QUEEN'S CANADIAN FUND DONATIONS

Repeated bombing raids on British port areas and the industrial midlands has attracted fresh attention to the frightful suffering of the many thousands of civilians in Great Britain who are harried from shelter to shelter and finally driven into the open country by successive raids. Eventually places are found for them all places of relative security, but their belongings of all kinds are destroyed. The task of emergency feeding alone is difficult. The task of setting them up once more with some quantity of clothing and bedding is much more difficult. To meet these enormous needs, funds have been started in various parts of the world. Her Majesty's name in connection with the Dominion campaign, which is officially known as "The Queen's Canadian Fund for Air Raid Victims."

These People Were Aided By The Queen's Fund

Headquarters receives reports of assistance given bomb victims

Details of the case-histories of some of the bomb victims in Britain who have been helped to recover by the Queen's Canadian Fund have been received at the Fund's headquarters in Montreal. Three of the cases quoted show the use of the compassionate grant, the grant of money which is made when the resources on hand admit, to victims who find themselves disabled and in need as a result of enemy bombing. The grants which can be made are not large, for the frequent calls that are made on the relief organizations have to be met with fairness and impartiality out of limited funds. One instance of assistance given by the Queen's Canadian Fund through the Lord Mayor's National Air Distress Fund is that of a young woman war-worker who was seriously injured in an air raid. In consequence of which she had to undergo a double amputation of arms below the elbow. She was granted the maximum disability pension allowed by the Ministry of Pensions, which amounts to only $5.00 a week. The Ministry of Labour will also give her a vocational training grant. She has been fitted with artificial limbs, but that is the sum of Government assistance available to her. She has received a compassionate grant of $25.00 from the Queen's Canadian Fund, and her position and needs will be reviewed again at the end of a month or six weeks. Another grant was made by the Fund to enable a father living in Northern Ireland to get his young son back to him from a London hospital, where he had undergone long treatment for a bad case of shell-shock caused by an air raid ordeal. A third instance in which the Queen's Canadian Fund was able to bring relief to a civilian war victim is that of a woman who came to England from Guernsey when the enemy occupied the Channel Islands, bringing with her her daughter and a niece. She brought no possessions with her in the hurried evacuation, but the two girls obtained employment as shop assistants, and out of their small earnings they saved $45.00. With this money they furnished two rooms. Shortly afterwards the home they had made from their savings was completely destroyed. They received a grant from the Fund to enable them to start again and build another home.

The Contribution To The T. B. League By P. E. I. Women

Those who know of the work of the Tuberculosis League are undoubtedly in their praise of the women of Prince Edward Island for their part in making it such an important factor in the fight against Tuberculosis. Premier Campbell, Hon. Dr. W. J. P. McMillan, President of the Red Cross Society, Dr. J. A. McPhee, of the Sanatorium Commission, Dr. P. A. Creelman, Superintendent of the Provincial Sanatorium, Dr. B. C. Keeping, Deputy Minister of Health, as well as the Clergy, have taken every occasion to express their acknowledgment of this good work. Individual women every year have bought Christmas Seals generously but, even more important, women as members of the Women's Institutes, Catholic Women's League, Daughters of the Empire and the teaching body have given unfailing moral support as well as money. Through their organization, they have kept the public informed that Tuberculosis is preventable and curable. It has been the practice, too, of women of the organizations to send in clothing and money throughout the year as well as during the Christmas Seal Campaign. Said Mrs. Fred Gates, President of the Prince Edward Island Women's Institute: "Women do not feel any conflict between their war effort and contributing to the Tuberculosis League. It has been the greatest menace to our National Health—Tuberculosis? I feel that every woman will wish to make her contribution to this Annual Christmas Seal Campaign as part of her contribution to Victory."

Canadian Legion Funeral Notice All ex-servicemen are requested to meet at the Legion Home, Grafton Street at 3 p. m. Sunday, November 16, to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. W. S. Stewart. IRA M. BROWN, Secretary. L-683.

SOLDIERS LEAVE — Six members of No. 62 Canadian Army Basic Training Corps leave this morning for service elsewhere in Canada. They are Cpl. P. A. LeClair, North Rustico; Privates T. M. Arsenault, Charlottetown; P. McKay, French Village; J. A. Publicover, Georgetown; P. E. Roberts, Borden; H. J. Sentner, Charlottetown. They were presented with cigarettes by the Provincial Government through the City of Canada Corps. The presentations were looked after by Mr. A. G. Bruce of the Canadian Legion War Services.

Presentations Just before one o'clock, Walter Shaw announced that the presentation of prizes would follow the last class judged, and a few minutes later the Vice-President, Lt. Col. D. A. MacKinnon, D.S.O., assumed the duties. He thanked the many present for remaining to see the distribution of the prizes and congratulated the winners on producing such wonderful specimens of the different types and spoke of the good sportsmanship exhibited throughout by those not fortunate enough to secure a win. They, he hoped, would be repaid for the time and expense they had gone to in the additional studies they had of seeing what others could do. He believed the work of George A. Callbeck, who was sole judge of the largest variety of foxes ever assembled under any roof in the world for show purposes—had achieved an almost superhuman task in completing the big program in three and one-half days. It is hard to realize, said Col. McKinnon, the intense concentration necessary to carry out this task and on an iron man could do it. As each trophy winner was called out the audience applauded generously and the recipient received words of praise from the Vice-President.

Biggest Winners Raoul Reymond and Lowell Hancock were the biggest winners of the silverware which comprised magnificent trophies some of them three and a half feet high and costing hundreds of dollars. Last, but significant of feelings which perhaps could be even more emphatically expressed, were the three cheers and a hurrah for Secretary Walter R. Shaw "the real spark plug of the show." The following is yesterday's prize list:

More Islanders Are enlisted In R. C. A. F. The month of November will complete the largest number of enlistments from P. E. I. to the Air Force for many months. The local Recruiting Office is making strenuous endeavour to complete the many applications on its files and to enlist the suitable applicants who have offered their services to their country through the R. C. A. F. Included among those enlisted during the past week are two women applicants for the Canadian Women's Auxiliary Air Force. Although this Auxiliary is just getting under way it is anticipated that a great many women from all parts of Canada will swell its ranks in the future and that their services will be a very valuable contribution to the Air Force and to the war effort generally. There is no question that the force of winter weather that has prevailed during the past few days is acting as a stimulant to recruiting. Many enquiries and personal calls are being received at the Recruiting Centre and the office is a hive of activity. There are still places available this month for various trades, such as Air Trainee or Operators, etc., and of course there is a steady demand for young men with Grade XI education for training as Pilots and Observers. It is expected that an announcement will be made in the near future regarding the place where the Dominion Provincial Youth Training Educational Course will be held. This Course is to enable young men who have completed Grade X or partial Grade XI education to receive the additional studies in Mathematics, Physics and English to be enlisted in the Air Force for consideration for Pilots and Observers Courses.

However, it was understood here he was returning from the British Isles. He stopped briefly at Newfoundland enroute here. He said he had planned to stop either here or at Moncton to refuel the plane. Mrs. W. S. Stewart Called by death The sad news of the death of Mrs. Stewart, wife of the late Hon. William S. Stewart, retired Judge of the County Court of Queen's County, and a former Mayor of Charlottetown, which occurred about nine o'clock yesterday morning, was heard with regret by her many friends in the city and throughout the province. Death came unexpectedly after an illness of only a few days. She was 75 years of age. The late Mrs. Stewart had been apparently in good health up until a few days ago when she became ill suddenly. She had participated in the observance of Remembrance Day early in the week. The deceased was the daughter of the late Hon. Henry Beer and Mrs. Beer, Southport, and later of Charlottetown. Her maiden name was Annie Augusta Beer. She was a woman of estimable qualities of mind and heart, she was a great friend to the veterans of the last war and always took a prominent part in patriotic and civic welfare activities. She was a charter member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Great War Veterans' Association which later became the Canadian Legion. At the time of her death she was president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion and also a prominent member of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire and the Queen Mary Needlework Guild. The late Mrs. Stewart represented the Legion Auxiliary at the Coronation in London several years ago and was presented at Court. She was a recipient of a medal on the occasion of the Silver Jubilee of the late King George V. She was the last surviving member of her family and there are left to mourn her death her nephews and nieces: Messrs. Ernest W. Beer, H. Pope Beer and F.A.S. Jones, all of Charlottetown, and T. Alfred Church, of St. John's, Newfoundland, California, and Mrs. Arthur G. Bruce of Charlottetown. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from St. James Church, of which she was a prominent member, to Sherwood Cemetery, service starting at 3.30, funeral leaving at 4.00. The late Mrs. Stewart will rest at her residence until 10 o'clock, this morning until tomorrow afternoon.

PRIME MINISTER (The despatch complained of stated: "Mixed cheers and boos greeted Prime Minister Mackenzie King when he arrived at a sports stadium here today to attend a Canadian Corps field during his first visit to Canada's overseas arm.") "There was much handclapping, and the obvious background of boos quietened down momentarily when the Prime Minister walked across the track to inspect the guards of honor of the Black Watch. "Ten thousand troops were present at the stadium in what was believed to be the largest single gathering of Canadian troops ever assembled in Britain. "Assorted handclapping, cheering and boos broke out again after the inspection and lasted for several seconds.") In asserting the reason for the demonstration Mr. King said he believed it was due to rumors he had been responsible for the Canadian troops being kept in the United Kingdom. The Prime Minister was speaking on a question of privilege and took occasion to correct a statement made by Jean-Francois LeBel (Lib. Temiscouata) on Tuesday that Canadian troops had not been sent to Dunkerque because of the recommendation of Mr. King. He said at no time had he made any recommendation to Gen. McNaughton who had advised that such a venture would incur needless sacrifice of life to no purpose.
