WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.—The annual meeting of the Sea View Women's Institute was held in the hall Friday evening July 16th. There were twelve members and one visitor present. The following officers were elected: Pres. Mrs. Wm. Adams, Vice-Pres. Miss Maudo Donald, Secretary, Mrs. Fred Champion, Directors, Mrs. James Duggan, Miss John E. Campbell, Miss Jessie Murphy. The secretary's report of the year's work was as follows:—Total receipts $232.56 forty dollars was sent to the Orphanage building fund. The yard on hand from Red Cross work was knit and sent to the Mt. Herbert Orphanage. The interior of school has been thoroughly cleaned and plans have been made to more work on the school house. At the close of the business meeting Miss McKenna, supervisor gave a talk on institute work.

Minard's Lintment For Burns, Etc. The less work a man does the more he tires other people.

A man's enemies never kick him when he is down; they stand aside and let his friends do it.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. WILLIAM TURNER Passed peacefully away at Stratcona on July 14th, 1920. Martha Jane, dearly beloved wife of William Turner, in the 7th year of her age. She leaves to mourn besides her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Nelson Taylor, Annandale; Mrs. J. S. E. Taylor, Stratcona, and two sisters, Mrs. H. W. Woodley, Bridgetown; Mrs. Alexander Duggan, St. John, N. B., also two brothers, Albert Burhoe, Mount Hope and Samuel Burhoe, Maine. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Mr. Brown, Souris and the remains followed by a large gathering of friends and relatives were tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery at Lunenburg. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

ALFRED BURKE

After several months of severe suffering from cancer, endured with great patience and resignation, he passed peacefully away at his home in Bay Fortune on July 14, Mr. Alfred Burke in the 48th year of his age. Medical skill was obtained in hospitals at Charlottetown, Montreal and Boston, but of no avail. Mr. Burke was born at Vernon River but came to Bay Fortune when five years of age with his father. Besides a wife (nee Miss Bertha Acorb) and four children he leaves to mourn two brothers, viz.—James of Washington, U. S. A. and Fred of New York; also two sisters:—Mrs. Alex. Archibald in B. C.; Mrs. John Davidson of Fortune Bridge and Mrs. Archibald McKenna and Mrs. Nathan Dingwell of Bay Fortune, all of whom have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement. Interment took place at the cemetery at Lunenburg, service being conducted at the home and grave by his pastor, Rev. E. Lockhart.

MR. ARCHIBALD McDONALD.

The death took place at Ebenezer, P. E. I., on Monday morning, June 21 of Mr. Archibald McDonald, a very highly esteemed resident of that community. Although Mr. McDonald had been in failing health for some time the end came suddenly and unexpectedly after an illness of only one week. Through the district of Ebenezer and surrounding country none were better known or more beloved than Mr. McDonald. He was ever on the side of right, never afraid of speaking his mind and anything intended to do this was sure of his support. Although weak in body he put his trust in God. He enjoyed singing hymns. The last he sang was "The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want." Which will never be forgotten. In his last hours he said he was going to a better home and hoped to meet his loved ones there. It was hard to part but God doeth all things well. On Wednesday afternoon a very large number of friends and neighbors came to pay their last tribute of respect to one whom all will miss and whose place will be hard to fill. The services were conducted by the Rev. H. G. Mellick, after which the remains were borne to their last resting place in the Fairview Baptist Church, Rustico Road. Mr. McDonald leaves to cherish the memory of a kind and affectionate husband and loving father. A sorrowing widow, three sons and two daughters, namely Eysman, Bert, Janie and Little Marion, all at home and Bruce in Western Canada. He also leaves five brothers and five sisters, Norman of Ebenezer; John of Union Road; Mr. Mrs. Gamster, Bradalbane; Mrs. chel of Canoe Cove; Daniel and Henry Hickox, Hunter River and Alexander of Vancouver, B. C. The Mrs. J. P. Matheson, Vancouver, sisters are Mrs. John Green, B.C., N. B.
