—CORRECTION.—In the account of the Missionary Society of Charlottetown congregation celebration of its eighty-eighth birthday in Malpeque Church on March 16th the statement "nine thousand three hundred and fifty-nine workers connected with the United Church" should have read three thousand, nine hundred and fifty-nine, etc.

—TORONTO PARTY.—Judge and Mrs. J. E. Wyatt, Miss Wanda Wyatt and Mrs. W. A. Brennan, Summerside left on Monday morning to visit Montreal, Toronto and other cities. Mrs. Brennan plans to make an extended trip and will include Chicago, Davenport, Iowa and other Middle Western cities in her itinerary.—K.

—ROGERSVILLE VISITOR.—Miss Hazel C. Maloney of Rogersville, N. B., who has been spending some time with her friend, Miss Ruth Gallant of Summerside left Monday morning for her home. Miss Maloney had a pleasant visit.—K.

—PREPARING FOR FISHING.—Activities of lobster packers and other sea-food dealers are already in evidence around Kensington which again visualize the return of the holiday season. The lobster packers are already anticipating the legal season and supplies are distributing among the various centres. This also reminds us that the holiday season is concomitant with the fishing season, and the modernized intellectual people of Kensington would do well to display in the busy industrial centres what inviting prospects Kensington and surrounding country can advance to attract tourists. Y.

—SOCIAL GATHERING.—The social gathering and dance held at the home of Mrs. Wilfred Tanton Albertson, on the 18th last, was voted by all who attended, the most delightful of the season. The music was supplied by Mr. A. P. Ahern and his orchestra assisted by Miss Myrtle Phillips of Tyne Valley accompanist, and the numerous encores, demanded by the dancers to every number attended to the musical ability of the players. At eleven o'clock a dainty luncheon was served to more than twenty guests. The light fantastic was once more indulged in and carried until a late hour when one and all assembled to assure Mrs. Tanton that the party was the "Best Yet" and to thank her for a most enjoyable evening.

—PERSONALS—
