Moore & McLeod Limited

Adolphus and Russell Burke, John D. Chaisson, Bear River South, Mrs. Felix Peters, Rollo Bay East, violins. Misses Mary and Rita White, Souris West and Amelia Chaisson, Bear River South, organ and mandolin. A buffet luncheon was served by the ladies and dancing indulged in till the wee sma hours, after which they sang God Save the King. Following is the address:— Dear Mrs. MacCormack, we your friends and neighbors assembled here tonight to show you how much we appreciate the many acts of kindness you have bestowed upon us. In time of sickness you always were ready and willing to lend a helping hand. Then when it came to church or school work etc, you were one of the first to offer your assistance and even now though you are unable to walk around you feel it your duty to help in some way. In conclusion we ask you to please accept this gift, not for its intrinsic value, but as a slight remembrance of our appreciation to you and we sincerely hope that you may yet be restored to your former good health and be able to move about among us as usual. Signed in behalf of your friends and neighbors.
