

THE BEST FOR SUMMER TROUBLES

When you have contracted a severe case of cramps, colic, pain in bowels, with dysentery, you can be pretty sure there is a pocket of fermented food somewhere in the stomach that is causing all the trouble.

We do not know of anything so good as Penlar Blackberry Compound for this complaint. It is highly antiseptic in its action and contains no opiates—yet it gives prompt relief—25c bottle.

JAPANESE TROOPS ARE DELAYED.

Peking, Aug. 22. The movement of Japanese troops from Chang-Chu-Chun, on the Mukden-Harbin railroad to the Manchuria-Siberian front, has been further delayed. This delay is due to the demand made by Japanese that guard and virtually control the operations of the Chinese Eastern Railway.

The Chinese officials, supported by the Entente Allied representatives in Peking, have declined to consent to the taking over of the railroad by Japan.

BULGARIA is again reported sick of the war. She will have to take her medicine, that's all.

THE FALL of the Bolsheviks one of these days will no doubt make a slight clatter in Europe.

THE NUMEROUS stones on the streets of Charlottetown were not picked from any Government plums.

HOW often do we think we are what we are not, but are we what we think we are? If we are, what are we?

LONDON despatch says the German reserves are fast disappearing. They have been losing their reserve for some time.

OUR TROOPS are getting close to the old Hindenburg line. Let us hope our correspondents never get to the old Hindenburg lyn'

WHATEVER may be the Kaiser's ultimate aim in this war, we are pretty well convinced that it is not popularity he is after.—Houston Post.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD that the Scottish gathering was a financial success. In that case it is no mistake to pronounce it the Scottish Gather in.

ONE COUNCILLOR says the streets of Charlottetown were never better. Another says they are a disgrace. Who's telling the truth? It's hard to tell when even the very stones "lie" on the streets!

THE GERMANS no doubt found it amoyin' to have the French shelling Noyon.

IF THEY ARE both alive when the war is over John Barleycorn and the Kaiser will be in the proper frame of mind to sympathize with each other.—Kansas City Star.

THOSE FOOLISH QUESTIONS

When first the evening shadows fall Beneath the river's fringing wood, And Willie wanders home with all His comrades of the neighborhood, He strolls in through the kitchen door—

Unconscious, innocent—and yet His mother wisely looks him o'er, And asks: "What makes your hair so wet?"

Then Willie shakes his head and swings His arms, and does his best to turn His mother's thoughts to other things: He uses all his art, to learn His mother's efforts do not cease.

It seems she cannot quite forget, That enemy of boyish peace—"My son, what makes your hair so wet?"

Insistent questioning compels Him to make answer, to explain The tale his hair so surely tells He knows resistance is in vain 'Tis not his first offence, and he Makes answer slowly: "Aw, I'll bet You know without a-askin' me 'What makes a feller's hair git wet.'"
