They left the island together on August 28th on the last harvest excursion. The Guardian sympathizes with Mrs. Morrison and family in their sudden sad bereavement.

The many friends of Thomas Parker, of blast furnace department of the Scotia Company, who has been ill in the Harbor View Hospital suffering from a severe attack of typhoid, will regret to learn his condition is far from being what his many friends would desire. Saturday a message was sent to his relatives in Georgetown, P. E. I., and Monday his father and mother arrived.

John Sydney Herald.

From yesterday's evening Guardian.

SUMMERSIDE AND ALBERTON

Mrs. George Sudbury, of Sydney is spending her vacation in Summerside and other parts of Prince Edward Island.

The result of the September examination of Centerville school are as follows:—Grade VI—1 Irene McCallum; 2 Henry Noonan, 3 Ruth Howatt. Grade IV—1 Thomas Moore, 2 Annie McLure, 3 Stanley Murray. Grade III—1 John Noonan, 2 J. W. Austin Noonan, 3 Florence Brown. Grade II—1 Charles Johnson, 2 Byron Noonan, 3 Herman Summers, 4 Mildred McMurdo and Stanley Murray.

The new buildings erected in Summerside this present season have made a decided improvement in the appearance of the town. Among the houses at present under construction are two on the lot recently sold to Thomas McNutt to M. F. Schurman. Willis Warren is erecting a new residence on Grandville Street and other new houses are R. H. Morrison on Spring Street and W. Phillips on Summer Street. Mr. Strong on Central Street and one by A. W. Rogers on Russell Street. H. T. Holman is erecting a commodious new residence on Beaver Street. A new warehouse for Sinclair & Stewart, Ltd. is also being constructed.

An especially sad drowning affair took place at Maxville on Friday last. On that day Alex. Barilaut went down to the marsh to cut hay, accompanied by his little three year old son. Later in the day another little boy was returning in the direction of Mr. Barilaut's home and the little fellow started to accompany him. When the father returned home the mother, not seeing the child, asked where he was and Mr. Barilaut was naturally very much surprised to learn that the little fellow had not come home. It was then learned that he left the other little boy, who last saw him making his way back across the marsh to his father. The distracted parents at once set out and were joined by neighbors, who searched in every direction throughout the night. It was not, however, until after daylight on Saturday morning that his poor little body was found upon the shore, half covered in the sand, half a mile from his home. It is surmised that, as the body was found between the marsh and his home, the child had, upon finding himself lost, endeavored to return. In this effort he probably fell into a hole in the marsh and was drowned, the following tide taking the body out and leaving it upon the shore. The greatest sympathy is felt throughout the district for Mr. and Mrs. Barilaut in their sorrow.
