On Saturday night The People's Theatre showed to capacity houses—the feature of the evening being the reel of King Edward's Funeral. It was selected by the Lady Manager who saw the different reels while in Halifax and chose this one in particular. It is very clear, distinct and complete, and as the great procession winds its way along the streets, it shows the different rulers of the world. The hosts of sailors drawing the gun carriage on which rests the dead monarch. The beautiful horses in line and in full every detail of the most gorgeous pageant of the country.

After the successful capture of the Intermediate cup in St. John by the Provincial rifle team, in which a record score was put on under unfavorable conditions, it is up to the province to send a strong team to Ottawa to capture the London Merchants' Cup, which is competed for by teams of eight men from each province in Canada. To win it a team of twelve of the best shots should be selected in practice which ought to be held at least twice a week on the range at the eight and nine hundred yard distances and at which the men should be coached under the direction of Major Jones, whose splendid work in this connection at the recent match in St. John was an exhibition of skill on the range which was productive of results that speak volumes for themselves.

Glory Oil Cures Sprains and Lameness. Glory Oil Company, Port Elgin, N. B. Gentlemen:—I was troubled for some time with a very lame arm, caused by a strain and rheumatism. I was so bad that I could not lift a stove cover without suffering acute pain. I tried several kinds of liniment but I did not improve. At last I heard of Glory Oil and immediately procured a bottle and used it with good results. One 25 cent bottle made my arm perfectly well. Glory Oil also cured my husband from a bad sprained wrist. I think it is a truly great remedy and I do not want to be without it. My husband joins with me in this testimonial. (Sgd.) Mrs. Fred S. Goodwin, Chapman, N. B. 5-30mwd&13m.
