LUNG MOTOR NOW IN CITY

Mr. Neil McLean, Mortician is Now Equipped With Latest Device - Only One of Kind in Maritimes.

A representative of the Guardian Saturday was shown the new Lung Motor purchased by Mr. Neil McLean, mortician of this city. This new and revolutionary device is simple and safe in its operation. It is used in drowning, asphyxia, at birth, electric shock, poisoning, This includes gas, fumes alcoholic, sulphur, chloroform, collapse on the operating table, etc.

case it is more or less used as a stimulant. It is made of non-corrosive metal, the complete outfit weighing about eighteen pounds.

Mr. McLean has had personal experience in the operation of the Lung Motor, and there are cases which to his personal knowledge where the device has been used for as long as four hours with satisfactory results.

A case recently reported in the local press of a woman in the State who had been in the water for over an hour, but was successfully resuscitated through the use of the Lung Motor.

Mr. McLean's advice in cases of drowning or electric shock, is to immediately start artificial respiration, send for the Lung Motor and a doctor or call him and he will secure a doctor.

Mr. McLean is to be highly commended for his purchase of this valuable and much needed device, which is not only an innovation but a great asset in the community. It is also another worthy addition to Mr. McLean's up-to-date ambulance service.

ST. JAMES CHURCH-The morning services in St. James Church yesterday were conducted by the Rev. James D. MacKay, B.D., of London, Ont., who is spending the month of August in the city. Mr. MacKay is a most eloquent speaker and his sermon from the work taken from Isaiah "I will hold thee by the right hand," was listened to with keenest attention and much enjoyed. An added feature of the service was broadcast from C. P. C. Y. and heard clearly all over the Province, was the selected tract given by Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Raymond who were never heard to better advantage. As a loving tribute to the memory of the late Ernest Auld, who was killed in the late war, a beautiful wreath of flowers was placed over his memorial plaque in the church by his family.

Death Yesterday Of Mrs. MacMillan

The death occurred last evening, the 5th inst., of Mrs. Mary Ellen MacMillan, widow of James MacMillan of Clearmont, this province. She had been in failing health for the past several months, although no serious turn was anticipated until about a week ago when it was known that the end was approaching.

The late Mrs. MacMillan was born in Hope River and removed to Clearmont at the time of her marriage where she lived during the life time of her husband. A few years afterwards she removed with her family to Saskatoon, Sask., where she resided until 1915. After that time she resided with her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Moulder, Wichita Falls, Texas and latterly with her son, Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, Charlottetown.

During her active years she was a faithful member of St. Mary's Church, Indian River and an indefatigable worker and helper in every cause calculated to benefit the community. She brought up a family of five sons and two daughters all of whom she educated and brought up in a manner that led to their success and happiness.

One son, Michael Allen, died in action at Vimy Ridge; Stephen Leo died from the effects of wounds and exposure during the Great War. The surviving sons and daughters are: Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, Charlottetown; Alban J., of Colfax, Sask.; Mrs. Charles T. Hynes, Saskatoon, Sask.; Mrs. J. D. Moulder, Wichita Falls, Texas and Henry L., Montreal.

Her brother and sister, Mr. W. H. Hogan and Miss Margaret Hogan of Hope River, survive.

Messrs. Alban and Henry arrived in the city last week in response to a telegram announcing the serious turn in their mother's health. The daughters, owing to distance and ill health were unable to come. To the bereaved family and relatives The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

The funeral will take place Tuesday morning by motor hearse to Indian River where the remains will be laid beside the body of her husband in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery. Funeral service will be held in St. Mary's Church, Indian River.

The Late Frank L. Power

The many friends throughout the city and province regret to learn of the death of Mr. Frank L. Power, who died in this city Saturday afternoon. The deceased who was in his 50th year left this province thirty-two years ago and located in Massachusetts, where he worked at his trade of barbering. He was a frequent visitor to his native province and was well and favourably known.

Some years ago he developed heart trouble which gradually became more acute until late last May, thinking the change of climate and rest might be of benefit he came to Charlottetown where he resided at his brother's, Mr. Fred Power, Water St., and later entering the Charlottetown Hospital, where among relatives and friends he peacefully passed away.

He leaves to mourn a sorrowing wife in Boston, four brothers and one sister, namely: Thomas and James in Boston, Mass.; John in Tracadie, Fred of the C. N. R., city and Mrs. Mitchell, Bedford, P. E. Island, to whom the Guardian extends sincere and respectful sympathy.

The funeral takes place tomorrow (Tuesday) morning from the residence of his brother Mr. Fred Power, 219 Water St., to 6.45 Borden train. Interment will take place in Swampscott, Mass.

CHURCH SERVICES

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH Rev. Hammond Johnson has returned to his pastoral duties after a pleasant holiday spent at Orwell and Bedoue, and Rev. Dr. Ramsay is now taking his vacation. For the next few weeks Prof. Fletcher will be off duty and in his place Mrs. Keith Rogers will have charge of the musical service.

Rev. J. H. Johnston preached both morning and evening. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed at the eleven o'clock service, the sermon and music being appropriate. The subject of Mr. Johnson's discourse was the love of Christ, from the text "While we were yet sinners Christ died for us." Mrs. Roy Cudmore sang "O Man of Sorrows," by Baynton-Power, and Schubert's "Ave Maria" was rendered as an Organ Offertory by Prof. Fletcher. In the evening the service was on the text "If there be any virtue and if there be any praise, think on these things." The special music consisted of a solo by Mr. George Johnson-Handels "O thou most holy," and an organ offertory "Adagio Cantabile," from Beethoven's "Sanctus Pathetique," played by the organist.

The evening service was broadcast. On the last Sunday of July, Rev. J. E. Rendle of Bellefleur, C. C., gave a very interesting address in the Sunday School. Mr. Rendle is a former member of the First Methodist Church, now Trinity United Church. He has been serving as minister and home missionary on the Pacific Coast for the past 26 years.

Before returning to the West Mr. Rendle purposes giving an illustrated lecture on his work, which should prove very interesting. For the past four Sundays, teachers of Trinity United Church, have been assisting in the Sunday School at the Protestant Orphanage. For the preceding six or seven weeks a like service was rendered by the teachers of the Baptist Sunday School. This much appreciated activity on the part of the city Sunday Schools was organized by Rev. Ross C. Eaton.

Services were held in Zion yesterday morning and evening. Mr. Fulton preached at 11 o'clock and took for his text Mark IV: 36, the topic being "Other Little Ships."

There was a very fair attendance, a number of strangers were in the audience.

At the evening diet of worship there was a splendid congregation. On the platform with the Minister were Rev. Dr. George Rev. James MacKay, B. D. London, who is supplying the pulpit of St. James for the first two Sabbaths in August, and Rev. George Clearmont Taylor former Minister of Zion.

Taking for his text Malachi III: 14, "It is vain to serve God" Mr. Fulton opened up the topic as a "Business Man's Question," and answered in the affirmative. He proceeded to show that to be a Christian helps a man to save money, to protect his money, to make it and to invest it. Also that wealth can purchase many things, but there are some things it cannot buy, namely 1, Contentment, 2, Character; 3, Eternal life. The visiting Ministers all spoke to the text from different view points. It was a splendid service and though somewhat protracted, was appreciated by every one present. Mrs. (Dr.) Taylor New York, was in splendid voice and rendered the solo "Going Home" in her own pleasing manner. At the close of the service she also sang, "Jesus is Tenderly Calling."

THE MARKETS

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 4. - Canadian egg markets remained firm and unchanged today.

TORONTO.-The local egg market is firm and unchanged although buying prices are expected to advance the first of the week. It is reported that some B. C. eggs are due to arrive here next week costing delivered about extras 41: firsts 39.

MONTREAL.-The local egg market is firm and active. The recent stiffening in price for extras has turned the demand slightly to firsts and seconds.

ST. JOHN.-Prices on this market show little change although slightly firmer on firsts. Dealers are quoting country shippers for graded eggs, delivered cases returned extras 35; firsts 32; seconds 24. Production is dropping off gradually and receipts are variable. There is a strong demand for firsts and some small lots have arrived from Toronto as well as shipments from P. E. I. Two pound broilers are clearing well at a live weight price of 22c per pound.

MONTREAL, Aug. 5.-The foreign demand for Canadian grain here Saturday was fair and a moderate amount of business was worked with the United Kingdom and Continent in wheat and oats. The domestic trade in oats was quiet but prices were unchanged. The flour trade was without any new feature to note, prices for spring and winter wheat grades being steady under a moderate inquiry. Little business was done in millfeed but values for all lines were well maintained. The market for standard grades of rolled oats was quiet but steady. Prices for all grades of eggs were firm and the volume of business was fair. The foreign market for imported beans was quiet but firm. New crop October-November beans were quoted at $2.40 to $2.50 per bushel for carlots to arrive, export and immediate stocks of

Provincial Bank In New Quarters

Moving to Old Royal Bank Building is Now Completed

Sir Hormidas Laporte, president of the Provincial Bank of Canada yesterday afternoon greeted a group of newspapermen in the new quarters of the bank and in company with the general manager, Charles A. Roy, conducted them on a tour of inspection through the building which formerly housed the head office of the Royal Bank of Canada.

The moving was done over the week-end. The Bank was open for business on Monday morning at 9 o'clock. The move from 7 and 9 Place d'Armes was affected under the protection of 20 city police, and special precautions were taken in moving the valuable contents of the safety vault.

Only a few changes have been made in the old building. Stained glass has been added to the main window at the back of the bank while the interior has been thoroughly cleaned and polished.

Sir Hormidas Laporte briefly reviewed the progress of the bank since its inception in 1900 and pointed out that at the end of the first year the bank had resources of $2,000,000 and was operating five branches. Today the total resources amount to over $50,000,000 and the
