Marshfield Citizen Is Honored

On January 25th a very pleasant evening was spent when the congregation of Central Church, and other friends gathered and filled the home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ferguson for the purpose of expressing to Mr. Ferguson who recently celebrated his 89th birthday, their hearty congratulations and wish sincere wishes that he may continue to enjoy the splendid measure of health that he has enjoyed those many years.

Mr. Ferguson, familiarly known as John T., has since a young man been a leading citizen in this section of the province and with no other reward, but a sense of public duty, has gained a reputation for his high character and progressive community leadership.

Rev. J.A. Nicholson very capably acted as chairman, and a varied program of instrumental music, songs, readings, games and short speeches by the chairman, Mr. Peter Brodie and others, and a bountiful lunch daintily served by the ladies made the evening pass all too quickly.

The following is the address: Marshfield, P.E.I. January 24, 1938.

Dear John T.:—As members of the Central United Congregation and as friends we are gathered here to-night for a very happy occasion. A few days ago you celebrated your 89th birthday, and we feel we cannot let an event like this pass unnoted, and so we have 'invaded' your home this evening to express our congratulations and to wish you many more years of good health and happiness.

A few of us older ones can well remember the Singing Schools conducted by Messrs. Turner and Shaw, where your love for music and your ability as a singer was soon recognized. And for 50 years you have as choir leader and in countless other ways used your musical ability to make life's road more pleasant for those in our community and elsewhere.

In the church life of this section of the province you have been one of its outstanding members and for many years an honored elder and one whose seat is seldom vacant on the Lord's day. Honored in 19-22 by the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island, when you were appointed a commissioner to attend the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, held in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Possessed of a kindly and generous nature and endowed with the sterling qualities of mind and heart which are so readily found in those whose lineage traces back to Scotland's heathered hills. And the hospitality to all who came in contact with you and Mrs. Ferguson, and who were portrayed by the poet Burns in the Cotter's Saturday Night when he says, "Does the weary traveller his care beguile and make him quit, forget his woe, to accept this gift as a reminder of the respect and esteem in which you are held by the people of this Congregation and Community."

The singing of the National Anthem brought an enjoyable afternoon to a close.

Chat Body of Hours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

YOU MAY LIVE A LONG TIME WITH HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

There was a time when an operation—usually the removal of the appendix—was a favorite, if not the favorite, topic of conversation among middle-aged men and women. To-day, if it is not about the heart, angina, coronary thrombosis, or leaking valves—it is about the blood pressure.

What is blood pressure? Blood pressure is the pressure made against the walls of the blood vessels as it circulates throughout the body. The physician measures this pressure against a column of mercury—just as we read the pressure of the atmosphere on the barometer.

Now the average individual has learned that if this pressure of the blood is too great against the blood vessel wall it may break through the wall and cause bleeding—hemorrhage—which bleeding will cause damage in the brain, heart, or elsewhere according to where it occurs.

The average individual also thinks that it is because the walls of the blood vessels have lost their elastic tissue—hardened, so the arteries—that the pressure becomes so high, and this is often true. However, if the individual is excited or upset at the time of, or because of, the examination, or has just eaten a heavy meal, his blood pressure may be up as high as twenty to thirty points. A little quiet rest, or a few minutes of rest, will often bring the pressure down to normal within a few minutes.

Sometimes, of course, the pressure has to be taken a number of times; in the morning before breakfast is a favorable time. Even when the blood pressure is "always" high, if the individual goes about his regular affairs or duties in life with ordinary care—no heavy work, light meals even if more meals are eaten, acquiring calmness or peace—he may never have the slightest symptom of high blood pressure and live just as long as if his blood pressure had been normal.

Dr. David Riesman, Philadelphia, in Annals of Internal Medicine, makes the point that the individual can live to be 80 to even 100 years with high systolic (blood being forced against vessel walls) blood pressure.
