ABBIES ARE GENTLEMEN OF THE FIRST TYPE

Says Sport Writer in the Amherst News and Never Engage in "Rough Stuff of Dark Ages."

The Amherst News of Feb. 10th contains an excellent report of the recent game between the Ramblers of that town and the Abegweits of Charlottetown. In the course of the article it says:

In a fast, clean and hard-fought game, the Ramblers defeated the All-Charlottetown team in the Amherst Arena last evening—thus upholding their record for but one defeat this season and that at the hands of the Dalhousie University sextet. The final score as the bell rang was 8-7 with the Island forcing the play, and driving the rubber at Smith in a continual series of shots. This last period was remarkably exciting. The Charlottetown nearly overcame a lead of 6-3 and scored four goals while the Amherstians were engaged in dropping a couple behind Kinsman. Beyond a doubt, it was the cleanest game played on local ice this winter—not a trip or a hockey in addition to this, as we previously noted, they are gentlemen of the first type and never engage in the "rough stuff" of the Dark Ages. Devotees of clean sport the Abegweits and Millionaires of Charlottetown are genuine fellows. Rold and George Stewart were the main scoring men last evening. The Island Centre had four tallies to his credit, as had George Stewart. Lou Campbell, the flying wing man for the visitors, managed to bag a couple of counts on pretty shots, and "Sugar" Gordon, in one of his swooping dashes, sagged the Island Centre and shots were, to complete the count.

"Stout" Stewart, the former Black Fox centre player, now working on the wing with the Ramblers, was on top of the Island nets all evening. He took a sort of a "stunt" in the second period, and his accuracy with that curved piece of hard wood was marvellous. The majority of his goals as were the tallies located by Doncaster and Lowther—were picked up on combination play, two apiece. Bill Stewart could not get count. He was marked too closely, and every time he cut loose, he had a couple of the opposing players circling in front of him. He had several long rushes, and shots to his credit, but was unable to beat Kinsman, although George Stewart and Lowther were able to combine rush that resulted in a tally, when George took the rebound.

Amherst fans are dead in love with the Islanders, for the young players from the Garden of the Gulf put up a scrappy brand of hockey. In addition to this, as we previously noted, they are gentlemen of the first type and never engage in the "rough stuff" of the

Tax Reductions

There is a heavy tax on our income to meet the Government's running expenses, and interest on the public debt. This tax we all must, can, and do meet.

There is another tax which money will not discharge—the tax on our physical system from stagnation of food waste. Its name is Constipation. It burdens us and makes sluggish a system otherwise perfectly healthy.

Nujol will fully clear this tax. Nujol will keep the poisonous waste moving out of the body by this entirely new principle—it works on the waste matter instead of on the system. Every other form of treatment either irritates or forces the system.

Nujol prevents constipation by keeping the food waste soft, thus helping Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take—try it. Nujol is sold by all druggists in bottles only, bearing Nujol trade mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet "Thirty Feet of Danger."

Murphy, the doctors said, was delirious a few hours before death came, yet he recovered sufficiently to tell the attendants that the Canadian quarter with his meagre bank account were to be sent to his old home in Cork, Ireland.

Oak Island Mystery Recalled

ST. JOHN, February 12.—The death of Captain John W. Welling, at his home in Amherst, after a long illness, recalls the numerous efforts made in the last thirty years to recover what was thought to be an enormous amount of gold treasure long buried on Oak Island, near Chester (N. S.). Several syndicates, some formed by residents of the Maritime Provinces, carried on operations at Oak Island at various times, and among those in charge of the work of boring and sinking shafts was Capt. Welling.

These operations attracted attention all over the continent in the newspapers of twenty-five and thirty years ago. Although persistent attempts were made to recover the supposed treasure and large sums of money were expended by syndicates and individuals, the gold was never brought to the surface and the celebrated mystery of Oak Island still remains unsolved.

In his boring, Capt. Welling found traces of yellow metal on the drills, and several shafts were sunk to a great depth, but all had to be abandoned as it was found that the workings were flooded with seawater which entered through an under-ground passage. In all, the labor at Oak Island by various working parties lasted the greater part of a ten year period.

Capt. Welling was strongly of the opinion that gold existed on the island. He did not hold the theory that Captain Kidd or some pirate buried treasure there, but suggested that positively it might have been buried by representatives of the French Government at one of the eighteenth century periods when the position of the French authorities in Nova Scotia became critical. Others have suggested that the supposed treasure came from a ship, wrecked on the island in the early days, and was
