UNIQUE STORY AND BRILLIANT CAST FEATURE GREAT FILM

If you hear anyone in town saying, "That's the most exciting Western picture I've seen this year!" you're talking about Republic's "Corpus Christi Bandits" starring Allan Lane, which opens at the Empire Theatre tonight for three day engagements.

"Corpus Christi Bandits" is a Western with a new twist. Lane plays two roles, a bomber pilot recently returned to his Texas home from numerous missions over Germany and a famous early American character who was forced into banditry shortly after the close of the Civil War.

Republic recognizing the unique elements of this plot, has assembled a brilliant cast to support Lane and to give the story the conviction it needs. Pretty Helen Talbot, was an ideal choice as Lane's leading lady. She plays the role of a girl whose father is trying to clean up a town, overrun with gamblers, through the medium of his newspaper, Twinkle Watts, one of Hollywood's most talented child stars gives a light touch to her role of Lane's tomboy kid sister. Other members of the cast include Roy Barcroft, Kenne Duncan, Tom London, and Bob Wilke.
