Have You Been Stung

Some people have recently been badly "stung" by getting substitutes for Zam-Buk. When they have asked for a box of Zam-Buk, the dealer has produced some line on which he makes more profit, and talked about "Just as good and cheaper," or "One of my own, and I know what's in it," or "Really, the same thing at half the price," etc., etc. When tested, this cheap substitute has, of course, failed to do anything like what Zam-Buk does, but the buyer has, nevertheless, parted with his money! You will have to get Zam-Buk eventually! Don't waste money on useless substitutes. The name "Zam-Buk" is protected by law. See it on every packet before paying. If your local dealer should be out of stock, write "Zam-Buk, Toronto." We will mail it by return.

GOD'S MOTTO.

This is the season of wooing and mating. The heart of Nature calls out for its own, and God have pity on those who are waiting. The fair unfolding of Spring, alone, for the fowls fly north in pairs together, and two by two are the leaves unfurled, and the whole intend of the wind and weather is to waken love in the thought of the world.

Up through the soil where the grass is springing, To flaunt green flags in the golden light, Each little sprout were a lonely Each little sprout its mate is bringing, (Oh! one little sprout were a lonely sight), We wake at dawn with the silvery patter Of bird-notes falling like showers of rain, And need but listen to prove their chatter The amorous echo of love's sweet pain.

In the buzz of the bee and the strong steed's neighing, In the bursting bud and the heart's unrest, The voice of nature again is saying, In God's own motto, that love is best, For this is the season of wooing and mating, The heart of nature calls out for its own; And O the sorrow of souls that are waiting ... The soft unfolding of Spring, alone!— (From "Poems of Love," E. Wheeler Wilcox.)

From Halifax To Vancouver

WOMEN ARE PRAISING DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Nova Scotia Mother Tells How They Cured Her Aches and Pains, and Made Her a Well Woman Again.

ECUM SECUM BRIDGE, Halifax Co., N. S., April 25 (Special).—From Vancouver to Halifax come daily reports of the splendid work Dodd's Kidney Pills are doing for the suffering women of Canada, and this little place can show a splendid cure of its own. Mrs. Orastus Pace, the mother of a large family, was a sufferer from those aches and pains only women know. Today she is a strong, healthy woman. Dodd's Kidney Pills did it. "I had a pain in my left side and down through my hips," Mrs. Pace states. "I had headache all the time. My heart was weak, and at times a pain around it added to my fears. Some days I was hardly able to walk. "I read of a number of cures of cases like mine by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and sent for three boxes. Today I am a well woman, and can do as much work as ever I could."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Mrs. Pace because her troubles came from diseased kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure diseased kidneys, and as ninety per cent of women's troubles come from kidney trouble, Dodd's Kidney Pills have come to be known as suffering woman's best friend.
