd filled the building to its utmost capacity. Mr. J. O'Keefe presided in a very capable manner, also in conjunction with Mr. Pearl Brother, auctioneer baskets and boxes, for which good prices were realized. Mr. J. Lynn acted as floor director. During the entertaining part, Mrs. Pearl Brothers presided at the organ in a very capable manner. After the selling of boxes and baskets, hot coffee was served, after which dancing was indulged in and all went merry as a marriage bell. Violin music was furnished by Fraser Bros., Summerville, and Mr. Pearl Brothers, Elliotville. Mrs. J. Lynn, and Mr. Aeneas Curran, two of the prize winners in the step dancing contest, at Lake Verde gave an exhibition step dancing, receiving round after round of applause. It was good honest work, right out from the shoulder. There was none of the spasmodic contortions shown in some of the so-called modern dances, and it was elevated to watch them trip the light fantastic toe. The new floor recently placed in the school room, was well tested and proved itself equal to the occasion. Much credit is due to the teacher, Miss St. John, for untiring efforts to make the affair a grand success.

Mr. J. B. McDonald of Vernon River, is visiting in Charlottetown the guest of her daughter, Mrs. P. Murnahan.

Mr. M. J. Power, Summerville, was a visitor to the city Monday. On return the train got stalled at Hermitage and Mr. Power made most approved remarks. The birds were well cared for and fed, but non River station on foot.

Gleanings From Tryon and Vicinity

On Thursday evening 15th there was a wonderful display of Northern light here about three o'clock in the morning they were observed by several who stated they were the most magnificent they had ever seen. Many are wondering if these unusual and frequent displays have any special atmospheric significance or are in anyway connected with our unusual weather conditions.

Mrs. Sarah McKenzie recently returned from Saranac Lake, New York, states that the fox business being developed on a large scale in that vicinity.
