Kinsmen Celebrate 20th Anniversary

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 20th, the Charlottetown Kinsmen Club celebrated the 20th anniversary of the National Association of Kinsmen Clubs. The meeting was in the form of a Ladies Night and opened with a dinner at 7 o'clock at the Charlottetown. Roy Taylor was Master of Ceremonies.

The guest speaker was Mr. A. A. Cooper, President of the local Rotary Club. Mr. Cooper brought greetings and good wishes from Rotary, which on Monday celebrated its 35th anniversary. Rotary was founded in Chicago in 1905 by Paul Harris and a small group of businessmen. By 1910 there were 18 clubs in the United States. Winnipeg had the first Canadian Club and this Rotary became International. The Charlottetown club was started in 1917 with Harry Tidmarsh as president and Walter Grant as secretary. Today there are over 5,000 clubs scattered over the earth. Mr. Cooper pointed out that Rotary was essentially a service club.

Gordon Rice, President of Kin in his reply to Mr. Cooper said that Kinsmen were celebrating their anniversary with equal pride. The club was founded by Hal Rogers, a great war veteran in Hamilton, Ont., in 1919. The club has prospered in Canada until today it has 2,700 members, a number which is exceeded only by Rotary. At the National Convention in St. John last August a charter was granted to Newfoundland and it is believed that eventually Kinsmanship will be one of the strongest ties in the British Empire.

The club was fortunate in securing the talent of Dr. Leonard who entertained and mystified everyone with his clever feats of magic. The remainder of the evening was taken up with a Chinese checker tournament and bridge. Ladies' prize in the tournament went to Miss Jean McEachern and the gentleman's to Dr. Leonard who

Rotary Observes 35th Birthday

Rotary International this week celebrates its thirty-fifth birthday. This organization which began as a small club in Chicago, formed by a man whose ideal was to find a means of promoting fellowship among business and professional men has grown until today it is to be found in practically every country of the world with a membership of over 100,000. In Canada there are 1,500 clubs. The objects have been extended far beyond those which were visualized at its inception. Today Rotary is a great force in the realm of business and professional ethics, in community endeavor, and in the promotion of international understanding and goodwill.

Although the membership of each local club, the active unit in the Rotary scheme, is limited to one representative of each business and professional classification in the community, the total membership of the organization runs into the hundreds of thousands and is united in a common ideal of service. This is exemplified in the universal motto of the organization: "Service Above Self." He profits Most Who Serves Best.

Although not its primary or most important object, community service is a feature of Rotary. It is directed generally, it is chiefly directed towards the improvement of the lot of the underprivileged, particularly of the children. Rotary is a force in many forms in various localities, but the most outstanding work in P. E. I. and other Canadian provinces is from the treatment of crippled children. Hundreds of crippled children have been helped by their taking their birth and other ailments which militated against their normal development through operations of the kind supplied by the Rotary Clubs. Other projects included the promotion of sports and recreation facilities and the relief of distressed children.

GEORGE EDEN MEGGISON

The passing of George Eden Meggison on Thursday, Jan. 18th, 1940 at the beautiful old ancestral homestead "Point Brilliant Farm," Cascumpeque, was learned with regret by his many friends throughout this province and elsewhere. Though almost 77 years old he had always enjoyed excellent health, and was unusually active for his age. He was filled with the zest of these many years younger. Mr. Meggison was a man of sterling character, always cheerful, kind, patient and just. A great reader, possessing many fine qualities of heart and mind. He was the eldest in a family of four sons, who were bereft of both father and mother while very young. For the past six months he had been in failing health, but was confined to his bed for only five weeks previous to his passing. He and his devoted wife had enjoyed more than fifty years of married life together. Apart from a few years spent in the U. S. A. in early manhood he lived the remainder of his life on the old Meggison estate, formerly owned by his grandfather, who was a sea captain, and later by his father, from 1814 to 1894. Captain Meggison with his wife and four children left London, England, in the memorable brig, "Polly" for Prince Edward Island, arriving there on July 18th, 1804, where they settled on "Point Brilliant Farm," Cascumpeque and which since the above date has been in possession of their descendants.

When they crossed the ocean they brought with them many of their treasured possessions, namely silver, hand-painted china, brass, chime glasses, books, lenses, a beautiful miniature locket, dated 1794, also many other articles of special interest, all of which are still in an excellent state of preservation.

On August 5, 1918, his only son George Eden passed away at the tender age of 21 years. Being of unusual brilliancy and ever thinking of the comforts of others, had in his short life here, captivated the hearts of all whom he knew. Sixty-one years later, on the same year, another brother, Cephas Watson, passed away very suddenly while at work. When only the United States went to the United States where he first settled in Maine. Later he moved to New York City where he worked for the Armour Company, and was then transferred to Chicago, Ill., where he shortly started to travel throughout the United States and Canada, as superintendent of construction for the Denver, Colorado, where he carried on a real estate business until the time of his demise. Cephas spent the greater part of his life in Westbrook, Maine, where he held an important position in the Cumberland Mills.

Funeral services were held the afternoon of Jan. 20th, as follows: After a short service at the home, his way to the Presbyterian Church, Alberton, where a very impressive service was conducted by Rev. Wm. Verwoite, pastor of the Summerdale Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. S. J. Davies, rector of St. Peter's Anglican Church, Alberton. The pall bearers were Messrs. Preston Clark, J. W. Forsythe, Lyman Leard, Russell Leard, Russell Lockery and Howard Clark. Interment was in the family plot, Alberton, beside his son.

He leaves to cherish his memory his sorrowing widow, formerly Miss Gertrude C. Meggison, a daughter of the late Rev. Wm. Verwoite, Percy O'Leary, a gifted mechanic. Also a number of nieces and nephews. Floral tributes included: Pillow, wife and family, Wreath, Mrs. Lyman Casely, Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Meggison. The sincere sympathy of a host of friends goes out to the bereaved widow and daughter in their time of sorrow.

He insists he had no checkers up his sleeve.

Music for the sing-song was provided by Al Blanchard at the piano.

Storm Brings Heaviest Snow

Prince Edward Islanders began digging themselves out yesterday afternoon after the heaviest snow fall of the season. Nine inches were piled up at the Charlottetown experimental station. Warren Burns, weather observer announced.

A 20-mile-per-hour wind blew the snow into huge drifts, completely bogging down the passenger and piggyback trains of the province. Even in Charlottetown, despite efforts of plow crews, some streets on the edge of the city were still blocked last night.

No move would be made to open country highways until drifting stopped. It was learned last night, a plow crew went to Union airport and to Beach Grove Inn, yesterday afternoon but snow piled into the roadway as fast as it was plowed out. Highway officials said.

Trains were not affected by the storm. It was learned from the Canadian National Railway officials. The train was not affected by the storm and the mainland arrived in Charlottetown an hour and a half late last night but the delay was caused by poor weather conditions at Tormentine, it was reported.

Canadian Airways planes remained grounded.

Last night a heavy drift still piled up banks in the country. Temperatures during the storm were only a few degrees below freezing.

JOSEPH H. CHEVERIE

There passed away in the City Hospital on January 13th, 1940, Joseph H. Cheverie after an illness of short duration. As a young man he moved to hospital in hopes that something could be done to aid him but God willed otherwise and his soul passed to its Maker on the above mentioned date.

The late Mr. Cheverie was of a quiet, genial disposition, a good neighbor. A lover of horses from his youth, he was well-known to horsemen throughout the Maritime provinces. His greatest delight was in driving his horse around the oval and to victory.

His remains were accompanied to Sauris by Mr. P. A. McIsaac, M.L.A., where they were taken to W. L. Dingwell's Funeral Home followed by a large number from town and country. The funeral was held the following morning, January 16th at St. Mary's Church. A Requiem Mass was sung by his pastor, Rev. Dr. Croken. He was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery beside his wife who pre-deceased him almost four years ago. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Dr. William Macdonald.

He leaves to mourn their loss four brothers, Fred and Dominic of East Boston; Frank of Moncton, N. B.; Matthew of this city and one sister, Mrs. William Hennessey of this city.

May his soul rest in peace.

U. S. Waits For Japanese Move

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (CP)—Believing time is on its side, the United States Government is waiting for Japan to offer a satisfactory settlement in the far east.

On the shelf are a variety of negotiators' boxes from which government leaders could release blasts against Japan. The abrogation of the 1911 commercial treaty with Japan placed them there, but there is no present indication they will be opened in the immediate future.

Rotary International as a whole and many of its clubs, have an outstanding record in community service and their efforts have been deeply appreciated by the public. They have good reason to look on their past with satisfaction, and to look forward to the future with enthusiasm and confidence.
