Sees American League Race As "Mad Scramble"

NEW YORK, June 11 — Joe Cronin is accenting youth on his Boston Red Sox squad, looking for expected improvement to shove his team into the wideopen scramble for the American league pennant. "We have fellows like Jack Tobin at third base, Ben Steiner at second and George Metkovich at first, all of whom should get better as the season goes along," Cronin said today "and I don't see where any club in this league is going to be able to pick up and run away from the rest of us. Then, of course, we have Dave Ferris . . ."

Cronin still limps because his leg, broken at the Yankee Stadium April 19, hasn't completely mended. He isn't sure whether he'll be able to do any more ball playing this year. But he hasn't given up on himself. That attitude seems to give a good example to the whole ball club.

Ben Steiner shouldn't have been playing Sunday when Ferriss tried unsuccessfully for his ninth straight victory. The rookie second sacker had been spiked in a mixup with Russ Derby the day before and favored the ankle in fielding practice.

"I'll probably forget about it when I get started playing" pleaded Steiner when he saw his name was missing from the batting order Cronin had prepared. "I don't want to hurt Ferriss' chances but I really do want to play."

Cronin changed his mend and revised the lineup to include Steiner.

Hoop Jr. Fit And Rarin' To Go, Is Report

BALTIMORE, June 11 — (AP) — Fit and rarin' to go after the second cog in racing's triple crown, Hoop Jr., the Kentucky Derby king and his confident trainer Ivan Parke arrived at Pimlico today, along with a half a dozen other candidates for the $50,000-added Preakness Stakes Saturday.

First to check in was Walter M. Jeffords' Pavot, undefeated as a juvenile in 1944, and considered by many a colt to watch despite Hoop Jr.'s easy conquest of the 16-horse field at Louisville last Saturday. And they weren't overlooking the fact that Pavot lost a photo decision to Mrs. P. A. B. Widener's Polynesian in the Withers mile at Belmont last week.

Unloading besides F. W. Hooper's Derby champion after the long train ride from Churchill Downs were C. S. Howard's Sea Swallow, Mrs. W. G. Lewis' Darby Dieppe, and Col. E. R. Bradley's Burning Dream and Ball Bond.

All went in the "run for the roses" except Ball Bond, and although he didn't go in the Derby and Bradley's intentions here still are unknown, Pimlico officials said it was obvious the chestnut son of Discovery "didn't come to Baltimore just for the ride."

The mile and three sixteenth Preakness, which is expected to gross around $90,000 for a new record in the classic first run in 1873, probably will have a dozen starters, with a possibility that 14 might parade postward.

Wins $15,000 On $3.50 Bet

LONDON, June 11 — (CP) — One lucky backer of Dante, winner of Saturday's Derby, won $15,000 on a $3.50 bet placed last February, it became known today.

A London bookmaker disclosed that one man made "an accumulator bet" on the winners of the first four big English turf events of the year—picking each winner in turn and then plunking all the cash on the nose of the next.

Joel McCrea, Maureen O'Hara, Linda Darnell Starred in Action-Swept Saga of the West

As far back as Hollywood can remember, the dramatic and colorful figure of America's greatest frontiersman-hero, "Buffalo Bill," and the thrilling story of his action-packed life, have stood as a tantalizing challenge tot he movie makers. For here was a theme that called for spectacular scope and production daring such as no studio could yet presume to attempt.

But today, the word cut of Hollywood is that "Buffalo Bill" has, at long last, been brought to the screen by the producers of the unforgettable hits, "Jesse James" and "Western Union" . . . 20th Century-Fox . . . and with all the bigness, sweep, action and Technicolor that marks it the mightiest thrill spectacle and adventure picture ever filmed. Starring Joel McCrea, Maureen O'Hara and Linda Darnell, the picture, which was directed by William A. Wellman, is scheduled to open at the Yeo Theatre.

With the filming of "Buffalo Bill" in Technicolor, Harry A. Sherman, dean of producers of Western pictures, realized a dream of many years. He's made films all over the fax West, and long before color was commercially practicable, he used to complain to associates that black and white was a consistent libel on his beloved terrain. It was not until "Buffalo Bill" that he was able to do anything about it.

Two former Liberal cabinet ministers who left the cabinet because of opposition to conscription, Hon. P.J.A. Cardin in Richelieu-Vercheres and Hon. C.G. Power in Quebec South, were re-elected, both running as independents.

LONDON, June 8 — (CP) — A bespectacled figure in oversize battledress tossed money and champagne around like water at Windsor races, won $18,000 on the afternoon and ended up by tossing empty bottles on to the grandstand roof in an exhibition of "grenade tossing."

This was Gordon Roll, wealthy patron of the turf, and it was his first race meet since he was captured by the Germans in France more than five years ago. He is the fellow who helped kill time behind barbed wire by studying the form of horses running in England and placing wagers with London bookmakers by means of prisoner-of-war letter cards.

Roll arrived at the races in company with a big party of Australian soldiers who had been his companions in prison camp. A spectacular plunger, he lost early, then plunked a handful of notes on an odds-on favorite and pocketed $9,000.

"That's the way to do it," he told anyone within earshot. "Put the money down on these good things and you pick it up."

He lost $3,650 on the next race, shouted "the Germans couldn't get me down and the bookmakers won't either," and placed the same amount on the following event. He won, danced across the paddock and crashed down on the scales in the weighing room.

Gordon had planned a big party for the night of the race meet, but, at nine p.m. he was sound asleep in his hotel and the celebrations were postponed.

Incidentally here's a tip. Gordon has backed Sir Eric Ohlson's Dante in the Derby. He put $18,000 right on the nose.

The Gold Cup, premier race at Royal Ascot before the war, returns home this year and will be run July 7. With the exception of 1940 when it wasn't held, the race has been decided at Newmarket, wartime home of such other classics as the Guineas, Derby and St. Leger. The Gold Cup distance will be 2 1-2 miles, one-quarter of a mile farther than the Newmarket race.

The date and site was announced at a meeting of the Jockey Club which also ruled that no unnamed horse shall be allowed to run. The date when this law becomes effective was not announced.

The racing press has agitated for such a ruling for years. Some two-year-olds in their first season of racing have been known only by the means of their dams, as "Golden Girl filly."

Gordon Richards, Britain's perennial jockey champion, celebrated his 41st birthday by riding three winners at Salisbury and running his string of victories to 17 this season. There is still more than half of a season to go and Richards will be up around the 50-winner class before he packs up for the winter.

SOFTBALL

H.M.C.S. "HUNTSVILLE" TRIMS H.M.C.S. "TRURO" 10-4

The softball team from the Corvette "Huntsville" gave impressive proof that they would prove a more than suitable opponent for any team in the Charlottetown district when they played flawless ball to defeat a highly rated team from the minesweeper Truro. It was a spectacular game throughout and only for a momentary lapse in the second inning, the Huntsville's team showed wonderful spirit, fielding ability, and grand managership.

"Bob" Lyons was the real star of the game as he pitched magnificent ball throughout the nine innings and was complete master of the situation. The Huntsville took a one-run lead in the first only to have the Truro team come back strong in the second with a commanding lead of four runs. The Huntsville tied the game up in the third and it remained 4-4 until the seventh inning when "Willie" Wade scored the winning run with some spectacular base running. In the eighth inning the Corvette lads were able to push across five runs to put the game on ice.

The Truro team showed very good fielding and Andrews on the mound was very effective. The spark-plug of the team was little Pfaff at short who was in on every play. However, the hitting of the minesweeper lads was weak due to the effective hurling of the Huntsville pitcher. Once again, "Willie" Wade was the real star in the infield, but Patterson at second and Williams at first were on their toes at all times and turned in some very lovely fielding.

Scoring		R	H	E
Truro	040 000 000	4	8	3
Huntsville	103 000 15x	10	12	1

Batteries: Andrews and Cummings; Lyons and Briscall.

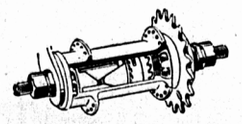
Built of hardened steel with stout axle and accurately machined and hardened ball-races to give years of smooth and easy running.



C.C.M. COASTER BRAKE
An improved brake by C.C.M., faster in forward clutch-action, more powerful in its smooth, quick stop than any of its predecessors. Built of super-strong, hardened steels to meet the needs of today's cyclists.

C.C.M. HANGER
The parts of this most important section of a C.C.M. bicycle are machined, hardened and finished with extreme accuracy so that you may get the most out of your pedalling effort.

● A C.C.M. BICYCLE is a "beautiful piece of machinery". It is made with great precision from fine steels and painstakingly assembled to give easy riding and a long life of trouble-free service to its owner.

Someday it may need adjusting or, in time, it may even require an overhaul and new long-wearing Dunlop tires.

Should such needs arise with your C.C.M. you may successfully tighten the chain or adjust handlebars yourself, but, beyond that, go to your C.C.M. dealer for service.

He has all the proper-fitting tools and wrenches, the correct grease or lubricant for each moving part and he knows the exact adjustment for each bearing to give easy riding.

Or if you are thinking of buying a new bicycle this spring go to your C.C.M. dealer and fill in a "Bicycle Purchase Application Form". If you can qualify as an essential user according to Voluntary Bicycle Rationing as conducted by the bicycle dealers of Canada in co-operation with the manufacturers, then your dealer can probably supply you with a C.C.M. Bicycle from stock or within a reasonable time.

But, don't delay, see your C.C.M. dealer soon, as the essential demand for bicycles will be greater, in fact, than the supply.
