Try Again Division No. 235, Bonshaw, has sent the following letter to Miss Flora and Alex McLeod. Dear sister and brother—We the officers and members of Try Again Division, do hereby take this opportunity of tendering to you our heartfelt sympathy in this your hour of sorrow. By the removal of your dear father from this field of action to his home above, not only your home but the community has sustained a severe loss. It seems hard when death claims our loved ones, but more especially so when the father is taken away. But we rest assured that you mourn not as those without hope for he has gone to that Haven of Rest where sorrow is never known, and where love and joy reigns supreme. We would direct you to that Great Patriarch above, the Ruler of this universe who has taught us to say, "Not my will but Thine be done." Signed on behalf of the officers and members of "Try Again Division, J. J. McLeod, William R. Carson, Lizzie McDonald.

One less at home. The charmed circle broken—a dear face missed day by day from its usual place. But cleansed, saved, perfected by grace. One more in Heaven. One less on earth. It's pain, it's sorrow and its toil to share. One less the Pilgrim's daily cross to bear. One more the crown of the blest to wear. At home in Heaven. (C. W. C.)

Philip Cahill, Moncton, who has been visiting old friends and acquaintances in Alberton and his sister in South Shore, left yesterday afternoon for Georgetown on return. Mr. Cahill is an enthusiast in the fur, ranch industry and speaks in the most alluring terms of the future of that enterprise for this province. He compares it with a diamond mine or a gold discovery and says the boom will be enduring and with proper management on the part of those engaged in the enterprise nothing but success can ensue. The demand will be lasting, since the decline of other fur supply in different parts of the world and a new market is opening for furs for breeding in such countries as Norway, Denmark, etc. where the fox raising fever has been reached. Enquiries from many places have been received and the industry will be one of the biggest things this province has experienced in years.

While most of the best farmers of King's County have a shortage in their hay crop it is pleasing to note that Mr. Malone, Prop. of the Wooddale Farm and a near resident of Souris recently sold 50 team loads surrounding country. Mr. Malone was at one time a resident of Kelly's Cross and sold his property there, moving to Souris where he purchased the property which he now holds and by his energy and thrift has become one of the most prosperous farmers in this part of the Province.

A sumptuous lunch was served of which all partook in thorough enjoyment. Finally as the clock marked the morning hours the company left for their homes after heartily thanking Mr. and Mrs. Hodgson for their hospitality.

The snow storm of Sunday was the heaviest experienced in Souris for years, in fact many of the older citizens state that they never have seen the streets so banked up. Monday morning all the property holders in the town could be seen shovelling the snow before their stores and dwellings while others were engaged in making the streets fit for traffic. In some cases it was found necessary to make an exit from the upper storey of the dwellings, the lower part being completely snowed up. At present all the sidewalks have been cleared and traffic on the streets resumed.

Terrible Itching Got Little Sleep

Until Cuticura Remedies Cured Him

Those who have suffered long and hopelessly from torturing skin eruptions will read with interest this letter from Mr. T. Williams, 115 Pacific Ave., Winnipeg (dated Jan. 14, 1911): "The Cuticura Remedies certainly work finely, and I am thankful that there is such a remedy, and that I tried it. About three months ago a terrible itching commenced on my body. I could not understand it gradually grew worse and covered a large portion of my body, sort of a rash, a slight eruption of the skin, sort of a rash. I suffered greatly with the itching and at night time I had little sleep. I tried one or two remedies which did no good, and then I tried Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent. In about ten days I was completely cured." For more than a generation the Cuticura Remedies have afforded the most economical treatment for itching, burning, scaly and bleeding skin and scalp troubles of young and old. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Write for a trial sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, with 32-p. book on the care of the skin and treatment of Eczema, Psoriasis, Scabies, etc., to the Porter Drug & Chem. Co., Sole Importers, 21 Columbia Ave., Boston, U.S.A.

Yesterday the trains on the P. E. I. R. were again running as usual after the storm of Sunday, with the exception of the eastern and Southern branches. The latter is now all clear with the exception of the Vernon Branch and this, it is anticipated, will be clear by daylight. Cond. Tan ton left Murray Harbor yesterday morning and by six o'clock had worked his way to the Surrey Y. leaving there on return to Murray Harbor where he arrived at 8.30 p. m. The train leaving here in the morning reached the Surrey Y. about 7.30 p. m., and returned to the Vernon Branch and set to work on that. The eastern branch was opened at noon, Cond. Stanley reaching Charlottetown about 3.15 p. m. His train remained at St. Peters over night and Cond. Stanley reports very heavy snow all along the line. The Cape Traverse branch was opened up at 5.00 a. m. yesterday when the train which left the Cape on Monday morning, after fighting snow all day and night, reached Emerald Jet. On all parts of the line there are many deep cuttings and it is hoped that this, the first real storm of the season, may also be the last as another one of similar or even much less force would have a very serious effect on the road.

John W. Gunn, a well known and highly respected citizen, passed away in the Moncton Hospital Friday afternoon after an illness of two months and a half. Some ten weeks ago Mr. Gunn was stricken on for internal trouble, and while he improved for a time, yet his advanced age operated against him. Deceased was 81 years of age and was born at Miramich. He had been a resident of Moncton for the past eight years, and prior to that time he had at Rockland, N. B., parish of Dorchester. The concert and pie social held at Kingsboro Hall, March 5th, was a decided success. Though the night was intensely cold and the roads heavy, the hall was well filled, and the best of order prevailed. The program was as follows—A solo and chorus, "Are We Forgotten When We're Gone," by Miss Laura Stuart, the Misses Macdonald and J. P. Macdonald. A dialogue, "The Costume," by Miss Dorothy Macdonald and Roy Kennedy. An instrumental duet by Rev. and Mrs. G. F. Camp. This was one of the most enjoyable features of the evening, and was highly entertaining. A recitation, "The Whistling Thief," by Miss Laura Stuart, in her usual good style. An instrumental solo, by Miss Mary Campbell, which was heartily enjoyed and to which she replied by another pleasing selection. A trio, My Own True Love, by the Misses Macdonald and J. P. Macdonald. Reading selection, The Two Bootblacks, by Arthur Robertson. Comic Dialogue, The Flour of the Family, by Miss Stuart, the Misses Macdonald, which brought forth roars of laughter and applause. Vocal solo, Ah, I Have Sighed to Rest Me, by Miss Dorothy Macdonald. Instrumental solo, by Miss Ethyl Macdonald. This was very entertaining and was heartily enjoyed. A parlor theatrical, "It's an Ill Wind Blows Nobody Good," by the Misses Macdonald, C. J. Kennedy, A. P. Neagle, Milton Young and Arthur Robertson. Solo and chorus, Only Pansy Blossom, by Miss Stuart, the Misses Macdonald and J.

F. Macdonald. The pies were auctioned by Arthur Robertson, and the crowd dispersed after the singing of God Save the King. The proceeds amounted to forty-two dollars.

There departed this life on Sabbath, the 18th day of February, 1912, after a brief illness, John T. Macdonald at the advanced age of 82 years. He was one of the most highly respected and esteemed citizens of the prosperous and Christian community of Argyle Shore. His loss will be greatly felt as he was one of those noble characters, wise in counsel, zealous in good works and loyal to his Lord and Master in whose cause he was faithful unto death. He was a prominent, active and consistent member of the Church of Scotland, and always proved true to her doctrine and polity. Being a true Christian he delighted in the service and ordinances of the Church and was never absent when it was possible for him to attend. The funeral took place on Tuesday, the 20th, and notwithstanding the bad condition of the roads a large number assembled and followed the remains to their last resting place in the Argyle cemetery. CRITICAL TIME OF WOMAN'S LIFE

From 40 to 50 Years of Age. How It May Be Passed in Safety.

So, Wellington, B.C.—"For a year during the Change of Life I was all run down. I was really too weak to walk and was very dependent on my friends. I was going to die, but after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier my health and strength returned. I am very thankful to you and praise your medicine. I have advised several women who suffered as I did to try your remedies. You may publish this if you wish."—Mrs. DAVID R. MORRIS, South Wellington, Vancouver Island, B. C.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. We know of no other medicine which has such a record of success as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for woman's ills such as inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains and nervous prostration, and we believe it is unequalled for women during the period of change of life. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

his pastor, the Rev. Jas. MacDougall, who took as his subject Rev. 14:13 and preached a discourse of great comfort to the bereaved and edification to the hearers emphasizing the necessity of being in Christ in order to enter eternal rest. He was twice married, first to Miss Flora MacLean of DeSable and afterwards to Miss Mary MacLean of Canoe Cove who also predeceased him. He leaves to mourn, besides a large circle of relatives and friends, one sister, Mrs. Coll. MacDougall of Macfarlane Settlement, N. B., and an adopted son, Silas A. Murley, on the homestead in Argyle Shore.

After a lingering illness there passed peacefully away at South Melville, on March 5th, 1912, George MacFarlane, son of the late John MacFarlane at the early age of 39 years. His kind, jovial, and obliging disposition endeared him to every member of the community and to all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. During his trying illness he was always patient and appreciative of the faithful services rendered by those near and dear to him and of the many friends interested in his welfare. His true Christian character manifested not only in his walk and conversation in this world but also in his unflinching trust in his Redeemer and his triumphant passing into the world beyond. The funeral took place on Thursday from his late residence to the Argyle Cemetery. There being no settled pastor in the Presbyterian congregation to which he belonged the service was conducted by the Rev. Jas. MacDougall who had frequently visited him during his last illness. The funeral procession was one of the largest ever seen in the community and consisted in part of the members of Lorne L.O.L. of which he was an upright and consistent member. There were also a number of brethren from sister lodges. The services at the grave was
