Body Of Student Flyer Located
 (Associated Press)
 NAHANT, Mass., Jan. 10.—The aeroplane in which two Harvard students crashed into the ocean off here December 29 was located today and the body of one, Donald MacKay Frost, Jr., of Boston, taken from the wreckage. The body of Edward Mallinkrodt, 3rd, of St. Louis, could not be found.
 The search for the plane had been carried on since the day of the accident at the instigation of Mallinkrodt's father, one of the largest chemical manufacturers in the United States. The father has been here directing the search.
 A highly sensitized instrument operated by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey located the plane on the ocean's floor within 50 yards of the place where the coast guard had been searching.
 The students were on a pleasure flight during the Harvard University Christmas holidays when the accident happened.

Two-Headed Turtle Dies
 SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Jan. 10.—(A.P.)—A two headed snapping turtle, which spent most of its lifetime trying to decide which way to go, died today in a research laboratory.
 Until yesterday, when the left head died, the turtle appeared in a quandry, according to the laboratory staff, as to which way to walk, when to sleep and when to stay awake. For the last 24 hours, Joseph Druzba of the General Electric Company's research laboratory, who witnessed the death, noted that the right head finally had things all its own way, and the turtle became more lively than it had been since it was brought to the laboratory last September. Today the right head also died.
 Nine year old Norwood Cliffe, daughter of a research worker, found the turtle on the banks of a pond and gave it to the laboratory where it was kept in an aquarium for observation by Dr. Willis R. Whitney of the research staff.

Crew Safe In Spanish Port
 CORUNA, Spain, Jan. 10.—(A.P.)—The officers and sailors of the shipwrecked Greek steamer Stratis, numbering 23, were comfortably lodged in a local hotel tonight, awaiting transshipment to their home country.
 They said that the steamer was returning home with a miscellaneous cargo when it struck a reef, off Cape Finisterre in a heavy fog and sank almost immediately.
 The Greeks were loud in their praise of Spanish tugboat sailors who picked them up promptly from a lifeboat which they launched from the sinking steamer.

Mt. Buchanan W. I. Entertain
 The members of the Mt. Buchanan Women's Institute held a very successful evening socially and a profitable one financially when they held a parlor social at the home of Mrs. M. A. MacLeod, Glashwin on Friday evening, Dec. 30th. The weather man being on his best behavior made the evening all the more pleasant especially for the ones who came in carriages. The house was decorated in red and green and gave one the feeling that the Christmas season was still with us. The guests were met and welcomed by the President and Vice-President of the Institute and as each one entered the different rooms and noticed the "Welcome" banners they had at once the feeling to "Be at home away from home." That feeling was present all through the evening. On the whole there was not a dull moment and each one present helped to make the evening the success it was by smilingly and willingly agreeing to do the different game and stunts as they were called. A few words the hostess welcomed the guests on behalf of the Institute giving them the freedom of home for the evening. The programme opened by all joining in O Canada, with Mrs. Angus Murchison at the organ. Then the entertainment committee got busy and provided the guests with sheets of red and green paper alternately giving them ten minutes to try their skill at millinery and requesting them to wear the finished product all the evening when a prize was offered. The games were carried out in two groups, Red and Greens and a splendid spirit of friendly rivalry appeared all through the evening each side cheering their own as they won a point. In the end after checking up it was found that the Greens were the winners and the prizes went to R. A. MacKenzie and Miss Katie MacLean. The judges decision as to the best hats was as follows: Ladies won by Mrs. M. F. MacDonald and Gentlemen by Mr. Edward Gillis. The President of the Institute presented the different prizes which caused much merriment. Violin music which was enjoyed by all and much appreciated by the male members. At the close of the games the lunch committee took charge and this was another enjoyable part of the evening. Before the guests departed all gathered around the organ and had a splendid sing-song with Miss Florence MacPhee organist. Mrs. Angus Murchison and Mr. R. C. MacPhee repeated their due "O, John No", this being a request from one of the lady guests. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. and Mrs. MacLeod for the use of their home and after bountiful host all joined in The King. The committee in charge wish to thank every one for their presence and help to make the evening the success it was.—H

 Mrs. Harry Crozier and family, Darnley, spent last week with Mrs. Crozier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sellers, Wheatley River.
 Friends of Miss Dorothy Smith, P. W. C. student, Wheatley River will regret to learn of her recent illness.
 Mr. and Mrs. William P. McLeod and two daughters, Misses Irene and Marion, spent New Year's with Mrs. McLeod's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Brown.
 Rev. W. G. Quigley, pastor of the New Glasgow Christian Church is confined to the Parsonage on account of illness.
 It is pleasing to report that Mr. Nelson Clarke, Hunter River, who has recently suffered an attack of pneumonia is gradually improving.
 Miss Mae and Mr. Arthur Paul, Hunter River were visitors to New Glasgow last week.

Tryon and Vicinity
 Mr. and Mrs. William Rogerson of Tryon are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the arrival of a beautiful baby girl. Mrs. Rogerson was formerly Miss Amy Lea, R.N., of Malden, Mass.
 Mrs. J. R. Thompson of Tryon spent Christmas very pleasantly the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Arling of North Tryon.
 Mrs. John McQuarrie and little son Donald of Hampton have been visiting for the past week at her home in Tryon West.
 The Children of the Baptist Sunday School of Tryon held their annual Christmas concert and tree on Friday evening, December 23rd, in the Church Hall. Rev. Mr. Crossman presided. A very pleasing program was given by the children, also a pageant by the older members of the Sunday School. At the close of the program Santa Claus appeared and treated all the children to good things from the gaily decked Christmas Tree and needless to say made the hearts of every little child happy.
 The students from Prince of Wales and Business college are now enjoying their Christmas holidays. Misses Florence Leard and Margaret Rogerson from Tryon and Messrs Walter Bell and Sheldon Dixon of North Tryon. We are pleased to know that the above mentioned were successful in passing their Christmas examinations.
 The United Church held their annual Christmas concert and tree in the hall on Wednesday evening, December 21st. A delightful program of choruses, songs, recitations etc., were given by the children, which were much enjoyed by the parents and friends in attendance. A very interesting playette and pageant was put on by the Young People's Society. Later in the evening the long looked for Santa Claus arrived and presented each child with a bag of candy. Following is the program: Opening chorus, Ring the Bells; Recitation Penzie Crossman; Hush-a-Bye, Motion song by four girls; Recitation, Warren Delaney; Exercise, Santa Claus Boys; Recitation, Kathleen Carr; Recitation, Vernon Lea; Exercise, Christmas Stockings by eight girls; Pan-tomime, Newsboy Tim; Recitation, Sheldon Howatt; Girls Quartette, Sing a Song of Christmas; Recitation, Ralph Edwards; Exercise, Christmas Doings; Solo, Marion Leard; Recitation, Kurt Jensen and Reid Howatt; Exercise, Candle Drill by the Walsh Children; Drill, Christmas Wreaths, by ten girls; S., who was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. James Moffatt, New Glasgow, returned to her home Monday morning.—N

Height Of London Controlled
 LONDON, Jan. 10.—(A.P.) — A Queen's wish has kept the London "sky line" close to the ground.
 The story of that wish, by which no London building can be built higher than 80 feet to the top of the parapet, with two stories in addition has been laid before the Royal Society of Arts.
 It was told by Maurice E. Webb, architect, who said that Queen Victoria, gazing out of her window in Buckingham Palace one day, was struck with the height of Queen Anne's mansions.
 This building, still one of London's highest towered above Westminster's smallest dwellings.
 She sent for her Minister, and insisted on a height limit being included in the Building Act. The Royal command has lasted through the years.
 Webb added that the London clay, while it would permit buildings very much taller than now in London, would not stand skyscrapers of North American heights.

Progress Made Under Gustav
 STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Jan. 10.—Another example of the true democratic spirit and personal modesty of the Swedish royal family was given by King Gustav V in announcing his wish that his 25th anniversary as a monarch recently should not be publicly celebrated in any way. Quite recently the Crown Prince issued the same announcement on the occasion of his 50th birthday. Both the king and his son, however, have received warm expressions of the great popularity which they enjoy among their people.
 A well known Swedish writer and high official, Dr. Karl Hildebrand, in a recent article on the occasion of the Royal Jubilee recalls a speech by the king immediately before his accession to the throne in which he expressed his firm conviction that the king must always stand above the political parties, that he must resign only in the fullest co-operation and understanding with his people for the good of the country.
 In his article, Dr. Hildebrand points out the striking political, social and economic development which Sweden has undergone during King Gustav's reign. The great export and industrial era which has carried Swedish products to every corner of the world's market has set in. While the population has increased by only about 10 per cent the value of real estate has risen during that period from 7,400,000,000 to 19,400,000,000 kronor the taxable annual income from 1,200,000,000 to 5,200,000,000, the value of goods produced by industry from 1,500,000,000 to 4,500,000,000 and the value of foreign trade from 1,100,000,000 to 3,200,000,000 kronor.
 The political evolution is aptly illustrated by the fact that 25 years ago there were only 17 social democrats in the second chamber of the Riksdag while now the socialists are the biggest party with 104 members in the same chamber.

Byrd Defies Legion Stand
 BOSTON, Jan. 10.—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd last night said he would give up his status in the navy if the American Legion would favor before Congress the repeal of the law "which grants pensions to veterans of all our wars who received no injury or disability from war service."
 The statement was given in answer to criticism made in both the House and Senate at Washington today because the Admiral was receiving $4,200 annual retirement pay from the Government while acting for the National Economy League of which he is chairman.
 The admiral said: "I have noted the headlines in the afternoon papers to the effect that Senator Robinson, of Indiana, has demanded on the floor of the Senate, that I return my pension to the Government. First, I want to make this clear. I do not now, nor have I at any other time, drawn a pension from the Government. I am of the regular naval establishment, subject to the call of duty in an emergency.
 "Let me also make this clear: The purpose of this national economic league, which the Senator attacks, is to cut all wasteful Governmental costs, local, State and Federal.
 "Now, I want to submit a proposition to Senator Robinson in answer to his demand that I return my pay to the Government. I will give up my status in the navy and all that goes with it if the American Legion, which the Senator represents, will favor before Congress the repeal of that dangerous costly law which grants pensions to veterans of all our wars who received no injury or disability from war service."

Alexandra Concert
 A very interesting concert and Christmas tree was held in Alexandra School on the evening of December 21st. Mr. Seymour McLennan occupied the chair. Excellent order was maintained throughout the evening though the school was crowded to the doors. The school was tastefully decorated by the teacher and pupils. The accompanist for the evening was the teacher, Miss Doris Beaton. After the programme was ended Santa Claus made his appearance to the great excitement and enjoyment of the people as well as the children. He then attended to his annual duties and unloaded the heavily laden tree. The following is the programme which was successfully carried out. Chorus, Christmaside, by the school; Welcome, Drill 5 pupils; Recitation, Tiny Snowflakes, Olive Carver; Recitation, The Christmas Tree, Doris Buchanan; Song, The Parson's Sheep, Babe Wood and Raymond Burhoe; Recitation, That Christmas Feeling, Noreen Burhoe; Solo, Jolly Old St. Nicholas, Richard Burhoe; Tableau, That Christmas Spirit, Noreen Burhoe and Agnes Wood; Recitation, Getting Ready for Christmas, Agnes Wood; Drill, Physical Exercise by six pupils; Song, Santa's Heralds, Renny Judson and Raymond Burhoe; Dialogue, Those Blooming Pigs, Gladys Large and Doris Wood; Recitation, He and She, William Wood; Chorus, Hark the Herald Angles Sing; Monologue, A present for Aunt Susan, Babe Wood; Medley by eight pupils; Recitation, Infant King's Birthday, Renny Judson; Recitation, She don't want much, Noreen Burhoe; Duet, Oh, Dem! IN MEMORIAM
MRS JONATHAN DELANEY
 Peacefully and simultaneously with the going down of the sun on Dec. 17th 1932 the soul of Mrs. Jonathan Delaney an aged and weary pilgrim sought repose in the Great Eternity. She had exceeded the allotted span of human existence, the three score and ten of the Psalmist by fifteen years, yet was her eye bright and memory undimmed by the passing of time.
 She deceased was a daughter of the late Capt. George McKenzie and the last surviving member of a large family. Born in French River she spent her entire life amid the surroundings of her girlhood.
 Blessed with a keen intellect and a retentive mind she could recall accurately and vividly the happenings of her early days. She was ever a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and her passing removes from the troubles and cares of this life one who had always a cheerful greeting and a glad hand for those who had occasion to meet her. There are left to cherish her memory an aged husband and two sons, John in Calgary, Alberta and William at home, also one grandson.
 The funeral service on Dec. 19th was conducted by the Rev. V. E. Orsborn at the home and the mortal remains laid to rest within the shadow of the walls of the Geddie Memorial Church where she worshipped regularly during her life. The pallbearers were: Hartwell Underhill, John Johnston, Hall Burt, W. A. Bernard, H. J. Lamont and W. L. Johnston, intimate friends of the deceased.

A Noted Banker Dies At Halifax
 (Canadian Press)
 HALIFAX, Jan. 10.—Robert S. Currie, retired Bank Manager, who as a young employee of the Merchant's Bank of Halifax in Antigonish was instrumental in capturing the notorious bandit Stanley Steele, died at his home here today. He was 73 years old. Harry Currie, chief electrical engineer of the New York Railway, is a half-brother.
 Mr. Currie was Manager of the Royal Bank in Lunenburg and several other towns after the Merchant's Bank merged in the newer organization. It was while he was a clerk at Antigonish that Steele, a native of Guysboro and well known for his marksmanship, entered the bank with leveled gun Currie charged him; a bullet glanced along his skull, but a moment later Steele was pinioned by the young banker's arms.
 Steele died in Kingston Penitentiary.
