Steamer Arrives From Antipodes

MONTREAL, Que., Sept. 17.—Visiting the local port for the first time this season, the freighter Canadian Scottish, Canadian National Steamships, arrived yesterday morning bringing from the Antipodes a good cargo consisting of wool, hides, casing, veneer, canned fruits, raisins, sultanas, sheepskins, rabbit skins, kauri gum, and quality of Australian wines, and brandy. On her way up via the Panama Canal she called at Halifax to discharge cargo. She is due to leave here again about next Friday for the Antipodes via the Panama and Melbourne, Sydney, and Dunedin, Lyttelton, and Wellington, in New Zealand, she will not be seen in the local port again this year since she terminates her next trip to Canada at Halifax, being due there about the third week of January.

Another freighter in the same service, the Canadian Victor, is now on her way to Canada, reaching the Panama last Saturday, and is expected to arrive here about October 4. She will bring in a cargo similar to that of the Canadian Scottish.

In addition to these two freighters of the Canadian National Steamships, there will be four other freighters of the company in Canada-Antipodes service still to arrive at Montreal before the St. Lawrence River season closes for this year, these will be the Canadian Challenger due here October 14, the Canadian Highlander, 21st, the Canadian Conqueror, Dec. 21, and the Canadian Britisher, Nov. 22. Another three freighters in this service are not expected to reach Montreal this fall season, and will terminate their home voyages at Halifax, these being the Canadian Planter due Nov. 18, the Canadian Conqueror, Dec. 21, and the Canadian Cruiser, Dec. 25.

ACTION FOR SALE OF CHURCH PARSONAGE

KENTVILLE, N. S., Sept. 17.—(C.P. Judgment) In favor of Kingston and Melvern Square United Baptist Churches, plaintiffs in an action for sale of a $3,800 parsonage, was given today by Mr. Justice Mellich of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia.

With trustees of the Independent Baptist churches of the same village as defendants, ancient doctrine, policy and tenets of the Baptist religion were brought into the case and evidence ran to 50,000 words.

"As to costs—which have been considerable when considered in relation to the value of the property involved—I will hear the parties when order is taken," the judgment stated.

Originally the action was to permit trustees of the United Baptist Churches of Kingston and Melvern square to dispose of the parsonage, jointly owned by the two congregations and to divide the proceeds according to an agreement entered into 12 years ago.

With their ministers already occupying the parsonage, the Independent Baptists, who broke away from the Union a few years ago, claimed ownership and through their counsel charged that rights and privileges of the Baptist doctrine calling for independent self-government of each church, were being violated by the United Baptist Convention of the Maritime Provinces.

Disputed churchmen were called as witnesses and argument on doctrine went on for days.

Farewell Address

An event of more than usual interest occurred at New Glasgow on Friday evening, August 30th, when the members of the local women's institute, the W.M.S., and the community met at the hospitable and spacious home of Dr. and Mrs. A. Stevenson, to tender farewell to one of their members, Mrs. Clara I. Stevenson, who is moving to Charlottetown.

Rev. W. G. Quigley acted as chairman and a splendid musical program was carried out.

Special mention might be made of the solos of Messrs Eldon E. MacKay and George H. Stevenson. Many expressions of regret were made in the loss to the community in the going away of Mrs. Stevenson who has always been a valued member of both the Institute and the W.M.S. of New Glasgow United Church.

Mrs. Cora MacLeod, president of the Institute read the following address while Mrs. R. H. Binns, president of the W.M.S. made the presentation of a generous money gift to Mrs. Stevenson.

Following is the address:

Dear Clara: Having learned that you were departing from our community to take up your residence elsewhere, we, your friends and neighbors in New Glasgow feel that we cannot let you go without expressing our regret and sorrow at your departure.

Possibly our loss will be your gain, and we certainly hope all good things for you in your new sphere of life.

In the years you have lived among us many friends have been proved a faithful friend both in our homes and in our societies. As an Institute we will miss you at our meetings and in our W.M.S. the loss will be greater if possible. In your own home your hospitality was generous. You kindly remember to be long remembered by many in this community.

In conclusion we would ask you to accept this small gift as a very inadequate expression of our sincere regards.

Signed on behalf of your many friends in New Glasgow:

Mrs. Stevenson briefly replied, thanking all for their expressions of goodwill and generous gift, after which all joined in singing "For she's a jolly good fellow."—Cor.

EATONIA, Sask.—With a record of 69 years in the printing trade, A. G. Graham, editor of the Eaton Enterprise, has celebrated his 80th birthday. He started his career in the year of Confederation on the Fergus (Ont.) News-Record.

More than 5,000 applications from farmers in the Prairie Provinces had been received up to August 17, 1935, by the Water Development Committee, for assistance under the Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Act. The headquarters of the committee are in Swift Current, Sask.

Results of physical and chemical studies and milling and baking tests of "bleached wheat" in Victoria, Australia, indicated that, aside from lowered bushel weight and bleached appearance, the exposure of ripe grain in the spike to heavy rain followed by drying before harvest had no appreciable deleterious effect on flour yield, baking quality or other characteristics.

Noted Figure Lost to West

(By The Canadian Press)
 VANCOUVER, Sept. 17.—The West lost one of its colorful personalities in the death recently at Victoria of William M. Brewer. Born at Kensington, Middlesex, England, in 1861 Brewer journeyed to the United States in 1870 and became assistant to a station agent of the Kansas Pacific railroad, the undeveloped section.

From there he worked westward as cowboy, journalist, sheriff, rancher, miner and geologist. He came to British Columbia in 1888 as a free-lance consulting engineer for a New York group operating in the northern and central mining sections.

He was appointed resident engineer for the Western mineral survey district (No. 6) in 1917, a position he held until his retirement in 1927 at the age of 76.

Noted Mariner Retires at 70

(By The Canadian Press)
 VANCOUVER, Sept. 17.—The West coast has lost the services of one of its most distinguished mariners with the retirement of Captain Joe Gosse, British Columbia's senior pilot. He recently celebrated his 70th birth—the age limit for pilots.

It was Gosse who piloted Vilhjalms Stefansson's ship, the Karluk to Alaska when the noted explorer sailed on his Arctic expedition in 1914. He also passed through the Klondyke gold rush as ship's master on coastal boats.

Happiest and most novel years of his life were spent in the north during the Yukon gold rush. He likes to tell of his experiences during those early days and his favorite yarns follow the exploits of Soapy Smith, a gambler of the old school whom he first met in the Pack Train Saloon, at Skagway, Newfoundland, in 1889. He received his first sea training in sailing boats off the coast of the Pacific west later and taking the position of quarter-master aboard the Canadian Pacific Navigation company's vessel the Yosemite.

His first command was the Princess Louise, side-wheeler, then belonging to the same company. In 1903, he entered the pilotage service and eight years later was appointed special pilot of the Blue Funnel Line.

THE HAWTHORN HEDGE

In memory we visit a loved hawthorn hedge
 That grew by an ancient stone
 Oh, what joy in the springtime to gather
 The sweet scented blossoms we all loved so well.

The dear feathered songsters, the robins,
 Bullfinch houses not far from the ground;
 They seemed not to heed the noise that was made
 When the school children gathered around.

The thorns in the branches we seemed not to heed,
 For the blossoms we only could see.
 Oh, what joy to revisit our loved hawthorn hedge
 And meet with the loved ones that used to be.

In the autumn we met at our loved hawthorn hedge
 And there would gather the berries so bright.
 The joys of childhood then seemed so complete
 And this beautiful place made our spirits so light.

CARLETON W.I.

The September meeting of the Carleton Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Muttart on Thursday evening, September 12. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Nathan Bell and opened with the singing of the Intestate Ode followed by the Creed in unison.

Roll call was responded to by twelve members, each responding with "What Women Dislike in Men." The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

Satisfactory reports were heard from the various committees and the following new ones were appointed for the next two months: Sick—Mrs. W. E. Bell and Mrs. F. Doull; School—Mrs. Gordon Ross and Dorothy MacDonald; Program—Mrs. Stanley Linkletter and Doris Gillespie.

It was moved and seconded that a Handbook to the Course of Studies prescribed by the Board of Education be purchased for the school.

It was decided that at our next meeting we would answer the roll call with, "A Canadian Town and what it is noted for."

The program consisted of several piano selections played by different members and a Grab Bag Sale made up of many useful articles, selling at 10 cents each. This was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The lunch committee assisted by the hostess then served delicious refreshments. The lunch committee for next meeting is as follows: Mrs. R. A. Hardy, Mrs. Frank Muttart and Arda Muttart. Mrs. Marven Bell kindly invited the members to her home for the next meeting.

The National Anthem brought the evening to a close. Proceeds of evening $2.25.

The old chief recalls the founding of Port Victoria in 1843, and the Indian attack on the stockade the following year.

The old chief recalls the founding of Port Victoria in 1843, and the Indian attack on the stockade the following year.
