

Grippe

Now when the germs of Grippe abound, physicians advise keeping the bowels open. Constipation poisons the blood, lowering your resistance to the germs of infectious diseases.

Constipation is dangerous for anybody. Nujol is safe for everybody. It does not affect the stomach and is not absorbed by the body. Medical authorities approve Nujol because it is so safe, so gentle and so natural in its action.

Nujol makes up for a deficiency of natural lubricant in the intestines. It softens the waste matter and thus permits thorough and regular bowel movements without gripping.

Nujol can be taken for any length of time without ill effects. Unlike laxatives, it does not form a habit and can be discontinued at any time.

Ask your druggist for Nujol.

The Yellow Stub

CHAPTER XLIV The newspapers were still in full hue and cry over the mysterious disappearance of Olga Maynard. Unlike most "stories" that are allowed to die out after a few days of sensational play, there was an element of the sinister, a touch of the mysterious, in this one that kept the city keyed up to a pitch of high excitement. It struck at a time when local news was dead, and for that reason city editors welcomed it. And sensation followed sensation. O'Day had hinted vaguely to Jimmy of his having "something else up his sleeve" to "give to the papers." And Jimmy was not long in ignorance. When it did break, it swept him off his feet and sent him down to see O'Day with blood in his eyes, raging and full of fight. O'Day had told the reporters about the yellow stub and handkerchiefs that had been found in the room with Henry Rand's body. Furthermore, he had told them that they had been traced to Olga Maynard and that, although her explanation had been satisfactory enough, still she had figured in the chain of evidence that had lengthened since Henry Rand's murder. He felt sure, he told them, that Olga Maynard's strange disappearance was somehow linked up with the murder.

And the whole city buzzed and gossiped over the strange mystery of the yellow stub. The murder of Henry Rand, although it had happened in a distant town, was suddenly brought home to Montreal. Strange guesses as to the motive that prompted Henry Rand's murder. Busy captains of industry summoned office boys to run out and grab the latest editions. Steenographers discussed it over their lunch, and housewives over their back fences. It supplied trolley car conversation for homegoing bookkeepers and mechanics. "You shouldn't have done it," Jimmy stormed at O'Day. "It wasn't right. It wasn't fair to her. It's not fair to me to drag this out again."

O'Day tried to be patient. "You don't understand, my boy. If you think this is going to turn the town against Olga Maynard, you are mistaken. They sympathize with her. Everyone does. They think she's the victim of some mysterious force."

"Your ideas about the right thing to do certainly don't coincide with mine," said Jimmy bitterly. "Be patient, Rand. I've got something in the back of my noodle. When you're as old as I am you don't realize that a man doesn't lose any of his brains when he passes forty."

"I want this thing to fill the papers. The wires are carrying it all over. I want Marie Real, if she's alive, to step out and supply some information that I think we can use."

"And another thing," His jaw set grimly as he walked to his desk and opened a drawer. "I'm going to show you something, Rand. You've been climbing all over my frame every time I opened my mouth and said something you didn't like about me. My boy, I'm not in this business for sentiment. I'm looking for facts. Do you see this picture?" He held it out in front of Jimmy's eyes. "Look at it and tell me whether you recognize it."

Jimmy's forehead, as he studied the picture, puckered in a worried frown. Vague premonition held him again. "Is—my God, O'Day, it can't be!" "It is, Lad, it is. It's a picture of your father, Henry Rand, taken when he was a boy about fifteen. At least, that's the way I remember him."

New health in Tanlac

"I was ill all the time but since taking Tanlac I haven't known what a sick day means. My dislike for food has changed to a hearty appetite. All my nervousness has gone. I've gained 14 lbs. and thank Tanlac." Mrs. C. Matthews, 62 Clarence St., London, Ont. This statement merely backs up grateful users have said about Tanlac. Our files are packed with such testimony. If your system is run down, if you can't seem to eat or sleep, have lost weight or suffer from trying pain, why not let Tanlac start you up to vigorous strength and health. "No long, wretched wait to get results! Tanlac starts right in to build you up. It cleans the blood, revitalizes digestive organs, fixes up the liver and makes you feel like a new person. For constipation take Tanlac Vegetable Pills.

He had learned from O'Day that the effort to check back on the phone call to Olga's apartment had led them both to a busy drug store. "Just as I expected," commented O'Day when he told Jimmy about it. Jimmy thought several times of calling up Mary Lowell and explaining the whole mad business to her. But a certain stiff-backed attitude about making what might be construed as advances restrained him. Besides, he told himself, he had put all such ideas out of his head. He was here for a purpose. . . . But he wondered if Mary would give him her sympathy. He felt very much in need of sympathy. It seemed that no one understood him.

His time could hardly be called his own. Reporters were in almost constant attendance and Mrs. King, his landlady, had told them that her roomer, Mr. Rand, "and a gentleman if there ever was one," had been shot at one night. "Right in his room," she said. This made him something of a hero. He was conscious of stares as he walked through the streets and he overheard people point him out as he passed. "He even began to get mash notes, on scattered papers of various kinds."

O'Day said, "The publicity's driven them to cover." Barry Colvin arrived the next day, resolved, he told Jimmy, to stick the thing out with him. "And what's this about Olga Maynard being kidnaped?" he asked. "The papers back home are full of it. My boy, you're famous. Your mug has been slashed all over the papers, and your face is better known than Rudy Valentino's."

He grinned. "If I had all that publicity I'd certainly make the law business easy and pay heavy." He told Jimmy, "Mooney's in New York. He's found out this much at least—that Marie Real's stage name was Marie Reliance. I'd no idea the lady was such a star."

"Lord—She was the toast of the country when I was a little kid," said Jimmy. "But Mooney says she's dropped out of sight at least temporarily. He's hopeful, though, of locating her soon."

"God, Barry, if this thing isn't cleared up soon, I'll go mad." "Back up, Jim. I'm going to be with you. Maybe I can help. Tell me, what do you think they've done to Olga Maynard?" "Oh, I don't know O'Day's got some crazy idea."

me, what do you think they've done to Olga Maynard?" "Oh, I don't know O'Day's got some crazy idea."

They sat up and talked, of Grafton and Janet and Jimmy's mother, until Barry yawned sleepily and went to bed. But there was no sleep for Jimmy. He sat and gazed enviously at Barry's comfortable, resting figure, heard with irritation his slight snore. . . . And the thought of the picture they had found in Olga's room rose to torture him through half the night.

That is What Mrs. A. Mills Says of Dodd's Kidney Pills Ontario lady took Dodd's Kidney Pills for a weak back with very beneficial results.

Belleville, Ont., March 22—(Special)—Short, but to the point, is the statement made by Mrs. A. Mills, who resides at 14 Green Street, Belleville. She writes: "I have always been troubled with a weak back; especially after any extra work. I find, if I take Dodd's Kidney Pills, they bring almost instant relief."

The relief that Mrs. Mills found has come to thousands of other Canadian women through the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. That shows that the ache is caused by the kidneys, for Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely and simply a kidney remedy. For more than a quarter of a century Dodd's Kidney Pills have been a household remedy in thousands of Canadian homes.

THE LATE MRS. HARRY MORGAN.

A deep gloom was cast over the city on Friday, March the 12th when it became known that Mrs. Harry Morgan, (nee Catherine V. Macdonald), had passed away at the City Hospital after several weeks of patient suffering, borne with a true Christian spirit. She was called to the Great Beyond fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church, of which the deceased was a devoted member.

The late Mrs. Morgan was dearly beloved by all who knew her and will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends and relatives, the large number of floral and Spiritual offerings and letters of sympathy testifying to the high esteem in which she was held.

A sorrowing husband and two young children, Francis and Marjorie, are left to mourn the loss of a kind wife and loving mother. Also three sisters, Belle, Margaret and Elleen, and two brothers, Frank and Ray. The funeral was held from her late residence, 14 Valley Street, on Sunday afternoon, March 14th, at St Dunstan's Cathedral and was largely attended. The services at the Church and grave being conducted by her cousin, Rev. Raymond MacKenzie. The pallbearers were: S. F. Doyle, Frank Dillon, James Coyle, Charles Mitchell, Fred Mallett, and Robert Duncan.

May her soul rest in peace. The following Floral and Spiritual Offerings were received: CROSSES. The Lieutenant Governor, Mrs. Heartz and Ruth. Mrs. A. A. Bartlett and Mrs. A. B. Cosh. Mrs. R. J. FAREWELL GATHERING An interesting event took place on Monday evening, March 8th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacFarlane, Fernwood, when the members of South Bedouque Women's Institute and other friends assembled to say farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Basil Sherry who are soon leaving the community. After a pleasant hour spent in conversation, games and music an address was read by Mrs. Walter Leard and a presentation of silver made on behalf of the members of the Institute, to Mr and Mrs. Sherry. Mr. Sherry made a fitting reply, stating his appreciation of the thoughtfulness shown to Mrs. Sherry and himself.

Always ready to assist in the social life of the community, Mr. Sherry will be much missed by old and young and Mrs. Sherry, although residing in Fernwood but a short time, has been a valued member of the Institute and has made many warm friends. After a dainty luncheon served by the Ladies the goodbyes were said to the young couple with many expressions of regret and best wishes for their future happiness and prosperity in their new home. Following is a copy of the address: Mr. and Mrs. Basil Sherry. Dear Friends:—Having learned of your intended departure from the community we have gathered here this evening to express our regret and to show, in some measure, our appreciation of the keen interest you have always shown in the welfare of the community. We have always found you willing to assist and to give of your time and talent whenever called upon to do so. Kindly accept this small gift from the members of the South Bedouque Institute. Our very best wishes accompany it and we trust that, in your new home, this little
