IN MEMORIAM
MRS. J. M. CLARK

The following reference to the funeral of the late Mrs. J. M. Clark, formerly of Sumner, and whose regretted demise was recently recorded in our columns, is clipped from the Edmonton Journal of February 28th:—"The funeral of the late Sarah M. Clark, wife of J. M. Clark, of the Department of Agriculture, took place from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. G. T. Bell, 9630 106A Avenue, on Tuesday afternoon to the Edmonton, Cemetery of the Rev. W. M. Grant of the Westminster Presbyterian Church officiating. Among the beautiful floral tributes were: Basket husband and Fred; wreaths and sprays, George and Annie, Peter and family, Horace and family, Peggy, Department of Agriculture, Seed Grain Department, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Beals, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jackson. The pall bearers were all former Prince Edward Island friends of the deceased. Dr. J. S. Johnston, B. S. Muttart, J. V. Lowthorpe and Hope Jardine, Andrews Bros. were in charge of the funeral arrangements."

MRS. ANGUS McLEOD.

The death took place at her home in Montague, on Thursday, March 15, of Jessie McDonald, relict of the late Angus McLeod, in the 73rd year of her age. While for many years her health was not as good as her many friends would desire, during the last two months her illness assumed a more serious nature, and after a skillful operation had been performed by her physician, Dr. McLeod, it was thought for a time that she would be restored to her former health; but despite all that skillful nursing and medical attention could do, it became apparent that the hand of the grim reaper could not be stayed, and on the morning of the above date the be beckoning angel appeared, and the spirit of a good woman passed to its eternal reward. In early life she became a member of the Presbyterian church, and was ever faithful in the discharge of her religious duties, her place in the church being always filled when health permitted.

There are left to cherish the memory of a kind, dutiful and affectionate mother, one son, Alexander, at home, and an adopted daughter, Mrs. Jonathan McLean, Jeffrey, Al. friends, besides a wide circle of friends and relatives; also two grandchildren with whom she lived, and to whom she was greatly attached.

The funeral service was conducted by her pastor, the Rev. J. D. McKenzie, assisted by the Revs. Stew. Armstrong and Nelson. The Montague male quartette kindly rendered very appropriate music; pieces which were favorites with the departed.

The following were the pall-bearers: Maynard F. McDonald, James J. Robertson, John E. Pool, John P. McPherson, Alex. J. McLeod and Maic. A. McPhee.

She was buried in the cemetery at Valley Field, beside that of her husband, who predeceased her by fourteen years, there to await a glorious resurrection.

DOUBTFUL OF PRICE FOR CANADIAN CATTLE

LONDON, Mar. 22 — The Yorkshire Post publishes expressions of doubt as to whether the Agricultural Department at Ottawa is not too optimistic with regard to the approximate price cross bred Shorthorns are likely to bring here.

It is stated that the top price for English two year old store cattle of first quality last week was 22 1-2 pounds ($106.75 at the present rate of exchange) and it is suggested that if the Canadian cattle, not all of which will be of first quality, are to make any effect on the price the Canadian breeder will have to take a little less than the 23 pounds to 24 pounds ($108.10 to $112.80) which Ottawa estimates he should receive.

What is probable, The Post, says is that there will be a considerable break in prices if 25,000 Canadian store cattle are landed in the United Kingdom in April and May as is anticipated.

DOCTORS WANTED TO OPERATE

Mrs. Quillon Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her from an Operation

Muskegon, Michigan.—"After doctoring for eight or nine years with different physicians without any relief at all, they said that medicine would not reach my case and I should have an operation. I had heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and often saw it advertised in different papers where some women had suffered just as I did and got well and strong again by taking the Vegetable Compound. I decided to see what it would do for me, and before I had finished the fourth bottle I was much better, the weakness stopped and the severe pains in my sides left me. I am now much stronger and do my own work and work in the factory besides. I am still taking the Vegetable Compound and give it all the praise."—Mrs. NELLIE QUILLON, 17 Morris St., Muskegon, Mich.

Women should heed such warning symptoms as bearing-down pains and weakness, for they indicate some female trouble, and a persistent and faithful use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will always fail.

PRESENTATION AND DANCE

A very enjoyable time was held at the home of Mr. Archibald Beaton, Winsloe Station, when a presentation and dance was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Coles prior to their departure for Boston, U.S.A.

The following address was read by Mr. L. H. MacKinnon and the presentation made by Miss Maud Beaton.

Highfield, P.E.I.
March 13, 1923

Mr. and Mrs. John Coles
Dear Friends:—

Not many weeks ago, a report was circulated to the effect that you our honoured guests of the evening were thinking seriously of taking your departure from our Highfield and vicinity had hoped that such a report was not true. But of late we have learned with sorrow that it is all too true. We now know that you are really leaving us, and that too in the very near future.

When we fully realized that you were in very truth about to take your departure, we felt that we could not allow you to go without some way trying to tell you how much we shall miss you when you are gone. You, Mr. Coles we have known from our earliest days. You have grown up among us, as a citizen you have always been interested in the welfare of the community, and in all manfully and well.

You, Mrs. Coles, are yet more of a stranger to many of us. But ever since coming to know you, we who have learned to admire and esteem you have felt that we would like to know you still better. Our admiration of you has grown with the passing of the weeks and the months.

In the different spheres of life we shall miss you both. Your places will be hard to fill, we could wish that you would remain with us, but since you have decided it wise to take up your abode under another flag, we can only abide by your decision and bid you good speed.

Before saying farewell to you, we would ask you to kindly accept this small purse as a slight token of the esteem in which you are held by us. We would ask you to value this, not because of its intrinsic worth, but rather because of the expression of admiration and of good will conveyed by the giving of it from us to you, as you go beyond the Border into the Great Republic to the South of us. Kindly remember that our good wishes will ever follow you. May happiness and good fortune be your constant attendants upon life's way, and should it be that in the near or far distant future, you should ever decide to come back to your old home community, kindly bear in mind that a hearty welcome will be found awaiting you.

TO SEE POKE BONNETS IN LONDON ONCE MORE

LONDON, Mar. 22 — The "porkie" hats and poke bonnets of the mid-Victorian period will again be worn in London, the trade authorities say.

"The hint that the crinoline and the bustle are to be worn this season has been responsible for the designing of any new hats which are completely different from the shapes of last season," said the designer of a leading playing Paris models designed at West End hatters' establishment, the railway shall be completed. "Women are to wear hats this season such as they were in the mid-Victorian days. Every hat is different. Many have flowers on them, and others have elaborate old-fashioned ribbon work."
