Large quantities of potatoes were selling in this City yesterday at from twenty three to thirty cents per bushel.

Hay is selling in this City at thirty five to forty one cents per cent and straw at thirty to thirty five cents.

Mrs. J. MacNevin has returned to the City from a pleasant six weeks visit to her sister Mrs. F. J. Stanley, Glace Bay, C. B.

Prof. D. J. Fraser of Presbyterian College, Montreal, will occupy the pulpit of Zion Church tomorrow (Sunday) in the morning and St. James in the evening.

There were now white oats on the market square yesterday selling at forty one to forty two cents per bushel. Black oats remained at from fifty three to fifty five cents.

The firemen were called out yesterday for a blaze in the Victoria Hotel. The roof had caught on fire from the kitchen chimney. The fire was quickly put out by the hustling firemen with very little damage.

Worth's band gave another of their delightful band concerts last evening in the Gardens. Citizens will regret to hear that these concerts are almost over for the season as each band night has been eagerly looked forward to.

The steamer Harland was delayed on her trip up East River yesterday. It appears the span of the bridge is supposed to be kept closed on market days from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., and as the Harland sails at 3.30, she was unable to get through and only succeeded about 4.40.

In order to accommodate the extra large passenger traffic on the Eastern Steamship Company's International Division the new steel curline S. S. Camden will make a special direct trip to Boston on Saturday evening, probably about 7.30, September 29, after the departure of the steamer Calvin Austin.

Jack Wade of the Boston Journal, who with his party have been enjoying an outing at the Cliff Hotel, left yesterday by the steamer Halifax on return to Boston. Mr. Wade had the misfortune to injure his knee while playing tennis which was greatly regretted by all, as Mr. Wade is a jolly Boston citizen who is happy and most contented under all circumstances.

John A. Livingston of Brockton, Mass., has returned on a visit to his Island home after an absence of about twenty-eight years. He is accompanied by his two daughters, Mr. C. Nevins and Miss Mildred Livingston, also his brother-in-law, William Thorn, Superintendent of Streets in Brockton, who is delighted with the scenery of P. E. Island. Mr. Livingston is in business for himself in Brockton and is a brother-in-law of Duncan Livingston, Euston Street.

Advertisers are requested to have their "changes" in for the Morning Daily and the Rural Daily not later than 10 a. m. on both Friday and Saturday of each week as part of the big Saturday paper has to be printed on Friday and Guardian employees have a half holiday each Saturday. The news and editorial departments which will open at 10 a. m. on Saturday, are closed from 1 p. m. to 7.30 p. m. but the advertising and subscription departments are open from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. as on other days.

James Bulpit, Springfield, Ill., who has been visiting in this province left on return home yesterday. Mr. Bulpit left this province fifty four years ago and belonged to an old family who resided in Crapaud. He has made several visits to the Island and this time was accompanied by his daughter, Mr. Bulpit is busy visiting home on account of the negro trouble now abroad in Illinois, as he has grave fears for the safety of the remainder of his family. He is a brother of Mrs. Edward Robertson, Grafton Street, city, whose guest he was during his present visit. He was more than pleased with his visit to this province and his only worry was for the trouble at home. During his stay here he visited his cousins James Hodgson now residing in Tryon.

British Almond Pink an ideal preparation for sunburn. It takes away soreness and quickly restores the skin to its natural softness. Once used always used. Prepared and sold at 25c per bottle by A. W. Reddin, Phem B. Sunnyside.

Hedley Heaney has returned to Monson, Maine, after spending a short vacation with his parents Thomas and Mrs. Heaney, Clinton.

The excursion up East River yesterday afternoon by the steamer Harland was delightful and many persons were in attendance.

Miss Mable Tremers of this city, has gone to the country for a few days to visit her parents Thos. and Mrs. Tremers of Hampshire.

J. C. Chisholm of Antigonish, N. B., who was cutter for the late Charles Robertson of this city over thirty years ago, is visiting in the City.

The outing by the steamer Harland this afternoon will be up the beautiful West River, with its many picturesque windings. The boat leaves the wharf at three thirty.

Rev. J. M. Rice and wife and family of Winsloe, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Rice's parents, Hon. H. J. B. and Mrs. Wood, St. John's, Nfld., arrived home Thursday evening.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in the Presbyterian Church at Hunter River next Sabbath at 3 p. m. Rev. Mr. Steele of the Methodist church, Bedoune will preach.

The Durning Tourists attended the market yesterday and together with the other regular attendants made a big crush in the early morning. The prices of butter, eggs, fruit and vegetables were much the same as last day as may be seen by the itemized market report elsewhere.

At the evening service in the First Methodist Church tomorrow Rev. Joseph Sellar of Canning, N. S., will preach. Mr. Sellar was at one time located in this Province and many of his old friends will be delighted to have this opportunity of again hearing him. Mr. Thomas will take the morning service.

The death occurred yesterday at Johnston's River of William Brazil. Mr. Brazil was stricken with paralysis on Tuesday, the day of his daughter's marriage, and never rallied. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family. The deceased was about 68 years of age. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 3 p. m.

All who went to New Wonderland enjoyed a rare treat last night in the moving pictures when the new reel was run off depicting an Orphan's Easter Eggs, as it was magnificent. The other pictures were equally as good there being sufficient mirth intermingled for all tastes. MacDonald's new illustrated song is a good one and Mrs. Trainor's playing of the highest class.

PROVINCE OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

I am now in a better position than ever to give you the very best to be had in the tailoring art, having received the latest New York fashions from the John J. Mitchell fashion house for the spring and summer of 1908. I have also received a large supply of the very latest in suitings, overcoatings, trousers and ladies' coats, which I will make up at the lowest possible price. I have an expert in that line. Ladies give us a call and get a coat that will please you in any style you choose. I have also an expert from the old country who will clean and press and repair your clothing at a very modest price. Give us your order early and avoid the rush.

Cleanliness is Next to Godliness

If you want your home thoroughly clean and healthy, have it done scientifically. Ordinary disinfectants give only a false sense of security. Microbes and bacteria lurk beyond the reach of the most particular housewife. I use only the latest approved method which is a perfect germicide and endorsed by 14 Boards of Health and Health Officers.
