DR. SCHURMAN'S RESIGNATION.—The last issue of the Maritime Baptist, under the resignation of Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman from the presidency of Cornell University will have a special interest for many of our readers. Dr. Schurman is one of the many famous men who built Prince Edward Island as their birthplace. And Dr. Schurman came from a Baptist home. His earliest collegiate training was received at Acadia. For nearly twenty-eight years he has held the presidency of Cornell, and during that time has been honored by appointment on many important Commissions. His resignation will become effective next June. We hope that he may now find time to revisit the scenes of his early life, and that he will be given many more years to enjoy the honors which he has so deservedly won.
