It is surprising the large number of people in Charlottetown who, when want to inquire about their Morning Daily Guardian or subscription, ask Central for the News phone No. 133, or for the Advertising Phone No. 132.3, instead of 142; or when they want to inquire about advertising ask Central for the Subscription Phone No. 132.2; or for the News Phone No. 133, instead of 123.3; or when they want the News or Editorial department ask Central for the Subscription Phone No. 132.2, or the Advertising Phone No. 132.3, instead of 133, although all those departments and their respective phone numbers are plainly given in the telephone book. The yacht O-we-ra arrived in Charlottetown harbor last evening.

The tug William Aitken arrived in Charlottetown from Picton on Saturday evening.

The Abegweits defeated the Victors at Victoria Park, Charlottetown on Saturday afternoon in an eight inning game by the score of 27-12. J. Bulger was umpire and C. J. Riell was on bases.

Rev. G. H. Moore, Cambridge Mass., occupied the pulpit in Grace Church, Charlottetown, yesterday, at both services. His sermons were listened to with keen appreciation and good congregations attended both services.

In the First Methodist Church in Charlottetown, yesterday Rev. St. W. Squires conducted the services in the absence of Rev. Mr. Heaney in Frederickton. His discourse in the morning from Exodus 14: 15 was a splendid one and in the evening he was heard by a large congregation.

The funeral of the late W. A. Lew is, Cardigan, which took place at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning to All Saints Church and Cemetery, was very largely attended. Among those in attendance was a number of the members of the Charlottetown Council of the Knights of Columbus, of which order the deceased was an esteemed member.

Looking at the book, even phone on of the above departments to find out what number to ask for to get another department. All this is a great waste of time on the part of the person phoning, the operator at the Central, and the clerk in the department wrongly phoned. The new staff, on an upper floor, cannot give the necessary information about either advertising or subscriptions, nor the advertising staff about subscriptions or news, nor the subscription staff about advertising or news. In other words the clerks know and care do but their own work in their own departments, and if it were otherwise they would be continually running from one department to another, up stairs and down, mixing work, wearing themselves out and causing the greatest possible confusion. On an after 7 p.m. daily it is useless to ask for any phone number except 133.

Patrons who consult their phone book for the numbers they recall want will greatly lessen the work of the patient Central telephone and Guardian clerks and thus help make their lives much brighter and happier. 3-164F.

J. J. Louison, Montreal, who has been visiting Charlottetown for the last week, and seeing his mother who is seriously ill, was a passenger to Montreal, Saturday last.

Commodore R. Thomson, C. B. Allan, R. Downing Patterson and D. Arnold Fox, St. John; arrived in Charlottetown Saturday night and are on their way to Morson's Lake, or a few day's fishing.

Mrs. John M. Arsenault, St. Lewis, as arrived in Charlottetown accompanying her two year old daughter, Yvonne, who will be operated on in the City Hospital today for vocal trouble.

Rev. J. F. Floyd, pastor of the Central Christian Church, Charlottetown, yesterday occupied the pulpit at his church at both services. His sermons on each occasion were strong and inspiring.

Rev. Z. L. Fash, pastor of the Baptist Church, Charlottetown, yesterday morning preached the first of a series of sermons on "Mysteries." His discourse was an eloquent and forceful one and dealt with the mystery of Sin. Interest in this series will be keen, the pastor having a way of dealing with his subject which particularly appeals to his hearers.

Rev. Mr. Kent, one of the professors at Pinehill College, Halifax, occupied the pulpit in Zion Church, Charlottetown, yesterday morning and evening. His discourses were appealing and inspiring and the sermon was particularly strong. In this he dwelt on the need of young men for the ministry and his remarks were listened to with close attention. In the morning the service was preparatory to the Communion service which was held bearing on the Sacrament.

Yesterday afternoon three hundred little girls of the St. Dunstan's Cathedral, Charlottetown, made their profession. The splendid edifice was crowded and the ceremony was, as usual, a most impressive and interesting one. The little ones, attired in white with white veils, marched in and took their places and following the ceremony Benediction was given, Father Murphy being the celebrant. The procession of the children through the church was very pretty spectacle. Dr. McLellan delivered a valuable discourse prior to the Benediction.

The funeral of the late William Murray, Jr., Charlottetown took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. The members of the Benevolent Irish Society attended in a body and from their number the six active pallbearers were chosen. The honorary pallbearers were: Coun. Riley, Luke Higgins, G. A. Moore, W. F. H. Carvell, A. P. Edmonds and Thos. Ronahan. Rev. Pius McDonald conducted the services at the church and the grave. The mourners were: Wm. Murray, Dr. J. P. Murray, James Hennessey, John Doyle, Robert Kelly, James Kelly, Peter Trainor, Wm. Conroy, Patrick Keenan and Coun. McKenna. Much sympathy was expressed on the sad occasion and regret over the loss of an estimable young man was general.

Saturday and yesterday afternoon a very large number of visitors attended and admired the exhibit of work done by the pupils at that institution. The most interesting, perhaps, was the oil painting and pastel work and in these lines really excellent work was shown. Nature in different moods, in object, landscape and life was most truthfully portrayed, showing a keen perception on the part of the students and capable training. Prominent exhibitors in these branches were Lily J. Taylor, Mrs. Moore, May Stewart, and others. In China painting, conventional and realistic, some splendid work was shown by Mrs. Moore, Misses Barrett, Taylor, Lee, McKenna, Grant and Chapple. The exhibit of plain sewing by children of eight, nine and ten years contained skillfully executed work.

"There's a Reason"

The Weak, Lame, Aching Back Comes From The Kidneys.

Those who have never been troubled with kidney trouble do not know the suffering and misery which those afflicted undergo.

On the first sign of backache Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken immediately so as to avoid years of suffering from kidney trouble.

They go right to the seat of the trouble, heal the delicate membranes of the kidneys and make their action regular and natural.

Mrs. Joseph Throop, Upper Point de Bute, N.B., writes: "I cannot speak too well of Doan's Kidney Pills. For two years I was so tired life was a burden, and I got up more tired than when I went to bed, and my back was so lame I could hardly straighten up. I took different kinds of medicine, but none of them did me any good until a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I did so, and to-day I don't know what it is to be tired, and my lame back is all gone. I can recommend them to any person suffering from lame back and that terrible tired feeling."

CUT THIS OUT AND PASTE IT UP

Almost every day The Guardian receives orders by mail to insert news matter of an advertising nature. In most of these cases the senders, who are frequently not known to any member of the staff and who have no account in the advertising department, write "Please insert the following and oblige," thus apparently implying that they think the items will be inserted free. Only a few weeks ago a reader wrote asking that his advertisement of Farm for Sale be inserted free from day to day until he cancelled it, as he is a subscriber to The Guardian. In this connection it may be said that the subscription price is not sufficient to even pay the actual cost of paper, ink, presswork, mailing, bookkeeping and other expenses of the Circulation department proper, and thus subscribers have no privileges of free advertising and are on the same footing as the ordinary subscribers. Seldom ever does the sender state whether the item is to appear in the Morning Daily or the Rural Daily, whether for one or more times in either Daily, or in both, whether as a display advertisement, announcement, business local, classified ad or otherwise. When for church or charitable purposes they seldom ever say so, or do not enclose sufficient money to pay for same all of which will be returned by first mail in the event of the item not being chargeable, or if more money is sent than necessary to pay for the item the surplus will be returned at once, there being a greater discount for cash with order for advertising of churches etc than for regular business. In all such cases the Advertising department communicates with the sender as quickly as possible by mail or phone, often paying the messenger's service to get them to the telephone if not too far distant, thus saving all possible time. People write this office to know if News, Letters to Editor, etc., are charged for, and to all such there is but one reply—all items etc. of a money making nature, even though they be somewhat of a news nature, are chargeable. For instance, the advance notice or notices of a concert, lecture, pie social, picnic, etc., are chargeable if an admission fee, silver collection, sale of pies or sale of food, or refreshments, etc. Advances notices of purely religious services, even though a silver collection is to be taken up, are not chargeable. The particulars of any of the above, after they have been held, are, however, news and thus not chargeable. The news of any past, present or future business, which is still being conducted, is chargeable, if it is apparent that the object is to make the business more widely known and thus increase it. Verres accompanying death notices are also chargeable. Even items which are actual news and not chargeable but once in either morning Daily or Rural Daily or both are chargeable for more than one insertion, as they are thus not news.

The above facts are given for the purpose of assisting persons who have items, etc., to mail to this office, so that delay and disappointment will be avoided. 3-16drf.
