The other 60 per cent, he said, will include "costs of demobilization, and rehabilitation of our servicemen, the costs of bringing them home from overseas, the costs of our occupation forces and our post-war military forces, part of the cost of terminating war production and some costs for reconstruction and post-war development."

War costs this year continue high, Mr. Ilsley said, because of the cost of cancelling and completing war contracts, payments to demobilized service personnel and settlement of accounts for goods and services obtained during the period of hostilities.

He expressed the hope the ninth victory loan opening Oct. 22 would produce enough money to take care of the Government's borrowing needs until next fall which are placed at $2,000,000,000. The minimum objective of the loan is $1,500,000,000 but "I hope and believe that we will be able to exceed this objective by a good margin."

Nine Special Trains For Returned Men

NINE SPECIAL TRAINS FOR RETURNED MEN

MONCTON, N.B., Sept. 28—The biggest troop movement by rail in any similar period in Canadian history will leave Halifax over the lines of the Canadian National Railways in the next four days J. H. Norton, regional traffic manager of the railway, said here today. Commencing with the arrival of the S.S. Nieuw Amsterdam on Saturday and ending with the docking of the S.S. Ile De France on Tuesday, more than 18,000 servicemen will arrive back in Canada. Regiments which have made history in world war two are returning as units, including the Carleton and York, Fredericton.

To transport the members of the armed forces to their homes in all parts of the Dominion will require 40 special trains. More than 600 passenger cars will have to be taken out of regular civilian train service, of which 445 of them will be sleepers and 72 diners. Four of the 25 C.N.R. specials needed will take 1,402 soldiers 3,770 miles across the continent, their destination is Vancouver.

Seven trains will go to Toronto with nearly 3,000 army personnel. To other destinations include 681 soldiers for Fredericton, 500 Halifax, 201 Charlottetown, and 179 Moncton. More than 2,000 airmen are going to Montreals repatriation depot and 700 sailors to various destinations across the country.

Annual Banquet Of Assumption Society

The first annual banquet of the Assumption Society of Summerside was held on Thursday evening at the Olympia with approximately one hundred members and guests present.

The guest speaker of the evening was Rev. R. Bolvin, parish priest at Egmont Bay. He outlined the work of the Assumption Society in the fields of education and insurance. He told his listeners that it is the duty of every parent to provide an education for their children. The Assumption Society helps when the cost would be too high for the parent to afford. Education develops the child's character according to God's commandments, he said. Dwelling on the insurance feature of the work of the Society, he said it is the duty of the father to see that the family is sufficiently protected in the event of the death of the wage earner.

Possessing the gift of oratory and speaking in French, Father Bolvin's words were listened to with wrapt attention by the audience.

Other speakers were Mr. C.M. Arsenault, Abram's Village, Representative from this Province on the board of directors of the Society; Mr. Henry Wedge, first president of the Summerside branch when it was reorganized who outlined the work of the society in Summerside since that time; and Major J.S. DesRoches, who spoke on education.

A vote of thanks to the speakers was moved by Mr. Elmer Pineau and seconded by Mr. Patrick Martin.

Other guests present were: Rev. N. Poirier, Fifteen Point; Rev. J.C. McDonald and Rev. Howard Wicht, Summerside; Mr. Albon Gillis, President of the C.M.B.A., Mr. J.E. Murphy, Deputy Grand Knight, K. of C; Flt. Lt. Gilbert Gallant, R.C.A.F., Summerside.

The program opened with O Canada and closed with the singing of the hymn, "Ave Maris Stella" and the King. The formal toast to the King was honored. Mrs. Irene Peters was the pianist. Mr. Andrew LeClair, president of the society, presided bilingually.—S.

Salvation Army Appeal

The campaign executive regret that the appeal to the Rural Areas was unavoidably later this year than last and as some canvassers may be assisting also in the great War Loan starting in October, it is earnestly hoped that each district will give attention to the Salvation Army Home Front Appeal at the earliest possible moment.

PRINCE NOVA SCHEDULE — Starting Monday, October 1st, the following changes will be made in the Wood Island Ferry schedule in order to continue three trips daily on Standard time all through October. The trips will be at 6 a.m., 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. leaving Wood Islands, returning from Caribou at 8 a.m., 12 noon and 4 p.m. The management states it is rather risky to make trips after dark as their is danger on both sides. Some dredging has been done but not enough to enable the boat to make trips after dark in safety. See changes in Time table.

LIQUOR SEIZURES — City and Royal Canadian Mounted Police teamed up last night in a series of raids in Charlottetown and seized illicit liquor in two establishments and relieved a pedestrian on the street of another two quarts of alcohol. The first seizure was made on Richmond Street, where about a gallon of moonshine was found. Then followed the seizure of the two quarts and the discovery of approximately six gallons of alcohol in a building on King Street. It was understood that charges would be laid in court under the Excise Act. Sgt. Sterns Webster and Constable Tony Lund of the City Police, and Cpl. Alvin Shaw and Constable Lionel Strong of the Mounted Police formed the raiding party.

Mr. J.A. McNeill, former general manager of The Canadian Press who recently retired owing to ill health, is on a brief visit to the Province.

Local School Improvement League Meeting

The first fall meeting of the Charlottetown School Improvement League was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Harry Cudmore. The president, Mrs. Gordon McDonald presided and welcomed the large gathering, including several new members.

Mrs. Whiteside gave a report of the activities of the film committee, appointed at the June meeting to investigate the possibility of better films for children. The committee contacted many individuals and organizations in this and other Provinces and found people in general strongly in favor of any move that would improve existing conditions. The secretary was instructed to send a letter to F.G. Spencer and Co., through the local manager, Mr. Walters, setting forth the League's views and asking for co-operation.

The president reported that the School Board had given permission for the installation of radios in the schools. This project has been undertaken by the Kinsmen's Club and will include a public address system and record player.

Mrs. Creelman reported that the pictures for the schools had been bought and lumber ordered for the frames. These will be made in the manual training classes. The problem of buying glass was discussed and then left for consideration later.

A nominating committee, consisting of Mrs. J.P. Lantz, Mrs. Morton Dew and Mrs. H.L. Sear, was appointed to bring in a new slate of officers at the annual meeting to be held Oct. 16 at the home of Mrs. R.R. Bell.

New Kind Of Killer In "Falcon" Drama

Search for a mysterious killer who murders with rattlesnake venom provides exciting action in RKO Radio's "The Falcon Out West" in which Tom Conway is featured as The Falcon.

Keeping a rendezvous with a woman friend, The Falcon arrives at a night club in time to witness the death of a wealthy cattle king who is hosting a gay party on the eve of his departure for the West. The Falcon trails the dead man's fiancee to Texas. Soon after their arrival, the family lawyer is killed in the same manner that the rancher met death. The Falcon is shot at by an unidentified killer and the girl is wounded by a thrown knife. Suspicion swings to the dead rancher's partner and his beautiful daughter.

But The Falcon, refusing to be sidetracked by the various exciting happenings, lays a trap for the killer and tricks the latter into betraying both the method and reason for the murders. The climax to the exciting events, is as sensational as it is unexpected.

A fine supporting cast includes Carole Gallagher, Barbara Hale, Joan Barclay, Cliff Clark, Ed Gargan and Lyle Talbot.

REPORTED CHANGES

May 1, 1945, have been convicted of any offence relating in any way to liquor or the use thereof."

The dead-line "May 1" was set in advance by the Legislature last April. In the event of the amendment being proclaimed now, it is likely that this date will be advanced to October or November.

The amount of liquor obtainable weekly on a "six months script" would be approximately the same as that now obtainable on a single script, namely a quart of hard liquor or twelve quarts of beer.

Provoked Much Controversy

Party lines were split over this issue in the Legislature last session. There was a heated controversy and Hon. Horace Wright, chief opponent of the amendment, tendered his resignation from the Government on the floor of the House. He withdrew it a few days later, however, and has since remained in the Cabinet.

In favor of the amendment when it passed in the Legislature were Premier Jones, Hon. William Hughes, Hon. J.A. Campbell, Hon. T.W.L. Prowse, Hon. Marin Gallant, Messrs. W.H. Dennis, H.H. Cox, Russel Clark, Dougald MacKinnon, T.M. Linkletter, T.J. Kickham, J.A. Bernard (now Lieutenant Governor), Harry Francis, Eugene Cullen, T.R. Cullen, Hon. Dr. W.J.P. MacMillan, H.F. McPhee, D.F. McNeill, R.R. Bell, Philip Matheson.

Against the amendment were Hon. Horace Wright, Hon. G.H. Barbour, G.E. Saville, F.G. Ramsay, E.H. Strong, Heath Strong, Murdock McGowan, Mr. W.G. McKenzie, who was absent when the vote was taken, stated he would have opposed the amendment had he been present.
