York.—Mr. West has returned to York after a very pleasant visit at Eldon.—Miss Julia Vesey, City, who was so seriously injured in a fall at York, is gradually improving at P.E.I. Hospital.—Congratulations are in order for Carr Bros., Covehead, and Stanhope, for marked success at the Charlottetown Fox Show.—It is understood the Canadian Mounted Police are investigating the barbarous conduct at Covehead Road on the evening of Nov. 30th. Threats on respectable citizens and property destroyed should not obtain under the British flag.

BYENTON-SAYERS—A pretty wedding took place last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McEara, Harding, Marilyn Court, when Edna Irene, daughter of W. F. Sayers, of Kincaid, became the bride of Charles Melbourne Bryenton, son of E. M. Bryenton, of Swift Current. Rev. H. D. Rams performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a gown of rose crepe, made on slenderizing lines, and falling in a ruffled skirt. With this she wore a matching cape trimmed with ruffles and a shoulder corsage of pink carnations and maidenhair fern. The bridesmaid, Miss Sybil Graham, chose a yellow taffeta gown made on fitted lines and featuring a flare from knees to floor. David Harding acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served to immediate relatives and friends of the family. Later Mr. and Mrs. Bryenton left for Moose Jaw where they will spend a short honeymoon and on their return will reside at Cabri, Sask. Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Lee, Kincaid, and Messrs. Wm. Estabrook and Wm. Loudon, of Gull Lake.—Swift Current Sun.

MISSION BAND SERVICE—The Pleasant Valley United Church Mission Band held a service in the Church Sunday evening, Nov. 10th. The devotional part was taken by the older members of the band. A play, "The Tenth Birthday," was capably presented by the younger children. Mrs. (Rev.) A. R. Wallis presided and delivered the address. Miss Alice Weeks was organist. Following is the order of service: Doxology; Invocation, Mrs. (Rev.) A. R. Wallis; Hymn 240; Responsive reading, led by Miss Christine Wigmore; Scripture Reading, Miss Edna Wigmore; Prayer, Miss Elsie Somers; Hymn 242; Play "The Tenth Birthday" 13 children. Announcements. Offering. During the offering the choir sang "Send the Light." Address, Mrs. (Rev.) A. R. Wallis. Hymn 251. Benediction. The play was celebrating the 10th anniversary of Church Union. The children brought gifts from the countries they represented and placed them on the table beside a miniature church. Each lighted one of the ten candles on the birth-

IN MEMORIAM

LOYD G. HARVEY

A gloom was cast over the village of Crapaud, P.E.I., on Monday, Nov. 4th, by the sudden death of Lloyd G. Harvey, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harvey, following an operation in the Summerside Hospital.

Deceased who was only seventeen was a bright and likeable young man, and a member of the Young People's Society of the Crapaud United Church and will be greatly missed in the community and the home.

He leaves to mourn their loss beside a father and mother, two brothers, Lawson of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Harold at home, also one sister, Mrs. Kenneth MacDonal of Tryon, and one grandmother Mrs. Gavin Walker of Crapaud.

The funeral which was held from his late residence on Wednesday at 2 p.m. was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. J. L. Lund of Tryon assisted by Rev. Dr. Genge of North Tryon. Music was furnished by the local choir, under the leadership of Mrs. H. V. Norton. The hymns sung were: "Lead Kindly Light," "Nearer my God to Thee," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

Many beautiful floral tributes bore silent testimony to the high esteem deceased was held in.

The pall bearers were Raymond Luque, Robert Dawson, Robert Norton, Leslie Moore, Lyman Storde and Bertram Cameron. Interment was made in the North Tryon cemetery.

The sincere sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved family.

MR. HENRY NELSON

On Saturday, October 19th, 1935, there passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Sentner, of Loyalist, the spirit of Henry Nelson, at the advanced age of 83. The deceased had been a patient sufferer for many years, being confined to his bed for more than a year, during which he was tenderly cared for by his daughter, who did all that was humanly possible to ease his suffering.

The deceased resided in Charlottetown for many years. When tanning was a flourishing business in the city, Mr. Nelson worked at the tanning trade. The deceased was an interesting person to talk to, and although weakened by disease, his mind was active and alert. It was the writer's privilege to visit the deceased many times during his last years, when in spite of his suffering he remained cheerful and optimistic borne up by the faith which he had in the Eternal Verities, and in Christ his Saviour.

Three daughters, Mrs. Gilbert Sentner, Loyalist, P.E.I.; Mrs. Ben Williams, North River, P.E.I.; and Mrs. George Williams, Charlottetown, are left to mourn his passing, but they retain the memory of a father's love and devotion. His wife, Annie Fennel and one son William predeceased him years ago.

The funeral was held from the McLean Funeral Home, Charlottetown, on Monday, October 21, and was largely attended by neighbors and friends. The service at the funeral parlors and the grave were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Vincent, and Rev. Thos. Palethorpe, of Winsloe, who was a frequent visitor to the deceased during his protracted illness. The deceased was laid to rest in the People's Cemetery, Charlottetown. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Lee Good, Harry Pethick, Ben Sentner, Harry Younker, John Matheson and William Farrish.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Malone was united in marriage to Peter McGonnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McGonnell of Lot 65 Parish. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Father H. I. Flemming, O.S.B. The bride wore a wedding gown of blue transparent velvet, silver trimmed and shirred into tiny loops at the neck and sleeves. She wore a picture hat of the same shade of velvet with gloves and shoes to match. She was attended by her sister Florence who was also attired in blue. The groom was supported by his brother James. During the Mass appropriate hymns were sung by the bride's uncle, Mr. Frank J. Flood of Kelly's Cross. Mr. Alfred Doucette presided at the organ. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to near relatives and friends. The wedding party then motored to Summerside where they had dinner, returning about 6.30, when supper was served. Many lovely gifts were presented to the bride and previous to her marriage she was tendered a shower by her girl friends at her home where she also received some lovely gifts. All join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. McGonnell many years of happiness.

Mr. Heath M. Chisholm, representing Bruce, McKay and Co. Ltd., Summerside, was in the City today in the interest of his firm.
