What Are Your Sources of Information?

Too often investors base their investment decision on too meagre information. They very often overlook the fact that it is possible to obtain thoroughly reliable information from sound investment bankers.

The Eastern Securities Company maintains a most complete statistical department which is always at the disposal of investors, and inquiries will receive our most careful attention.

NOBLE—TRAINER WEDDING—At St. Mary's Church, Glens Falls, New York, on June 22nd, Miss Margaret Trainor, daughter of Mr. James Trainor, Spring Park Road, Charlottetown, and Mr. Edward Noble of Clemons, New York, were married by the Rev. Father Benedict I. Gillon. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Noble left on a motor trip to Montreal. On their return they will reside at 22 Pine St., Glens Falls, N. Y.

W. M. S. MEETING—The W. M. S. of the Covehead United Church held their monthly meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. H. Shaw, when a most entertaining program was given including solos by Rev. Mr. Wilson and Miss Mary McCallum. A paper on mission work was read by Mrs. Colin McLure and Mrs. Louis Coles gave her annual report. Readings were also given by Mrs. Wendal McMillan, Mrs. Edward Shaw and Mrs. Hammond Shaw after which delightful refreshments were served by the ladies and the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

ISLAND GIRL WEDS IN U. S. A.—The marriage of Miss Grace M. Proude, of New Wiltshire, to Mr. J. H. Stetson, of New Bedford, Mass., was solemnized by the Rev. O. L. Griswold, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Fairhaven, Mass., on June 29th, in the presence of a few intimate friends. The groom is a son of Mr. J. N. Stetson and is a popular employee of the Atlantic Oil Refining Co., of that town. Miss Proude is a graduate of C. B. C. Charlottetown and held the position of stenographer for the past two years with the Mohawk Tire Co., New Bedford, Mass. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left by motor for Prince Edward Island, where they will visit the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Proude, New Wiltshire.

DOUBLE WEDDING—On the evening of June 26th the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dingwell, Midgell, was the scene of a very happy event when their daughter, Laeta Mae was united in marriage to Milton J. MacDonald, Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. MacDonald, Lorne Valley and at the same time their daughter, Alice Maud was united in marriage to Mr. Gordon E. Coffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coffin, Morell. The bridal couples entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Marion Coffin, and took their places under a beautiful floral arch where they were joined in wedlock by Rev. A. J. Murchison. The brides who were charmingly attired in white satin and lace, wearing bridal veils and orange blossoms, and carrying large bouquets of carnations and maiden hair fern, were given away by their fathers in the presence of the near relatives and friends of the contracting parties. After congratulations had been extended, a dainty buffet lunch was served. Some time later a very large company of serenaders proceeded to make the night lively and call for the brides and on their appearance extended congratulations to the happy couples. The wedding presents were numerous and costly, including many gold pieces, silverware, cut glass, linen, a beautiful cake plate to Mrs. Coffin from L. M. Montgomery MacDonald, etc. etc., testifying to the popularity of the young couples. Both parties motored to Borden where they embarked on the early boat for a honeymoon trip through the Maritime Provinces, Mr. and Mrs. Coffin will reside at Morell where Mr. Coffin is a prosperous young farmer, while Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald will reside in Montreal where the groom holds a responsible position with the Swift Canadian Company. All their friends wish both couples many years of wedded bliss. (Patriot please copy.)
