FUNERAL OF MRS. JOSEPH F. WEDGE—The funeral of Mrs. Joseph F. Wedge was held on Tuesday morning from the home to St. Paul's Church, Summerside. Rev. Bennett McDonald officiated at Requiem High Mass and Rev. Dr. MacLellan at the grave. The pall bearers were Messrs Arthur Gallant, Andrew Wedge, Sampson Grady, John Wedge, Fidele Gallant and John P. DesRoches. Interment was in the R. C. Cemetery.

Word was received by Mr. W. Henry Noonan, Barrister, Summerside, of the sudden death in St. John, N. B., of his brother, Philip. No particulars were received, although it was known that Mr. Noonan had been ill for a few days at his home. The deceased was the assistant manager of the Provincial Bank in St. John, having just recently been transferred from their branch in Charlottetown where he had occupied the position of manager since 1920.

Mr. Noonan was the son of the late W. A. Noonan and Mrs. Noonan of Bedouque and was 38 years of age. He started his banking career in the Royal Bank at Summerside in 1910, but enlisted in 1915 in the 11th, Ammunition Column and joined the 38th battery in Halifax, going overseas under the command of Col. D. A. MacKinnon of Charlottetown. He served with distinction in France during the World War and was promoted to the rank of Sergeant and received the military medal. He returned to the Island in 1919 and re-entered the Royal Bank at Summerside. Shortly after he was appointed manager of their branch in T'gnish. In 1920 he left the services of the Royal Bank to become manager of the Provincial Bank in Charlottetown which position he filled with credit and satisfaction until shortly before Easter of this year when he was transferred to St. John, N. B.

In his contact with the public during his long stay in the city he made many warm friendships and his untimely death will be learned with deep regret by a large circle of friends in Summerside where he spent his younger days, he had many friends. He was a member of the Summerside Council of the Knights of Columbus, and was very highly esteemed by his fellow members. He was a man of exceptional ability and sterling character, to which is attributed his success in his chosen profession. Sincere sympathy is extended to his widow, formerly Mrs. Cornelia Hackett of T'gnish, and to his mother Mrs. W. A. Noonan of Bedouque and the following brothers and sisters: W. Henry and Preston of Summerside, Austin of Halifax; Frank and John in Boston; Andrew of Albany, P. E. I.; Daniel of Bedouque; Russel and Miss Hilda at home and Mrs. Alice, attending Prince of Wales College. The remains are being brought home for burial. Funeral arrangements will be published later.

"KILMARNOCK" BURNS SOLD

A defective copy of a "Kilmarnock" Burns was sold recently in London for $170, par exchange. Had it been perfect the price probably would have touched the record of $8,000. Burns hoped to raise $125 by the "poems, chiefly in the Scottish dialect," which were printed at Kilmarnock in 1786, to take him to the West Indies. His work was so successful that he was induced to stay in Scotland. Nearly 30 years ago the "Veitch" copy of the "Kilmarnock" edition was bought for the Burns Museum for $5,000, and it was considered an extravagant purchase. In recent years the market price has been steadily mounting up to $10,000.
