Bedeque and Vicinity

Old Jack Frost has come in real-ly this time, but "oh" are we going to have a good chance for a sleigh drive. It doesn't look like it.

Congratulations go out to Major U. G. and Mrs. Dawson, Central Bedeque on Friday last, the birth of a bonnie wee lassie.

Miss Mae Enman, teacher of Chelton School has returned to her duties again after her Xmas holidays.

Miss Annie Enman, Rose Valley, is visiting in Bedeque. While there she will be the guest of Miss Alice Jewell.

Her many friends are sorry to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Thos. Bradshaw, Middleton. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Dr. J. J. Sidey held a birthday party in the hall at Central Bedeque on Wednesday evening last. The evening was passed in games and music. Ice cream and cake were served and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Dr. Sidey after which each one returned home well pleased with the evening's fun and wishing a birthday party would come a little oftener than once a year.

The Misses Alice Jewell, Annie Newman and Mr. Lloyd Jewell, Bedeque, were visitors to Chelton on Tuesday.

Mr. Lorne Cameron, Albany, was a visitor to Summerside on Saturday last.

Mrs. Henry Affleck and Mrs. Charles Schurman, Chelton, were recent visitors to Middleton.

Mr. Lloyd Jewell has returned to his home in Bedeque after spending a pleasant visit with friends in Stanley Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacQuarrie and little son Arthur, spent New Years in Middleton with the former's sister, Mrs. Kier Allan.

Miss Kathleen Frizzell, teacher, Bradalbane, was visiting friends in Chelton last week.

Mr. Arnold Henderson, student at P. W. C. is spending his holidays at his home in Bedeque.

Miss Lila Bradshaw, North Bedeque, is visiting friends and relatives in Middleton and Albany.

Mr. Harry Wright and young son Melbourn, Middleton, spent New Years in Chelton the guest of Mr. Nathaniel Pearson.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION
On Monday evening, Dec. 12, the Catholic Young Men's League of Sturgeon Parish met and tendered the following address, which was accompanied by a well-filled purse of good to their pastor, Rev. the Venerable Father, who has recently received his transfer to Most Carmel parish, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Rev. P. P. Arsenault.

Reverend and Dear Father:—On the occasion of our last meeting it was with the deepest feelings of grief and regret that we heard the announcement of your departure from this parish to that of Most Carmel.

For the past seventeen years you have labored earnestly amongst us, pointing out the paths of virtue and righteousness and also, in no small way, have you aided us in many of our temporal problems. Your partnership has been marked by the erection of this commodious hall, by the thorough renovating of the church and presbytery, by the acquisition of a parish-owned house and by many other notable improvements, all of which are wholly due to your own personal enterprise and initiative. This very league, of which we are proud of being members, is a creation of your own hand, carrying out the wishes of the bishop and designed to strengthen and weave together more firmly the fabric of Catholic life in this parish.

And now, at this moment, when you are about to leave us, the members of this league, recollecting the great zeal you have always shown in the advancement of all parish interests, your assistance in our mindone difficulties, and your never-ceasing efforts in behalf of our spiritual needs, we cannot let the occasion pass without offering you this slight token of our appreciation and regard.

We do not tender this token of our affection as an acquittance of a portion of the debt of gratitude due you, but simply as a recognition of your zeal, energy and success in the fulfilment of all your priestly duties. We earnestly hope and pray that God may give you health and strength for the performance of your work in your new field of labor and we know that we will not be forgotten in your prayers, as you will not be in ours. There is an unspoken farewell in each of our hearts to-night far more eloquent than any of our lips could utter. Happiness and the blessings of God be with you always dear Father, in the warmest wish of your fellow members of this league.

Father Gallant who was very much touched, fittingly replied in a few well-chosen words. He recalled the fact that he came to Sturgeon many years ago, a perfect stranger, hardly knowing where the place was located. He referred to the improvements mentioned in the address and said that in all his undertakings he had always received the full and loyal support of the parish at large, and this active co-operation and help was largely responsible for the work that had been done. He thanked the members of the league for their good wishes, their gift and their promised prayers, and closed with the assurance that they would not soon be forgotten by him.

MALPEQUE

The semi-annual examination and the Xmas closing of Baltic School were held in the school room on Thursday evening, Dec. 22nd. Despite the unfavorable condition of the weather there was a good representation of parents and friends in attendance. The examination was conducted by the teacher Miss Coady, assisted by Miss Smith, teacher of Darnley School, and the pupils in the different classes acquitted themselves creditably, and on the whole considerable progress was noted. Mr. Keir Crafer presided during the rendering of the programme and while the gifts were being presented. The Xmas tree, with its symbolic lighting, looked very picturesque, but Santa Claus robbed the gifts and with his usual beneficence distributed gifts to the pupils, each and all being remembered at this season of giving. An address expressing the good will of the pupils to their teacher and a more real expression in the presentation of a beautiful fountain pen was given to Miss Coady. The following is the programme:

Recitation—Ronald Delaney; Xmas Acrostic by 3 pupils; Recitation—Anna Burns; Duet—Jean Simpson and Margaret Riley;

Recitation—Ellsworth Bernard; "Polly Wolly Doodle"; Reading—Gordon Cousins; Chorus—By school;

Reading—"Somethin' Doin", Anna Coady;

Dialogue—"The Census Taken"; Reading—Bruce Riley;

Quartette—Memories; Reading—Marion Simpson; Valedictory—Rena McGillivray; Remarks by Chairman and others.

The pupils of Baltic School gave a splendid entertainment in Malpeque Hall on Tuesday, Dec. 20th. The pupils under the supervision of their teacher, Miss Coady, acquitted themselves most creditably. It is realized that an entertainment such as given on this occasion calls for much careful training and necessitates the giving of much time and energy on the part of the teacher and the successful carrying out of the programme was gratifying to both teacher and pupils. Mr. Keir Crafer performed the duties of chairman, announcing the different numbers, etc. The sale of candy and the admission fee realized a considerable sum, which will be expended on necessary improvements to the Baltic School. The following is the programme in full:

Remarks by Chairman; Recitation—Ronald Delaney; Chorus—School; Recitation—Anna Burns; Duet—"Janina"—Jean Simpson and Margaret Riley; Dialogue—"The Irish Philosopher"—Edmond Delaney and Willie Coady; Recitation—Ellsworth Bernard; Solo—"I'll Take You Home Again Kathleen"—Pauline Coulson; Reading—Jean Simpson; Dialogue—"The Census Taken"—Jennie Matthews and Edmond Delaney; Reading—"The Bachelor Sale"—Bruce Riley; Pantomime—"Silent Night"—By 8 girls; Instrumental Music—By Miss Mabelle and Mr. Charles Woodside; Play—"The Hour Behind Xmas"; Reading—"Calb's Courtship"; Thelma Donahue;

Quartette—"Polly Wolly Doodle"; Reading—"Embarrassing Circumstances"—Marion Simpson; Quartette—"Memories"; Instrumental Music: Song "Tea Little Niggers"; Instrumental Music; Dialogue—"Poor Teacher"; Instrumental Music: Xmas Star Drill—by 9 girls; Reading—"How I tried to lick the teacher"—Gordon Cousins; Pantomime—"O Little Town of Bethlehem"; eight girls; Reading—"The song that reached my heart"—Anna Coady; Chorus—School; Valedictory—Rena McGillivray.

Mr. Russell Woodside, student at Pine Hill College, spent the Xmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Woodside, Darnley.

Miss Marjorie Peake, assistant teacher of Fanning school, spent the festive season with friends in Victoria West.

Mrs. Vernon MacGougan, who was called to Tryon on account of the illness of her father, returned to her home on Tuesday. (M)

Animal Engineers.
Few people realize that many insects and animals have definite trades, and these are geometrical. They construct their honey cells so that with the least quantity of comb material they have the largest spaces and least possible loss by gaps.

Wasps and hornets manufacture paper, and it is said that a Mongolian got the idea of making the first paper from watching hornets build their nests out of a pulp they obtained from weeds, straw, and other vegetation.

The beaver is an architect, builder, and woodcutter, while the marten is a rival engineer. He builds houses and constructs aqueducts and drains to keep them dry.

Hunter River And Vicinity

The week of prayer is being observed in the United Church, each evening of this week with a service at 7 o'clock. The annual meetings in connection with the Church and Sunday School are also being held this week. On Sunday morning, service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. H. Baxter, B. A., with special appropriate New Year music by the choir, with Miss Amy Barrett as soloist.

In the evening, a Pageant of very unusual merit, "The Greatest Gift", was presented by the choir. The preparation called for lengthy, concentrated effort, but each individual carried out his or her part in a manner that would have done credit to older and much more experienced persons. The lighting effect enhanced materially the pretty costumes and many complimentary remarks were made by the large congregation which was present.

Those taking part in order of appearance were: Organist, Miss Janie Andrews; Harpists, Irene Wedlock and Eulalie MacLeod; Chorus, Bountiful, Mrs. Clifford Carey with her two attendants, Olive Silliphant and Dorothy Dierwell; The Gift of Harmony, The Choir; The Gift of Healing, Beatrice MacLeod; The Gift of Labor, Christy Gillis; The Gift of Friendship, Esther Dixon; The Gift of the Church, Mildred Carey; The Gift of Night and Sleep, Hazel Selar; The Gift of Home, Meta Greenwood; The Gift of Invention, Dorothy Cutcliffe; The Gift of Prophecy, Amy Barrett; The Three Shepherds, Lawson MacLeod, Frank McMillan and Allan Wedlock. The choral part of the service was splendidly rendered. It included solos by Miss Janie Andrews, Messrs. Gordon Carey and W. Selar, a duet by Mildred Carey and Beatrice MacLeod and several full choruses. Included in the Pageant was a Pantomime, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," showing it as the birthplace of the greatest of all gifts. A tableau of the entire numbers taking part and a full chorus was a very fitting climax. After a few words of appreciation by the Pastor, Rev. R. H. Baxter, an offering was taken. This amounting to seven dollars, will be the nucleus of a fund for supplying Sacred Song Books, etc. A congregational hymn and Benediction closed the service.

The following is the programme in Chorus, High in the Heavens; Recitation, Phyllis Hickey; Recitation, Jean MacKay; Song, Lillian and Reta Thompson; Dialogue, Phyllis and Charlotte Hickey; Recitation, Vernon Champion; Recitation, Hilda Dickieson; Dialogue, Friday Afternoon Compositions; Song, Charlotte Hickey; Recitation, Borden Champion; Recitation, Stacey Roach; Song, Mary Hickey; Recitation, Cora Champion; Song, Mackay; Santa Claus Makes a Demand; Dialogue, How Girls Study; Recitation, Gerald MacKay; Dialogue, Xmas Dinners, by 3 boys; Song, Away in a Manger; Recitation, Charlotte Hickey; Song, Mary and Violet Hickey; Recitation, Myra Rose Hickey; Recitation, Myra Anderson; Recitation, Mary Evelyn Thompson; Song, Silent Night; Recitation, Ruth Roach; Recitation, Luelle Hickey; Instrumental Music, Borden Champion; Recitation, Roy Mountain; Chorus, Xmas Bells.

Remarks by chairman and the closing of the programme was the singing of the National Anthem.

The closing exercises of Hamilton School were held in the school room of the district on Wednesday evening with about thirty visitors in attendance. Miss Stavert conducted the examination of the different classes in a manner creditable alike to teacher and pupils. The examinations was alternated by dialogues, readings, etc. the whole programme being very interesting. Prizes were awarded as follows:

Proficiency—Marjorie Crozier. Proficiency—Lloyd Lockery. Miss Stavert was accompanied by her pupils with an appropriate gift. Attendance—Elva Stewart. (M)

Among the teachers who are enjoying a well-earned holiday in Tyne Valley and vicinity are: Miss Jean Montgomery of Linkletter school; Miss Beatrice Yeo of Bideford school; Miss Annie Dymont, teacher of Birch Hill school; Mr. Stewart Williams, Tyne Valley school; Miss Estelle Stewart of Port Hill school; Miss Pearl Ramsay of North Tryon school.

Many friends are grieved to hear of the serious illness of Mrs. H. F. Phillips of Tyne Valley and hope for a speedy recovery of her usual good health.

Mrs. Robert England and little daughter were passengers to Charlottetown on Tuesday where the latter will undergo an operation in the P. E. I. Hospital.

Many are interested to hear of the marriage on Wednesday of Miss Marion MacKay and Mr. Glenn

Gleanings From Tryon and Vicinity

The annual Christmas tree entertainment of the Presbyterian Sunday School was held in the Britannia Hall on Friday evening, Dec. 22nd. After a social hour's enjoyment in games, music, etc., Santa Claus appeared and made glad the hearts of the children of the congregation by presenting them with candy, toys and other gifts. A dainty lunch was served and all departed to their homes refreshed and strengthened by the spirit of jolly good-will and fellowship which prevailed.

Among the young people who returned to spend the Christmas holidays at their homes here were: Mr. Leonard Ellis of the Royal Bank of Canada, Amherst, N. S.; Miss Olive Ellis, R. N. Montreal; Mr. Orville Bennett, Charlottetown; Miss Georgia Phillips, Acadia College, Wolfville; Miss Myrtle Ellis, student P. W. C. Charlottetown; Mr. Delmont Yeo, Presbyterian College, Pictou, N. S.

Mr. Gabrielle Dennis of the Royal Bank staff, Amherst spent the holiday with his parents at O'Leary and with friends at Tyne Valley.

Mr. Wilbur Wood, Alexandria was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Dymont recently.

Miss Ethel and Mr. W. Williams were the guests of their sister Mrs. Cornelius MacKinnon on Sunday.

The annual Sunday School concert and Christmas tree of the United Church was held in the Britannia Hall on Christmas night (Monday). A splendid program was well rendered consisting of songs, dialogues, recitations, etc. Special mention might be made of the beautiful hood drill and exercise. Upwards of eighty dollars was realized.

Mrs. (Dr.) Stewart was a visitor to Summerside on Saturday 24th inst.

A very interesting event took place on Wednesday evening, Dec. 28th when Miss Doris Dymont, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Dymont was united in marriage to Mr. Wilbur Wood, Alexandria. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Andrew Brown, M. B. D., at the Presbyterian Manse here. The happy couple will reside in Alexandria. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous "shower" at the home of the bride's parents. Master Roland and Miss MacDougall were dressed to represent a miniature bride and groom and entered the reception room bringing a prettily decorated wagon laden with gifts. The gifts were opened by Miss Margaret Skerry and the accompanying verses read by Miss Vivian Yeo. The bride was thanked all for their lovely presents. Luncheon was served and dancing and other games were indulged in until the wee sma' hours when all dispersed after singing "For she's a jolly good fellow." The gifts received consisted of lace, silver, glass china, etc., as well as a substantial cheque from the bride's parents. The youthful and popular couple leave shortly for their home in Alexandria followed by the good wishes of a host of friends.

The Christmas services in Tyne Valley on Christmas Day were conducted in the Presbyterian Church at 2.30 p. m. by Rev. Andrew Brown M.A. B.D., and at 7 p. m. in the United Church by Rev. W. Cooke when the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed.

There was great excitement among the little folk in the vicinity on Saturday when the news was broadcast that a real live Santa Claus would be at Hayes, McKay and Sharp's from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. Hundreds of children gathered and none were disappointed each received a treat from the jolly old saint, who came to Tyne Valley from Summerside and who was driven back to the western capital the same evening.

Mr. Winfield will not, however, sever his connection with the Telephone Company, according to Mr. Winfield's own statement to the Chronicle. What his position with the big confectionery firm will be was not announced.

Rumors were circulated through the financial district yesterday that Mr. Winfield was severing his associations with the Maritime Telegraph and Telephone Company, of which he has been managing director for some years. Regarding this rumor, Mr. Winfield gave a very unqualified denial, stating that he had no such intentions, but he made no further announcement regarding his plans.

O. E. Smith, President of the Telephone Company, and also President of Moirs Limited, when asked regarding the rumor, said: "Mr. Winfield is to become interested in another concern with which I am connected."

Asked if he would tell the nature of the new duties which the Managing Director of the Telephone Company will be assuming, Mr. Smith replied, somewhat enigmatically, "Mr. Winfield is already a director of Moirs Limited, you know. I do not think I should require to say more than that. It is not necessary that anything further should be known at present."

Ian Douglas Campbell, heir presumptive to the Duke of Argyll and the Hon. Janet Aitken, only daughter of Lord Beaverbrook, were married quietly in London. The ceremony took place in St. Columba's (Church of Scotland). The ceremony was private owing to the recent death of Lady Beaverbrook, only immediate relatives being present.

Tryon Tid-Bits

Hello! Everybody, Happy New Year. Another year is past and gone and with it, its joys and sorrows. Yes, 1927 is gone never to return and 1928 a younger brother is here. 1928 is young and little, we know not what he holds in store for us:—Health, Wealth, Happiness, Prosperity—or the opposite! But let us hope for the best and above all, let us try to do our part. We all know those stirring words of the poet: "Lives of great men all remind us. We can make our lives sublime. And departing leave behind us, Footprints on the sands of time." Our mark upon the years. Something for which those who come after may be glad that we were.

Mrs. Burns MacCausland who has spent the past two months visiting friends and relatives in Boston, Mass., returned recently to her home here.

Mrs. D. N. Forbes and daughter, Miss Constance, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Stearns, Boston, Mass. have returned from a very pleasant visit.

Rev. Andrew Brown was a visitor to Charlottetown on Tuesday.

Rev. R. H. Stavert, Hunter River was a recent visitor to the Canada Road.

Mrs. G. W. Wedlock, O'Leary is visiting Mrs. Spurgeon Ramsay, Port Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Clark were recent visitors to Tyne Valley and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edison Williams, Canada Road. (T)

J. H. WINFIELD TO JOHN MOIRS LIMITED.

J. H. Winfield, Managing Director of the Maritime Telegraph and Telephone Company, Limited, will assume some executive relationship with Moirs Limited, so it was learned by The Halifax Chronicle yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Winfield will not, however, sever his connection with the Telephone Company, according to Mr. Winfield's own statement to the Chronicle. What his position with the big confectionery firm will be was not announced.

Rumors were circulated through the financial district yesterday that Mr. Winfield was severing his associations with the Maritime Telegraph and Telephone Company, of which he has been managing director for some years. FAREWELL ADDRESS

Miss Jennie Dover, York, P. E. I. Dear Jennie,—Having learned of the decision of you and of your family to locate in another settlement, we, the Young People of York have assembled here this evening to express our appreciation of you as one of our members, to say how we regret your departure and to bid you God-speed as you settle in your new home. As for the future, whatever of note you may accomplish, you will always have our best wishes and highest regard. As for the past, our memories of you will be one who was a sympathetic supporter of our community activities. We could always rely on you to do your best when called on to do so, and that is all that can be said of any A. I. Community worker.

In recognition of what you have given us by way of service and companionship, we have gathered here on the eve of your departure to ask you kindly to accept this small purse. Now as we say "good-bye" we leave you under the care of a benign Providence, knowing that you will be always surrounded by a host of friends as you have been in York.

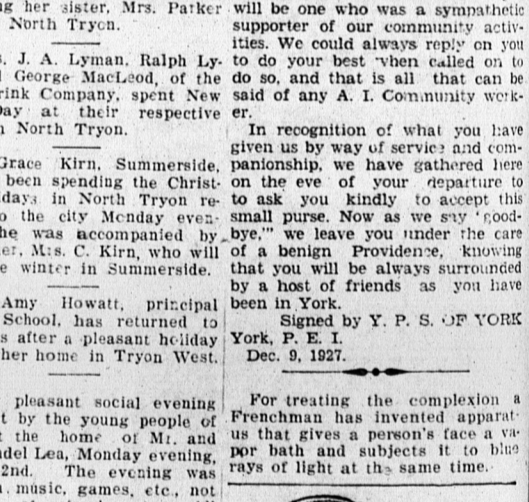

Signed by Y. P. S. OF YORK
