CHARLOTTETOWN and QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province. Rev. Jas. McDonald will preach on Sabbath the 15th at DeSable at 11 and 5.

The Bijou management has secured Harry Sterns for a short engagement to sing the illustrated songs.

An unsigned birth notice has been received from DeSable which awaits the sender's name in confidence.

Yesterday the Murray Harbor train was forty-five minutes late, Souris, fifty-five minutes late and the afternoon train from the west fifty minutes late. The morning train from the west was on time.

Walter Auld, Freetown, and W. MacLeod, New Glasgow, left by the Minto yesterday en route for Halifax where they are attending Dalhousie University. Mr. Auld is the 2nd year of his Arts' course and Mr. MacLeod in his 3rd.

The opening of the Bijou Theatre last night was a great success. The pictures were exceptionally good while the illustrated songs by Harry Sterns and duet were beyond criticism. The management wish to thank the public for their kind patronage.

A Montreal despatch says: Professor Mephal of McGill, declaring here, declared that the United States every sign of decay, and that the decline of the Republic would be more pronounced than that of ancient Rome. (Prof. Mephal is a native of this Province.)

There was entertainment galore at the People's theatre last night and some fine pictures were thrown on the screen. The Kasany drama A while Bumpkins was exceedingly good and intensely funny. The Tropics, from the Arctic to the Tropics, was especially fine and instructive. The singing took in a first class manner and all through the interest was kept up.

The marriage took place on Dec. 26th ult., at the parsonage, Nasina, N. H., of Miss Jessie Emling Mottlow, daughter of J. F. and Mrs. Mottlow, Millview, P.E.I., to Arthur Holt Sanborn. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the bride's parents where they partook of a dainty supper. The bride and groom were both very popular and received many costly and useful presents. After many good wishes, they returned to Lynn, Mass., where the wife resides.

Yesterday morning at a very early hour a resident of Highland Avenue who was awakened on hearing a noise downstairs proceeded to investigate the trouble. He found an intruder with half his body inside an open window on the first floor and immediately telephoned the police. The unwelcome visitor, being drunk, withdrew his person from the window and lay on the ground not far from the house, then suddenly scenting trouble he arose and when the householder again looked he was in the distance at a very fast rate of speed. The police, answering the call had a long way to go and were not on time. The would-be thief made a clear get-away.

John Whitlock, East Royalty, was one of the most successful exhibitors at the recent P. E. I. Poultry show. He exhibited Brown Leghorns, White Leghorns, Black Orpingtons and won places in all winning Carvel Bron cup for best Leghorn cock, hen, cockerel and pullet, also the $5 special for the best bird in the show in singlecomb Brown Leghorns. He won first cock, first hen, first and second pullet in Black Orpingtons; fourth cock, fourth hen, fourth cockerel, third pullet, first pair dressed cockerel, second pair dressed, first for white shell eggs, also sweepstakes for best cock and hen. He also tied for Prowse Bron cup and came within an ace of winning P. C. Brown's cup.

The results of the Xmas examinations in the Medical Faculty of McGill College were posted on Jan 9th, the P. E. Island students all did very well. They stand as follows: III year: (Five year course) Bacteriology—W. E. Williams, Mt. Pleasant, Honors and 4th place; R. Gillis, Summerside, Honors and 5th place. III year: (Four year course) Bacteriology—J. S. Jenkins, Charlottetown; J. F. Taylor, Summerside. Organic Chemistry—W. F. Taylor, Charlottetown; F. W. Tidmarsh, Charlottetown; A. D. Sharpe, Summerside. In giving the recent Science results the following was omitted: III year Science: Mechanics, III class—D. L. McLeod, Summerside; Walter Mathieson, Charlottetown.

SEVERE WINTER IN WEST. The great severity of Monday's storm is apparent in the fact that the Saskatchewan express on the Canadian Northern, which left Winnipeg on Monday, has not yet arrived here. The train is stalled about thirty miles east of Brandon, and the officials are not in position to say when it can be moved out of the worst storm in recent years' snow drift in which it is buried.
