Imported Seed Wheat

Island Grown Seed Wheat

A Change of Seed Grain Always Pays

The Wheat Crop was a poor one last year. Our Imported Wheat is grown on contract especially for us in Ontario.

As usual our wheat is put up in bags, each containing two bushels (120 lbs. net).

WHITE RUSSIAN, (Choice Quality) (Scarce) A limited quantity only of this well known seed wheat for sale.

WHITE FIFE No. 1 (Very scarce) RED FIFE No. 1

This is undoubtedly one of the finest milling varieties grown. Succeeds well in good soil, equal to White Fife, suits our soil and climate.

COLORADO BEARDED No. 1

This is a light amber wheat, rather short, thick berry heads, good size, white straw and chaff, stands up well and ripens early.

MARQUIS WHEAT No. 1

Compared with Red Fife the growing crop of Marquis cannot be distinguished from Fife, the straw being stiff and straight of medium length—not so liable to lodge as Fife although the heads of Marquis are proportionately heavier than Fife. Ripens earlier than Fife.

GARNET WHEAT

This is a new variety introduced quite recently of very early ripening qualities, ripens fully ten days to two weeks earlier than any other known variety, and a very desirable wheat where the growing season is short; it is also an excellent milling wheat. We have procured a limited quantity this year of this excellent wheat, and would advise farmers to try it.

MALPEQUE

The Princetown Bible and Missionary Society held its nineteenth anniversary in the United Church on Tuesday afternoon, March 13. Rev. D. M. Grant, president of the society, presided. The address which was given by Rev. J. M. Murchison, secretary of the N. B. and P. E. Island Bible Society, was based on the words of Hebrews 11:2: "God. Who at Sunday times and in divers manners spake in time past into the fathers of the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by His Son." Mr. Murchison declared that the church has always looked upon the Bible as God's voice to man—and the purpose of the Bible is to proclaim two great facts: 1st, that sin has entered in and marred man who had been made in God's image; 2nd, that Jesus Christ came not only to be a teacher, but a healer—not only a healer, but a Saviour. The speaker then showed that the work of the Bible Society is the circulating of the word of God without note or comment to every man in his own tongue. The address throughout was attentively listened to by the large number present, and all realized that the work of the Bible Society, the greatest of all organizations, is an inexhaustible thing. Mr. Murchison favored the audience with a beautiful solo.

The business meeting was then proceeded with and a clear and concise report was presented by the president, Rev. D. M. Grant. The amount realized during the year was $77.53. The missionary committee was re-elected and in addition a committee of five was appointed to work in connection with the interest of the Bible Society, namely—Mr. Hartwell Crozier, chairman; Miss Elma Stewart, Secretary; Treasurer; Mrs. L. D. MacNutt, Messrs. Arch. Woodside and Benjamin Burns.

The Malpeque Women's Institute held a concert and sale of goods in Malpeque Hall on Tuesday evening, March 13th, in the interest of the Hall. Mr. G. W. Ramsay presided. The programme was a creditable one and consisted of instrumental music—violin and piano selections by Messrs. Charles Woodside and Cedric Owen respectively with Miss Mae Bello Woodside as piano accompanist; Solo by Mrs. Clark Woodside, Mrs. Chester Simpson, Messrs. Albert Burgess, and Charles Lowe; readings by Miss Hawkins and Mrs. Ralph Ramsay; and Step dancing by Messrs. Bruce Stewart and Arthur Johnston, all of which were well received. A dialogue by "two clowns" created much merriment and was deserving of the hearty applause given. Rev. J. M. Murchison who was also present contributed a solo which was loudly applauded. During the sale of study, instrumental music was much enjoyed and in all fifty-two dollars was realized. The meeting was brought to a close with the singing of "God Save the King."

Mr. and Mrs. George MacKay entertained the organist and choir of Princetown United Church at their home on Saturday evening, March 10th. After an hour or more occupied with the usual practice, a real chicken supper with all its accompaniments was provided by the hostess. The remainder of the evening was passed in an old-fashioned sing-song and social intercourse was enjoyed. A vote of thanks was moved, seconded and conveyed to Mr. and Mrs. MacKay for their generous hospitality. The members of the choir are certainly worthy of such marks of appreciation and it is gratifying to them to be thus remembered.

Miss Evelyn Corbett, who has been in the employ of Peter MacNutt and Son, left on Wednesday, March 14th for her home in Grandville where she will spend a few days prior to leaving for Ottawa. Miss Corbett has accepted a position as typist in the Civil Service Department. During her stay here she has been and obliging in her position, and a genial and whole-hearted friend and the good wishes of the whole community will follow her in her new work.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crozier and family are being warmly welcomed by their numerous friends after several weeks of quarantine.

Mr. Melville Donald, Baltic, left on Monday for a visit to friends in Alberton.

Despite the unpleasantness of Monday evening, March 12th, about forty of the young people connected with the Young Peoples Society crossed the ice to Lot 16 where they were most hospitably entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mae MacGregor by the young people of that community. A programme of music, games, contests and a good supper was provided for the evening's entertainment. A vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. Fred Donald, seconded by Mrs. John Simpson and conveyed to the host and hostess and the entertainers by the President, Mr. Frank Beiristo. The company were unable to return till the early morning thus making a prolonged pleasant evening, and there will no doubt be many reminiscences of the social time spent in Lot 16. (M)

"RICH AS CROESUS."

(Condensed from The Mentor.—Roger W. Babson, Financial Authority and Statistician.

In every period of human history we find one or several supremely rich men. The first of all these colossal millionaires was Croesus, King of Lydia, in the sixth century, B.C.

The extent of Croesus' wealth may be estimated by his gifts of foreign temples. His gift to the temple of Delphi was a pyramid of 117 bricks surmounted by a lion; the four top bricks of pure gold and weighing over 400 pounds apiece.

The other bricks were of an alloy—three parts silver to seven parts gold. The lion was of pure gold and weighed about 800 pounds. The value of the pyramid in gold and silver alone was $3,500,000; and adding 15 per cent. for the work of the artists amounted to over $4,000,000. Roughly, the purchasing power of money in the sixth century B. C. was 20 times what it is today. Therefore, the modern equivalent of the gift would be $80,000,000.

In addition to bricks and lion there were two enormous bowls, each containing 5400 gallons; one of solid gold, and the other of silver; and the golden image of a woman. Also Croesus sent many vases of gold and silver, and 360 adorned bowls, each of solid gold and weighing one pound, and a present of $13 to every man in Delphi. The ceremony of the gift was accompanied by the sacrifice of 3000 head of each of the different animals used in worship. Summed up, the $10,000,000 which Croesus devoted to expressing his esteem for the city of Delphi did a work that would call for $200,000,000 today.

Croesus must also have been good to his family connections. A distant relative wished to give $2,000,000 in gold to Xerxes as a gift. "My lands, estates, slaves and income-bearing properties," he said, "are still untouched. This sum is simply cash on hand that has not yet been invested."

The equivalent of half a billion is not yet drawing interest!

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOSEPH MEAD.

Following a painful illness there passed away on Sunday, Feb. 19th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wesley Jackson, a beloved and respected citizen, in the person of Mrs. Joseph Mead of Fortune Bridge. Deceased who was in her seventieth year, is survived by her husband, Joseph Mead, and five daughters, Mrs. Wm. Burke and Mrs. Lewis Jenken of Niagara Falls, Ont., Mrs. Wm. Ward of Lancaster, Pa., U. S. A.; Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Percy Burke of Fortune Bridge.

MRS. J. J. MACLEOD

Mrs. J. J. MacLeod of Uigg, passed away at her home on the morning of Wednesday, March 14th, after a long and painful illness, cheerfully and heroically borne.

All that devoted care and medical skill could do were unavailing to check the progress of the fatal disease. The home, the community and the church have all suffered greatly by her death, but all will cherish the memory of a most useful, cheerful and kindly Christian life. Of Scottish birth as Miss Mary Finlayson, she came to America forty-two years ago, nearly all of which time she has spent in our Garden Province, and in the community in which she died. She is survived by her husband, a brother of the late Rev. D. B. MacLeod of Orwell; one son, Malcolm, at home; and one daughter, Louise, Mrs. John D. Macdonald, of Waterbury, Connecticut, U. S. A., to all of whom the deep sympathy of a large circle of friends is being extended.

The funeral services on Thursday afternoon last, were very largely attended, and were conducted by Rev. G. A. Grant and the choir of Orwell United Church.

A special feature of the service was the solo, "My ain Country," one of the late Mrs. MacLeod's favorite hymns, which was very beautifully sung by Mrs. James Gillis.

Interment was made in the cemetery at Orwell Head.

MR. MURDOCH McSWAIN On Saturday, January 6th, Mr. Murdoch McSwain, a highly esteemed resident of Hunter River, passed peacefully away at the Camp Hill Hospital, Halifax, N. S., at the early age of 28 years.

The deceased was one of the Canadian heroes of the Great World War. He was the second youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Rodrick McSwain of Hunter River, and enlisted in 1915. He spent four years in all overseas. Of this period about two years were spent on the firing line.

Although he had many opportunities of rising from the ranks he preferred to remain as a private, where he felt that he could do his best work.

Not long before the close of the war he was quite badly gassed and some time after returning home his health began to fail him.

As time went by he developed a "rheumatic knee." In order that he might get the best possible attention he went to Camp Hill Hospital for medical aid. For the past seven or eight years he has spent several months each year in Halifax, making in all about two and one half years in the Hospital.

Although he was possessed of a rugged constitution, under the constant strain of a prolonged illness his strength gradually waned until on the above mentioned date his young spirit winged its homeward flight.

Besides a loving and devoted mother who is feeling no loss very keenly, "Murdoch" as he was called by everybody, leaves to mourn the loss of a noble and heroic brother, one brother and three sisters and also two half brothers and three half sisters.

The brother is William McSwain, Saint John, and the sisters are Miss Dorothy McSwain, New York, and the Misses Margaret and Bessie McSwain, Quincy, Mass., and the half-brothers are: Malcolm McSwain, Colorado; Allan McSwain, Minnesota, and the half-sisters are: Mrs. Catherine Morrison, California; Miss Mamie McSwain, Minnesota, and Miss Margaret McSwain, New York.

Mr. Rodrick McSwain, Murdoch's father, died in 1921 and another brother, Stewart, passed away in 1922.

Murdoch was a young man of sterling worth and very popular with his comrades. Although he suffered a great deal of pain from his knee he was always patient and bright and had a word of good cheer for everybody.

He will be much missed by his relatives and his many friends and admirers.

In the losing hours of life he exhibited the same calm and composed spirit as ever characterized him throughout the struggles and the conflicts of life.

Sustained and soothed by an unflinching trust in the Great God and Father of love who had kept him as in the hollow of His hand through all of the dangers of the war, he laid down to rest as one who wraps the diaphany of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams.

The funeral which was a very large one was held on the afternoon of Thursday, Jan. 12th. After a short service at the old home the regular funeral service was held in the Presbyterian Church at Hartsville.

In the unavoidable absence of the pastor, Rev. R. Hensley Stewart, the service was conducted by Rev. Andrew Brown, Tyne Valley, assisted by Rev. B. H. Baxter.

The floral tributes were beautiful and consisted of the following: Wreath—The Family. Wreath—Camp Hill Hospital staff and patients. Wreath—Canadian Legion B. E. S. L., Charlottetown. Wreath—Returned men at Hunter River.

The pallbearers were six comrades of his own Messrs. John D. McDonald, Murdoch McLeod, John S. McLeod, John Nicholson, Roy sell Nicholson and Harold Bagnall. Interment was in the Presbyterian Cemetery at Hartsville.

LETTERS OF CONDOLENCE Mr. Neil D. Morrison. We, the members of the Launching Women's Institute, wish to convey to you our deepest sympathy in the recent sorrow which has entered your home in the death of your beloved wife. Her deep faith and sincere piety blended with rare gifts of heart and mind endeared her to the whole community, of which she was a devoted and useful member. We can assure you that her death shall be keenly felt by us all and we shall always miss her cheerful words and pleasant smile. Yet how consoling it is to us to recall the words "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for their works follow them."

Signed on behalf of the Women's Institute of Launching.

Mr. Joseph Morrison. Dear Mrs. Morrison. On behalf of the members of the Launching Women's Institute we wish to extend our sincere sympathy in your hour of sorrow. No greater loss can anyone bear than the loss of a loving and devoted mother, who was always ready and willing to make sacrifices for charitable causes, or help anyone in need.

She joyfully offered the sacrifice of her life to her Creator whom she so faithfully served. Our words cannot afford but little comfort, but our fervent wish is that Our Lady of Sorrows, who alone knows how to comfort the afflicted be your comforter during your very sad bereavement.

Signed on behalf of the Launching Women's Institute.
