

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head-Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.

Calvin MacDonald, Hampton, was in the city on Monday.

Miss Beatrice Hickey of Hunter River, is visiting friends in Clyde River.

Mrs John Beaton, Hunter River, was a passenger by the Cape train to the city recently.

Clem West, Falconwood, and Miss Matheson, City, were the guests of Angus and Mrs McPhee, New Haven, yesterday.

It is always a pleasure to listen to an interesting speaker in First Methodist Church. You can hear every word, and plainly see the speaker. Remember Herbert Booth's lecture, Thursday, January 20th. P-10d31.

The tide will be high today at 12-16 and tomorrow at 1.

W. E. Calbeck, Tryon, agent for De Laval Cream Separator, intends putting one in at John Wayne's, Hunter River.

All readers, when writing to advertisers in this or any other issue of this paper, are requested to mention The Guardian.

There will be a private sale of all the household furniture of the late Mrs Large, at 270 Sydney street, on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons of this week.

The Burn's Anniversary will be held in the Opera House on Tuesday night 25th January. Great preparations are being made and as usual a splendid program will be given.

Gregor McKenzie and Frank Troy, Dalhousie, N. B., were passengers to this City by the Earl Grey Monday. They came over to attend the Union Commercial College, Summerside.

Mr. Waldron and Miss Maggie MacQuarrie, who has been spending their holidays at their home in Hampton have returned to this city to resume their studies in the P. W. C.

Marion Crawford wrote that the view from the Greek theatre at Taormina was the finest view in the world. It will be shown at St James hall on Friday evening.

This morning the Earl Grey will leave this port at seven thirty for Picton and will not return until tomorrow. The Minto will leave Georgetown at seven o'clock this morning, and will probably make the return trip.

In the Capella Palatina, in the Palazzo Reale, in Palermo, are the very finest mosaics in all the world. Palermo is full of Norman and Saracenic art; as will be shown at St James Hall on Friday night, all should see the pictured story.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, E. I." and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscriptions," "Editorial," or "News," according to contents.

Preparations for the formal opening on Jan 12 of the hand-ball court and bowling alley of the League of the Cross Institute are well in hand and those attending are assured of a thoroughly enjoyable time. Mrs. J. F. Trainor will furnish excellent music. The chaperones are Mrs Judge Blanchard, Mrs Dr F. F. Kelly, Mrs Alex McDonald.

W. P. Doull, Charlottetown, has written the trustees of the Prince Co. Hospital offering, as "an old time Summerside boy" to wire the hospital building as a donation. The management supplying the material. Mr. Doull contributes $25 towards cost of material and fixtures. No doubt the Trustees will gratefully accept this generous offer. Percy Reid, Carcross, Yukon Territory, son of the late John D. Reid, Charlottetown, sent in a donation of ten dollars which also is thankfully acknowledged.—Pioneer.

As will be seen by the notice in today's issue of The Guardian the Annual Meeting of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society for Queen's and King's Counties will take place on Thursday next the 13th instant. The business meeting, to which one delegate out of every twenty four members of every branch society is entitled to attend, will be held at eleven a. m. in the Board of Trade Rooms. On the same date a public meeting to which everybody is invited will be held in the Prince of Wales College Hall beginning at 8 p. m. The program will comprise addresses by prominent physicians on Climate, Sanitation and other phases of the subject. There will be vocal and instrumental music, readings, stereopticon views. Premier Hazard will preside. As the Anti-Tuberculosis movement is one of paramount importance to the people a large attendance at the evening meeting is desirable. There will be no admission fee and an evening of instruction and entertainment will be provided.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.
Lamplight will not be satisfactory if the burner be old, burnt out or dirty, if the wick be clogged, or if you use inferior oil. With your lamp in good order and MAYFLOWER OIL which is especially prepared for household use, you will have the best light for the eyes known to man. 10-23att.

Don't Just say a Loaf of Bread

but a loaf of Stewart's Bread.

Ask your grocer for it, he will appreciate your order.

You will be surprised at the difference.

D. Stewart ECLIPSE BAKERY

Bakes Best Bread

Telephone 211

Miss Minnie Percy, Rustico, has returned to the city after a week's visit to her home.

The W. S. Harkins Company will present their drama "After Midnight" at the Opera House to-night.

Miss Bertha M. Hillman, Cavendish, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Stanley Whitlock, Brackley Pt Road.

P. Brodie, York, crossed by the Earl Grey on Monday morning last to attend the meeting of the Stock Breeder's Association at Truro.

An enjoyable turkey supper was recently held at the home of A. D. Finlayson, Grand View, at which about forty guests were present and thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

An unusually pleasing picture called Loves stratagem was well liked by last night's patrons at New Wonder-land. The rest of the program was well chosen and quite up to the usual standing.

Do not make any other engagement for Friday evening the 14th, but come to St James hall and hear Major Bartlett on "Sicily, a lovely but cruel land." There will be over 100 views shown.

There is no more beautiful or interesting country in Europe than Sicily and but few people in Charlottetown have visited it. All can who go to St James Hall on Friday evening of this week and see how lovely it all is.

All Guardian advertisers should phone 132-3, daily, up to 6 p. m., and for that hour, 133. For subscriptions, phone 132-2 up to 6 p. m., and for news, phone 132 up to 6 p. m., and 4 a. m. When 133 does not respond, ring 124. It is a waste of time except to phone as above.

Yesterday was a day of continued difficulties on the lines of the P.E.I. R. The trains of the previous day which had become stalled at different places during the storm were found in the morning to have remained where they first met with difficulty. Some progress was made during the day. The only train to get through yesterday morning at nine thirty for Georgetown, which arrived at its destination about five o'clock in the afternoon after nearly a whole day's snow fighting. The Murray Harbor branch is still closed up and the last report heard from the train that line showed it to be in the vicinity of Lake Verde. The train will probably be all opened again this afternoon.

A correspondent from Grandview writes that Edison Furness of Port Vernon has returned home after spending a week's vacation at Mr Alexander Gillis', Grandview.—I. M. Gillis of Pennell & Chandler's, city has returned after spending New Year's at his former home in Grand View.—Isaac Gillis of Grand View arrived home Christmas day from Boston where he has been for the past six years. He intends returning in the spring.—Miss Irene Ross of Kinross returned home after spending Xmas at Grandview the guest of Mr Alexander Gillis.—The new church at Valleyfield was opened Sunday the 26th and it is stated that it is one of the most up-to-date country churches in the Province and its credit to the congregation. In connection there is also a large stable for horses which is very convenient in cold weather.—James Tonte has moved into his new house which he has just completed.—Malcolm M. Gillis apprentice with Russell Brehaut Blacksmith of Montague, has a ride home at Grand View, he intends returning soon. Mr Gillis is a bright young fellow and it is hoped in the near future to see him starting on his own hook.—Mrs Stella Martin of Cape Breton spent two weeks at Grandview, she intends leaving for Boston as soon as the weather permits.—It is pleasing to know that Roderick C. McDonald of Bellevue who had the misfortune of losing his wedding suit has found trace of same at Vernon River Station.—Owing to the storm Jan 4th, the Mail Courier Murdoch F. McDonald did not get to the station for the mail it being the coldest of the season.—A supper and dance was held at the home of Angus D. Finlayson on Christmas eve. Quite a large number of invited guests were present.—Miss Senia McLeod of this place has been visiting friends at Belle River, she was accompanied by Miss Livingston of Belle River.—Quite a few are getting short of firewood owing to the storms and the bad condition of the roads.—Louis Ehnman of this place arrived home from Seattle Washington, where he has been for a number of years. He intends returning in the spring.

A Post Card Projector

will help you pass a very pleasant evening these long nights.

Throws a picture on a screen 6 to 8 feet in diameter, showing all colors in original pictures.

Easily operated.

Prices $3.00, 5.00, 10.00

Call and let us explain how they are used.

Johns & Johnson DRUGGISTS

Save on Furs Moore & McLeod Save on Furs

Your chance in coats, suits and newest furs—during this sale

Stocktaking—brings always here a keen inquiry into the old question which do we need worst, the goods—or the space they occupy. And with crowded quarters the choice almost always has to be—the space. An so to-day the urgent demand for more room gives you a chance to buy the very latest in at factory prices and less in many cases. However—we need use very little space telling you about that—you know that when we promise you good value—it is here just as we represent.

Furs—Coats—Suits
Coats worth to $10. Coats worth to on sale for $5. $13.50 on sale for 7.50

Coats worth to $16.50 on sale for $9.50
—All furs at 20 p. c. off—

YOU MAY GET BIGGER DISCOUNTS—But you cannot get better value. And if we read your requirement rightly, it is value you are after in any case. Here is the way it works out:
We have a muff at $4.75
Less 20 per cent 2.95
Just costs you $1.80
We want you to compare this offer with the ones you are ordinarily shown at 18.00 and then see how much cheaper our 20 p. c. makes it.
Muffs, Scarfs, Rufis, in Sable, Mink, Marmot, Persian Lamb, Squirrel, see them early.

Bargains in Women's newest Fall Suits Bargains in Children's Coats

The coldest recorded yesterday was thirteen degrees above zero and that till nine p. m. The coldest recorded the previous night was twenty above.

At the Arena last night the management held their first Carnival or Masquerade Skate of the season. Many splendid costumes were on the ice and the number of spectators was considerably in advance of previous years.

A meeting of the Hillsboro Hose Co was held in their rooms last evening. The following officers were elected:—Capt. G. L. Gowden, (re-elected) Lieut. A. N. Large, Sec'y, A. A. Tennessy, (re-elected). There were twenty-five alarms rung in during the last year.

The members of the W. M. S. and friends in connection with the Centennial, N. B., Methodist church have Mrs (Rev.) G. Ayers a very pleasant surprise by calling at the parsonage on Christmas Eve and presenting her with a certificate of her membership, accompanied by a kind address. This and many other tokens of kindness have been received by the pastor and his wife during the Christmas season.—Wesleyan—Mrs Ayers is well known here.

H. R. Moase, one of Kensington's largest livery men came to the city yesterday. Mr Moase left Kensington about 12.30 p. m. arriving here shortly after six, covering about forty miles, battling with heavy snow drifts all the way. He brought a passenger with him, Ernest Peake, City, who had been storm stayed for several days. Mr Moase leaves at an early hour this morning on return to Kensington and Summerside taking with him all mail along the line from here to Summerside. His horse is only a small animal but exhibits exceptional intelligence and staying power in travelling over the most difficult roads.

And you won't give me any discount off that 19.00 muff" said she
"I am sorry madam, but it is priced too close" said the sales woman
"I can get a much better discount at "s" said she "Probably so, but can you buy as good a muff for 19.00?" said the saleswoman. And the lady laughed. I can, get exactly the same muff marked 22.00, but they will make it 9.00" said she
"I'll take it, I just wanted to see if you meant what you said"
And so it goes each day, it is just a matter of comparing you compare closely, you will do as the customer did, buy where the best price is given you at once without haggling
Moore & McLeod 1.5dtr

Have your carpets cleaned by our "vacuum" cleaner. Its grit and dust which causes carpets to wear out quickly. Our "vacuum" cleaner removes every particle of grit and dust, germs, moth eggs, etc. Carpets are cleaned right on your floors. Experienced man operates machine. Phone us for dates. Beer & Weeks.

"FOR 1910—Merchants will need a supply of office stationery in Blank Books, such as Ledgers, Day Books, Cash Books, Journals, Letter Books, Bill Books, also Envelopes, Note Paper, Foolscap, Account Paper, Pens, Ink, Pencils, etc., etc. We have a very large stock on hand of office requisites at lowest prices. Carter & Co., Limited. 1-4dlw.

The Willing Circle of the King's Daughter's expect to have the memorial volume of Rev Mr Dobson's sermons ready in a few days. It will make a very appropriate Christmas present to send to your friends. 12-11drtt.

Nearly Twenty Seven Millions

The Sun Life of Canada received application amounting to $25,700,000.00 in the year 1909. The largest amount in the Company's history. For plans and premium rates apply to

E. R. BROW,
Charlottetown. Manager for P. E. I.

Why our Drug Store is the best for you

All our Drugs are fresh stock—therefore medicinaly reliable. All our SUNDRIES are new—therefore perfect. You receive the PERSONAL ATTENTION of experienced DRUGGISTS. Our DRUGS are the best the money can buy. We appreciate your trade and strive to please you. Try us "The Best Drug Store"

"The Mackinnon Drug Co"
Druggists
Cor. Gt. Geo. and Kt. Sts.

What to Give at Christmas

For men and boys.
Nothing better than
A Double Barrel Shot Gun $8.50 to $20.00.
A Single Barrel Gun $6.50 to $9.00.
A 22 Cal Rifle $2.60 to $5.50.
Or Tool Set.
Hockey Outfit.

For Sale By

S. W. Crabbe,
wfrwf Hardware, Paints, and Oils.

ARENA
Friday Night
Hockey Match
"Vics" versus "Abbies"
Reserve seats
at Hughes Drug Store
On sale this morning

Its an easy matter to dress well If money is no object

But its not so easy to dress well at little cost. When you purchase a suit or overcoat at this store you will be satisfied that you have received the greatest clothing values possible for your money, as to the style, you may depend that our many years experience in selling men's clothing, has given us a good idea of what is correct.

Pay a visit to our clothing department and learn what particular advantages it affords you both in excellence of the clothing and the extreme moderate price asked. Comparison is the only true test of values, and that we urge.

Men's Overcoats

The greatest overcoat bargain in the city. But not marked down. These are smart, stylish overcoats such as few stores have got to sell at any price, and the few stores that have them ask from three to five dollars more for them. These two lines

Our $10 Overcoats
Our $15 Overcoats

of which we have sold a great many this season, the materials are neat tweed effects, dark exports, etc. made with long full back and large shoulders. The swellest overcoats shown in Ch'town this season. Price $10.00 and 15.00.

The Biggest "Snap" We've Ever Offered.

Men's Pants worth $3.00 for $1.75

Men's pants made of the famous Oxford and Hewson tweeds some are plain colors.

Others are in neat tweed effects, all this season's goods

200 pairs men's pants, grey Hewson tweed worth $2.75 for $1.75.

200 pairs men's pants, Oxford double and twist $3.00 for 1.75.

Snaps in Men's Reefers Half Price

50 only men's reefers which we wish to clear out. This brings the last of them and cannot repeat same sizes 35, 36, 37.

Yours for Half Price.

Prowse Bros. Ltd.
Charlottetown, P.E.I.