Must Establish Domestic Peace Says Mr. Bracken

(By The Canadian Press)
OTTAWA, Oct. 3.—(Advance)—Canada must establish domestic peace and progress before she can hope to become an important factor in the solution of world problems. John Bracken, Progressive Conservative leader, said tonight in a speech prepared for delivery.

Mr. Bracken criticized the Government for its handling of labor and farm disputes.

"This country is just emerging from a long period of industrial strife. The fact is we have had an economic civil war on our hands. We seem to have lost the political technique either to bring these wasteful disputes to an early end or to prevent their recurrence. It is a primary function of government to make the economy of the country work. In this case the government work in this total incapacity to do so."

To tell striking farmers that they were not entitled to parity prices was to tell them that a permanent position of economic inferiority, he said.

"They are asking neither more nor less than prices that will bear a fair relationship to the prices of things that they have to buy," Mr. Bracken said. "And that is exactly what reasonable labor wants—a just relationship between wages and the cost of living. If there is anything unfair about either demand I would like to know what the element of unfairness is."

The housing situation was in a state of chaos and was evidence of the state of affairs we are heading into as the result of government bungling and incompetence."
