The South Africa veterans' banquet last night in the Cafe Paul, in commemoration of the anniversary of Paardeberg, was attended by over fifty veterans and citizens, including His Honor Lieutenant Governor MacKinnon, Premier Stewart, His Worship Mayor McKenna and a number of the City Councillors. The gathering was a most genial one. Col. H. D. Johnson presided. The banquet was well prepared and served and full justice was done to the good things. Able addresses followed with the Toast List, the first toast after The King being a silent one "To Our Fallen Comrades." Among the comrades whom death had claimed, in addition to Roland Taylor and Alfred Riggs who fell on the field of battle, were Rev. Dr. Fullerton, Lieut. J. A. McDonald, Ernest Lord, William McEachern, Lorne Pigott, J. Goudreau, Comrades Leslie, Collins and Green.

Later in the evening the roll call was taken, when the following South Africa veterans responded amid warm applause to their names:—Reginald Cox, Fred Furze, Laurence Gaudet, Jos O'Reilly, Ambrose Rodd, Fred McRae, J. E. Small, Fred Waye, Jas. S. Walker, Chas. Hine, William Cook, D. R. Kennedy, W. J. Proud, Harry Hyde, Rev. Christopher Graham, Dr. Johnston.
 There were present at the banquet, twenty-six members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, and eight of these were South Africa veterans, having served through both wars three of them being volunteers in the first contingent of both conflicts.
 Communications were read from Mr. E. W. Taylor, Col. Moore and Major Arthur Mellich, regretting their inability to be present at the banquet. Major Mellich, who is now in Vancouver, sent warmest greetings to all his old comrades of the contingent.

In the later hours of the evening of Saturday, February 2nd, Mr. William Tinney a very highly esteemed resident of Fredericton passed peacefully away at the comparatively early age of 53 years.
 The deceased had not been in very robust condition of health for a number of years and up until some four weeks before his death he was able to move about among his friends and neighbors and at times was strong enough to do a little work. During the past few weeks though, since being confined to his bed his strength gradually waned until on the above mentioned date his spirit took its flight. Besides a sorrowing widow Mr. Tinney leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father, two sons. These are Frank, Professor on the Experimental Farm, Charlottetown and at present taking the Master of Science course at the MacDonald College, St. Anne, Quebec, and Reagh, Branch manager in Charlottetown for the O'Leary and Lee Co., of Halifax.
 Mr. Tinney also leaves to mourn their loss a widowed mother, who is now very ill in Quincey, Mass., and six brothers and one sister. The six brothers are Stephen, Lemuel, James, Richard, Robert and Benjamin and the sister is Miss Matilda Tinney—all of Quincey Mass. Three brothers, Frank, Daniel and Joseph predeceased Mr. Wm. Tinney by a number of years, as also did his father by some thirty years.
 The funeral which was a very large one was held on the afternoon of Tuesday, February 5th. The service was in the Fredericton Hall and was conducted by Rev. R. H. Stavert assisted by Rev. O. H. Peters.
 The pall-bearers all of whom were selected by the deceased were as follows: Messrs. John A.

Culliffe, Geo. S. McLeod, James McSwain, Malcolm B. McKenzie, Charles McKenzie and John McKenzie. Interment was in the Fredericton cemetery.
 Died at Killmuir, Kings County on Saturday morning, Feb. 2nd, 1924, after a brief illness, Mrs. Flora Gillis, wife of Duncan Gillis in the eighty-first year of her age, and by her death another binding link whose origin dates back to the pioneer days has been severed.
 The deceased was born at Brown's Creek (now Heatherdale) in August 1843 and was a daughter of the late Angus McPherson of that place, and here her childhood days were spent until her marriage which took place 55 years ago on Jan. 26th. She was one of the last survivors of that worthy generation who worshipped regularly in Historic Valleyfield Church, in which her father was an outstanding religious light, honored and respected by all because of his wisdom and pious devotion to all that pertained to the furtherance of God's work. One of her earliest pastors was that sainted servant of God, the late Rev. Alexander Munroe and throughout her life, up to the final summons she loved to recall the religious fervor and sincerity with which he sought to guide the footsteps of his beloved people.
 The late Mrs. Gillis was possessed of a rather unassuming disposition, yet, in the neighborhood in which she so long resided was held in the highest esteem and respect. She was ever ready to respond to the usual community demand, particularly in times of sickness or trouble. It was, however, in the home she showed her real self. She was a most devoted wife and mother, and in such capacity was given unusual opportunity to show how completely she could become resigned to the most exacting self-sacrifice in behalf of her family. Sickness and death visited the home on different occasions calling her loved ones one by one until out of a family of twelve, there remains only five living today. Through this series of sore bereavement she maintained a spirit of cheerfulness, born of a faith in the coming day when she would meet them all face to face. And so throughout her days she has lived a life of usefulness, sacrifice and service for others and having attained to a well ripened age she laid aside the burdens of time and has gone to be at rest.
 Besides an aged husband, she leaves to mourn a beloved wife and mother, three sons and two daughters: Donald in the Western States, M. S. and J. A. at home; Catherine R., and Sadie C. in Boston, the former of which arrived home on a brief visit a few days previous to her mother's death and was thus enabled to comfort her in her last days. There are also several brothers and sisters as follows: Alex McPherson of Heatherdale, Ewen McPherson, East Boston; Mrs. Albert Campbell and Miss Margaret of Pigeon Cove, Mass.; Mrs. James McLeod of Butte, Montana, and Mrs. John Beak of Bermuda.
 The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. J. A. McLellan of Valleyfield on Monday, Feb. 4th at Killmuir Church from which the remains were conveyed to Valleyfield cemetery and there laid to rest beside her daughter Mary there to await the Coming of the Lord.

FRIDAY
RETURNED FROM EUROPE—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McLeod (formerly Miss Myrtle Ross of this city) have returned from their honeymoon trip to Europe and have taken up their residence in New Glasgow, N. S. While away they travelled extensively in the British Isles, France and Italy but are glad to be back home again to settle down to home life.

CHISHOLM—McMILLAN WEDDINGS—St. Dunstan's Cathedral was the scene of a very pretty marriage at noon on Wednesday, Feb. 20th, when Miss Margaret, youngest daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Chisholm, of Uigg was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Mr. Ernest McMillan, son of Mrs. Michael McMillan of Vernon River. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Walsh in the presence of a few immediate relatives and friends. The bride looked charming in a suit of navy blue polka twill with hat to match and was assisted by her cousin Miss Mary McPherson of Uigg. The groom was supported by his cousin Mr. Frank Sigsworth of the C. N. R. Dept. City. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the Queen Hotel where dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan left by the afternoon train on Thursday for their future home in Vernon River. Mr. McMillan is one of the prosperous young farmers of that section. Their many friends bespeak for them many years of happiness.

Owing to the severe storm yesterday the Car Ferry did not make any crossing but preparations were being made to start this morning. The morning train to Borden arrived there and returned in the evening, but was delayed by the snow and through some slight engine trouble and did not reach Charlottetown until after 10:30 p. m.
 The morning train came in from Souris on time and returned, arriving half an hour late.
 The Georgetown train was held up last night in heavy snow near Peakes Station, but expected to get through all right.
 A wing plough was used on the western train and the ordinary wedge ploughs on the others. Though the fall of snow was heavy there were no embankments left from previous storms, otherwise a more serious blockade would have resulted.

As there was no Car Ferry trip there was, of course, no outside mail or passengers arriving last night.
 Ladies' Night, at the Rotary Club last evening, was a splendid success despite the stormy weather which prevailed. The attendance of Rotarians and their lady guests was large and the evening was voted the most enjoyable yet held by the Club. The president, Rotarian Dr. Yeo presided. An excellent banquet was provided by the management of the Cafe Paul and after the toasts had been duly honored the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. As it was impossible yesterday for the London Concert Eight to reach the Island, the part of the programme which was to be filled by members of the company was capably taken by Mrs. W. E. Fletcher, Mr. Harry Porter and Mr. D. Edgar Shaw.
 Following was the programme:
 (Poast) The King (National Anthem).
 Remarks by President Yeo.
 Toast, Rotary, ("In the Rotary") responded to by Past District Governor W. S. Grant.
 Roll Call and Introduction of guests.
 Rotary Sing-Song, by Everybody.
 Song, "Sing, Sing, Birds on the Wing" (Godfrey Nutting) Mrs. E. W. McKinnon.
 Toast "United States of America" ("The Star Spangled Banner") responded to by Rotarian J. Mowman, American Consul.
 Song, by Mr. Charles Earle.
 Toast: Rotary Anns and Guests ("They are Jolly Good Fellows") responded to by Mrs. J. A. Clark and Mr. D. Edgar Shaw.
 Song, by Mrs. W. E. Fletcher.
 Violin solo by Mr. Harry Porter.
 Reading by Mr. D. Edgar Shaw.
 The musical and recitative part of the programme evoked warm applause, the accompanist being Miss Lillian Earle.
 A vote of thanks moved by Rotarian G. S. Inman and seconded by Mr. D. Edgar Shaw, was tendered the management of the Cafe Paul.
 After an enjoyable dancing programme the entertainment closed with the singing of God Save the King.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING—On February 11th, about seventy guests gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher LePage of South Rustico, for the purpose of celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary. A very joyous evening was spent by all present renewing old acquaintances, together with a program of music, songs and speeches. Mr. and Mrs. LePage who are still hale and hearty have lived all their married life on the same farm, where they not only have been successful in building up a beautiful home but have always been ready to help in anything that was for the best welfare of the community. Their family are living with the exception of one little girl, Emma May, who died in infancy. Only one of the family, Mrs. C. W. Depew of Boston, was absent from this joyous event. Those of the family present were: Oliver and James L. of South Rustico, Garfield R. of Rusticoville and Bradford W. of Charlottetown.

The relatives and friends in Canada were pained to learn of the death in Jacksonville, Florida, on Saturday, 16th inst, at 10 o'clock of Mrs. Myrtle May McGregor, wife of John Hamilton McGregor, wife of age 39 years. Both were natives of Kingsboro, P. E. I. In 1905 they went to Vancouver where they resided 12 years. The climate not agreeing with Mrs. McGregor they came East and resided in Moncton until some time in November last they decided to go South for the winter in the hope that the sunny South would be beneficial to her health and with their two boys located at Jacksonville, Florida, where she gradually grew worse.
 All that medical skill and the care of a loving husband and friends could do, failed to stay the Messenger of Death, and her spirit passed to Him who gave it, in the full assurance of a life beyond where there is no sorrow or pain.
 She was the youngest daughter of the late John McDonald of Kingsboro and leaves to cherish her memory her mother, Mrs. Mary Jane McDonald and one brother Barton of Kingsboro. From McDonald, C. N. R., Lucerne, B. C., Edith, wife of John T. Stewart, Vancouver and Amanda, wife of E. D. Fraser, North Lake, and her husband and two sons in Jacksonville.
 Her loving disposition and pleasant smile won her many friends wherever she went. Early in her life she gave herself to Christ and united with the Christian Church and lived a devoted Christian life to its close, and it may be truly said of her "she hath done what she could." To know her was to love and admire her many christian qualities.
 The funeral was from the Moulton & Klye chapel, Rev. J. F. Boone pastor of the First Christian Church conducted the service.
 The body was placed in the receding vault in the Evergreen Cemetery awaiting word from friends as to its disposition.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS
 Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker
 There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole. Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister. Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia), 40c and 75c, at all druggists.
