In Memoriam

MRS. BANNERMAN C. COX

Her many friends were deeply saddened on the morning of April 16th, to learn of the death at her home 4 Brighton Road Charlottetown of Mrs. Velma Cox widow of the late Bannerman C. Cox. In delicate health for several years she contracted influenza about a week before her death and despite the most tender and expert medical care, her strength proved inadequate to withstand such an acute illness and she passed peacefully away about 9 A. M. on the morning of the date previously mentioned.

Born at Marie, P. E. I. on March 10th, 1862 the daughter of the late Theophilus and Margaret (Dingwell) Webster she was the last surviving member of a family of seven. Shortly after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Cox moved to Souris where they conducted a very popular hotel for some twenty-six years and during which time Mr. Cox was a well known conductor on the Island branch of the Intercolonial Railway. For the past twenty-seven years Mrs. Cox has resided in Charlottetown where her husband predeceased her twenty-four years ago. Of a kindly and cheerful disposition she was endowed with exceptional qualities for making friends, the number of which is legion, and her passing will be the occasion for mourning not only in Charlottetown and Souris where the greater part of her life was spent, but by a wide circle of friends in other parts of Canada and the United States and the great profusion of flowers gave mute testimony of the love and esteem in which she was held.

In her immediate family she is survived by two sons, A. Clifford Cox of the Cox Hotel, Souris, R. Roy Cox, Charlottetown, and daughter Miss Laura Cox Charlottetown. Also one grand daughter, Miss M. Louise Cox, a graduate of the Prince Edward Island Hospital, who nursed her grandmother with the utmost devotion throughout her illness.

Funeral services were held from her late residence, St. Paul's Church, of which she was a faithful member and worker, with interment at the People's cemetery. Rev. H. D. Raymond officiated at all services and the pallbearers were, Messrs A. W. Hyndman, J. H. McQuaid, E. W. MacKinnon, W. E. Bentley, L. D. Murray and H. Winchester.

The following were amongst the mourners: R. Roy Cox, A. Clifford Cox, Mrs. C. Cox, Miss Alice Cox, Miss Louise Cox, Fred Cox, Robert Cox, Harry Cox, Lloyd Cox, Will. Cox, Reg. Cox, Frank Cox, Gordon Cox, James C. Cameron, A. Hogan, Dean Crosby, W. F. Tidmarsh, George and Tom Rogers, Jr. Leith Robertson, Col. D. A. MacKinnon, William Massey, M. Weeks, James Blake, Dr. J. Blake, E. W. Cameron, Noel DeBlois, Dr. J. C. Houston, T. Bayer, Dr. H. MacIntyre and John Webster, Walter Smith, John Webster.

Bridegroom was admitted to North Dakota Bar, bride, whose parents are former P. E. Islanders is from Dickinson. Two North Dakota families were united in a marriage ceremony performed in the national capital Saturday when Miss Claire Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith of Dickinson, became the bride of Edward J. O'Connor, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. O'Connor of Grand Forks.

A large number of persons high in official life and former North Dakotans were guests at the service, which was read in St. Matthew's Catholic church at 9 a. m. by Father Suckner. Among the guests were J. F. T. O'Connor, comptroller of the currency and uncle of the bridegroom; William Prutis, deputy controller; Judge and Mrs. Luther E. Birdzell, formerly of Bismarck; Marshall Diggs, executive assistant to the comptroller; P. B. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Lamb and Miss Jessie Doran. Miss Catherine Lamb of Washington, D. C. a former student of the University of North Dakota, was the bride's only attendant. W. V. O'Connor, Jr., was best man for his brother. The bride was given in marriage to her brother Robert Smith, Bruce Severson and Kenneth Shannon were ushers.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of North Dakota where he won scholastic and athletic honors. He took his law course at Georgetown University, Washington, and has been admitted to legal practice in North Dakota and the District of Columbia. At the present time he is with the bureau of internal revenue. Mr. O'Connor took his bar examination in North Dakota here in the summer of 1935 and at that time visited with the late George D. Mann and other friends of his family. Mrs. O'Connor is a graduate of the College of St. Catherine, St. Paul. After a wedding trip to New York City, Philadelphia and other eastern points, Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor will be at home at Washington.

Autobus Workers To Continue Strike

LONDON, May 17—(CP-Havas)—London's 25,000 autobus workers voted overwhelmingly to continue their strike, it was announced tonight at a meeting in Transport House. The vote was 17,459 to 1,776. The busmen, asked by their union leaders to decide whether a court of inquiry's provisional report provided a sufficient basis for resuming work, cast their ballots in parades throughout the city and its suburbs. The strike has been effect two weeks.

Messages Thanks For Greetings

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) OTTAWA, May 17—Messages of thanks for his coronation greetings came from King George and Queen Mary to Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor-General of Canada. The King cabled, "The Queen and I extend to the people of Canada our heartfelt thanks for their loyal assurances and good wishes on the occasion of our Coronation, which we deeply appreciate. George R. I." The Queen Mother's message was "please accept my grateful thanks for the charming message from your-elf and the people of Canada which has touched me. Mary R."

MR. DUCHEMIN, HONORED—Mr. H. P. Duchemin, K. C., managing director of The Sydney Post-Record, Friday night was tendered a complimentary banquet by the newspaper's staff in honor of his election as president of The Canadian Press. Presented to him were a walnut chime mantle clock and a scrolled heavy silver platter containing the following inscription: "Presented to H. P. Duchemin, K. C. by his associates on the staff of The Sydney Post-Record on his election to the presidency of The Canadian Press, May 14, 1937." Mayor S. E. Muggah presented the City of Sydney at the banquet. The presentation was made by Clifford LeCouteur, business manager of the newspaper. Mr. Duchemin is a brother Messrs Alfred and Ernest Duchemin of Charlottetown.

CARRAGHER—MARTIN—A quiet wedding took place at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer on Monday, May 17, when Margaret R. Carragher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carragher, was united in marriage to Mr. James L. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Martin of this city. The Nuptial Mass and marriage ceremony were performed by Rev. James A. Murphy, D. D., who is a cousin of the bride. The bride, who looked young and charming, wore a light grey suit with blue accessories and a corsage bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Florence Carragher, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, wearing navy blue with grey accessories and a corsage bouquet of carnations. Mr. Ivan Martin, brother of the groom, was best man. Mr. Alfred Doucette presided at the organ, while two appropriate hymns were beautifully rendered by Miss Mary Moran. Later a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to a number of relatives and friends of the bride and groom. A toast was proposed to the young couple by Rev. James A. Murphy, who also spoke briefly, giving the bride and groom some sound advice. Mr. and Mrs. Martin then left for a honeymoon trip to Boston and New York, the bride travelling in a brown swaggar suit with accessories to match. The numerous and valuable presents which they received testify to the esteem in which they are held by their many friends.
