

Just Two Teaspoonfuls

of Sovereign Lime Juice with water and sugar will make a delicious healthy drink.

Sovereign Lime Juice

is different from other brands, because it is pure juice—and takes less. Some who are accustomed to using more of other brands and using the same quantity of Sovereign find it too strong. Remember two teaspoonfuls of Sovereign contains more Lime Juice than double the quantity of some others.

All Grocers sell it.

Carter's Delicious Ice Cream

In a variety of flavors. Nothing but pure cream used in its manufacture. On a hot sultry day a dish of our Ice Cream does more to dispel the effects of heat than anything else its size made. One trial is its best advertisement.

You can get Carter's only at Carter's.

FANCY MATERIALS.

From Very Expensive to Simple Materials All are Sheer and Delicate. Oriental satin, Japanese silk and point d'esprit net are very pretty for blouses, and all manner of pretty and expensive trimmings are being used for them. Then there are smart little coats and theater jackets of net and lace, which effect a really marvelous transformation when required to conceal the defects of shabby evening bodice or blouse.

Many of the new fabrics show a lace effect. For instance, we have colored grass lawns as fine as chiffon. Lace striped silks in new designs show inset bands of chine silk. Other materials appear to be composed of one strip of ribbon and one of lace, and fine silk foulards have printed lace stripes.

Green muslins are a novelty. The new muslins fine as lace, old world small muslin, clear swiss, hand embroidered and ecru muslins in blue, pink, green and yellow are popular. Old laces attain fabulous prices and are being eagerly sought after by connoisseurs. The more transparent a dress can be made the more smart it will be.

The illustration shows a gown of soft ecru, full having embroidered flounces. The sleeves, hips and top of blouse are shirred.

SUMMER STYLES.

Smart White Costumes—Colored Embroideries on Silk.

For smart costumes cream and ivory white, together with that paler shade of mastic which is barely deeper than old ivory, are to be much adopted, and a little later on soft materials in silk and wool mixtures, such as crepe de chine, crepe de sole, with etamine and eolienne, will be generally worn. Gray was much seen during the winter, though it is quite a spring color, and now only the palest shades are favored, and there are invariably touches of bright color or of black.

Colored embroideries on silk and tasseled ornaments in silk passementerie are extremely popular, but the little separate tassels strewn aimlessly over a gown are things of the past, and only a few of the larger type of tassels are now used.

Handsome fringes are used on the more elaborate gowns, and these are most graceful on a deep pelerine or to border a sack coat.

Very unique effects are obtained by a combination of panne, face cloth and silk passementerie all in one tone or with the panne just one shade deeper. The passementerie is used as detached medallions, laid on panne and applied to the cloth. Skillfully managed, the effect is delightful.

The picture shows a turban of rough red straw suitable for traveling and ordinary wear. JUDIC CHOLLET.

WHY I ASSURED MY LIFE!

Because it is the only way by which I can make certain of leaving a competence for my family in case I should die in the next few years, a duty I owe my family. Because Assurance is as old as the Corn Cobs of Egypt and God himself is the author and originator. A means provided by the Almighty for man to protect his family.

Where I Assured My Life
I assured my life in the
