Clearing out---&---'s wall paper at half and less

A well known local firm—no need to say whom—got tired of the wall paper business some time ago--and we had a chance to take over the stock. After some negotiating we had our own way about price, and we closed the deal.

The stock was very good---but somewhat broken, so we tied the whole lot up in ROOM LOTS border with almost all, marked the price down to half, sometimes only a third or a quarter of their prices---and the range awaits you now.
