A. Mathieson and their trip to the Experimental Farm. The March meeting of the Institute was in the form of a social evening and was very largely attended. Up to date this Institute has donated $20 towards School Improvement, $47 to Patriotic work. Further work will be done along these two lines together with the establishing of a library.

—AGED LADY DEAD.—Mrs. Diana Dougherty, wife of the late Francis Dougherty, died at the residence of her son, Mr. S. P. Dougherty, Port Hill, on Saturday, the 20th inst. Mrs. Dougherty, who had reached the advanced age of 92 years, had been in her usual health until the day before her death, when it was noticed that a change had taken place and about half an hour before her death she spoke to her son and daughter who were with her, and after that she peacefully slept away. Mrs. Dougherty was a woman who was greatly loved and respected by those who knew her because of the noble Christian life which she lived. She will be greatly missed in the Presbyterian Church at Lot 14, of which she was a devoted member and to which she was a liberal contributor. Her funeral which took place on the afternoon of Wednesday, March 24th, to the Presbyterian Church and cemetery at Lot 14 was very largely attended. Rev. J. S. McKay, pastor of the church, conducted the services at the house, grave and church. Mrs. Dougherty leaves to mourn the following sons and daughters: Messrs S. P. Dougherty and David Dougherty, Port Hill, and Dr. W. H. Dougherty, Cape Traverse; Mrs. Hector, Doble, Arlington; Mrs. C. E. Doble, Port Hill; Mrs. Weeks, Alberton; Mrs. Robinson, in the United States, and Miss Mary Jane, at home.—P.

WOMAN COULD HARDLY STAND

Because of Terrible Backache. Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered from displacement and inflammation, and had such pains in my back, sides, and terrible backache so that I could hardly stand. I took six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I can do any amount of work, sleep good, eat good, and don't have a bit of trouble. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to every suffering woman."—Mrs. HARRY FISHER, 1642 Junista Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Another Woman's Case. Providence, R. I.—"I cannot speak too highly of your Vegetable Compound as it has done wonders for me and I would not be without it. I had displacement, bearing down, and backache, until I could hardly stand and was thoroughly run down when I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helped me and I am in the best of health at present. I work in a factory all day long besides doing my housework so you can see what it has done for me. I give you permission to publish my name and I speak of your Vegetable Compound to many of my friends."—Mrs. ABRAHAM LAWSON, 126 Lippitt St., Providence, R. I.

Danger Signals to Women are what one physician called backache, headache, nervousness, and the blues. In many cases they are symptoms of some female derangement or an inflammatory, ulcerative condition, which may be overcome by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands of American women willingly testify to its virtue.

WALK OVER

This drawing represents a beautiful shoe, designed for particular women. Note the perfect lines, and with all its beauty there is that lovely feeling of comfort and the knowledge that your feet are entirely satisfied. This feeling is assured with every pair of "Empress" or "Walk-Over" Shoes.

LATEST FROM THEATRES

BOSTON THEATRE TO HAVE A SEASON OF GRAND OPERA IN ENGLISH.

New England music lovers will be pleased with the announcement of the coming of the Aborn English Grand Opera Company to the Boston Theatre for a limited engagement, beginning Monday, April 5th. This organization has played many successful engagements in Boston and therefore needs little introduction. Since they last presented Grand Opera in English, at the Boston Opera House, Milton and Sargent Aborn have added new laurels to their reputation by their two successful seasons as general managers of the Century Opera Company in New York and Chicago. The favorite artists who have been heard in Boston before, will return for the coming spring season, with many other notables added. The chorus and orchestra have been reinforced and strengthened, and new and complete and artistic productions have been made for the operas of their repertoire. There will be eight performances each week, including Wednesday and Saturday matinees, and the prices will be popular—25c. to $1.00. The final result of the popular voting contest, instituted for the purpose of ascertaining just what operas would meet with the widest favor in Boston has just been brought to a close. Nearly a month ago the management began distributing voting post cards among music lovers. Upon one side of these cards forty operas were named, from which selection could be made, and on the opposite side the address of Milton and Sargent Aborn, Century Opera House, New York City, was printed.

Fifty thousand of these cards were distributed and fifteen hundred and sixty were received by mail at the Aborn office at the Century. This is considered a large return by comparison with voting tests of the sort held at various times in other cities. The fifteen operas standing first in order of popularity are: "Madam Butterfly," "Aida," "Hansel and Gretel," "Il Trovatore," "Lohengrin," "The Tales of Hoffman," "Carmen," "La Cenerentola," "The Jewels of the Madonna," "La Gioconda," "Faust," "Cavalleria Rusticana," "Romeo and Juliet," "Samson and Delilah," "Pagliaccio," "Thais," "William Tell," "Louise," "The Secret of Suzanne," "Martha," "Gloconda" and "Travata."

In accordance with this popular vote, the repertoire for the first two weeks have been announced as follows: Week beginning April 5th, "Aida" and "Madame Butterfly"; four performances each. Week beginning April 12th, "Lohengrin" and "Il Trovatore," four performances each, with extra matinees of "Hansel and Gretel" on Tuesday and Friday, April 13 and 16.

EDEN MUSEE'S MANY ATTRACTIIONS.

Since the Eden Musee on 23rd St., New York has changed its policy by lowering the price of admission to 25 cents every day, the thousands of visitors and strangers have taken advantage of the reduced price and thousands of people who have never visited the Eden Musee have made the visit on their trip to New York.

The latest addition in the World of Wax is a most beautiful tableau entitled the "Cloth of Gold," one of the wonderful Palais in costume collection. This tableau dates back to the 16th Century. The wax figures, costumes and properties used in this group are truly worth a visit.

The Kinemacolor natural colored moving pictures are shown every hour, an entirely new series of subjects being shown in each series. The stage performance of Mr. Dunninger, the clever magician and illusionist, is appreciated and accepted by the audiences as one of the best magic acts seen in many years.

A new group was installed in the crypt of the Musee and is entitled "An Innocent Victim" and depicts a scene taken from an actual occurrence on the battle field in Belgium.

PRINCESS RAJAH AT B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

The world's greatest Oriental dancer, Princess Rajah, direct from her tour of the capitals of the Old World, will come to B. F. Keith's Theatre this week at the head of a splendid bill of novelties and stars. Rajah will present two magnificent scenic spectacles, "The Cleopatra Dance" and "The Arabian Chair Dance," presented with all the gorgeous pageantry of the Orient, and introducing the most startling and spectacular terpsichorean offerings ever staged. Rajah will be assisted by a large company of dancers and musicians. Frank Fogarty, the Dublin minstrel, will be the big comedy star of the show. Mr. Fogarty will relate some of his very newest and funniest stories. Other strong features of a grand international bill of stars of all nations will include Marion Littlefield and her group of Florentine Singers; Catherine Calvert and Company in Paul Armstrong's drama, "To Save One Girl," a powerful New York play by the author of "Alas Jimmy Valentine" and "The Deep Purple"; "Flanagan & Edwards in their amusing specialty, "On and Off;" Robert Emmet Keane and Muriel Window, late features of the Passing Show of 1914; El Rey Sisters, tangoing on roller skates; Lucille and "Cockle," the human bird; Grace DeMarr, and others.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMES ALISON McPHAIL.

On Sunday morning the 21st inst. the grim messenger of death visited the Cornell village and called to his eternal home, Mr. James Allison McPhail son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McPhail. In the demise of Mr. McPhail, at the early age of nineteen, just entering upon the threshold of manhood, the family has been plunged into deepest grief, made doubly severe by the fact that only about a year and a half ago, they were alled upon to mourn the death of another member of the family in the person of Mrs. Wm. Munn. Up till five weeks ago, deceased was in his usual health, when he was stricken down with illness, from which he never recovered but which he bore with patience and resignation to the Divine Will. In his community he will be missed as a careful and industrious workman of a quiet, amiable and unassuming disposition. The esteem in which the deceased was held, and the sympathy of the community for the family, was evidenced by the large number of people who called on Sunday and Mon-
