The latest news, first of all.
 R. N. Cox, Morell, was in the City Saturday.

Dr A. B. Stevenson, New Glasgow, was in the city Saturday, registering at the Revere.

Miss Katie Sinnott, Morell, left Saturday morning on the express for Boston.

A. L. Fraser, Souris, returned home Saturday afternoon after a visit to this City.

A. B. Hyndman, St Peter's, was in the City recently, returning home Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. S. C. Clark, Mt Stewart, was among the visitors to the City Saturday, returning home in the afternoon.

Mrs. F. W. Hyndman and Miss Hyndman, City, returned from Halifax by the Northumberland Saturday evening.

H. H. Brown is advertising a clearance sale of odd lines and broken assortments in boys' suits. See his ad in this issue.

H. A. and Mrs. Ferguson, Tacoma, Wash., are registered at the Victoria, having arrived in the City Friday night.

The barn of H. Colin White, section foreman at Uigg was burned to the ground on Wednesday, together with all the contents, consisting mostly of hay and straw.

The S. S. Cacouna sailing from Montreal Sunday morning the 14th inst. will be due at Charlottetown Wednesday morning, November 17. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

G. S. McLeod, Hunter River, Hugh Currie, Peake's Station, and H. Van Idersstine, Vernon River, were among the visitors to the city Saturday returning in the afternoon. They were registered at the Revere.

R. A. Thompson, of the Bank of Montreal, City, has been transferred to the branch at St John's, Nfld. The change means a promotion for Mr. Thompson and he will assume his new duties immediately on arrival there. He leaves this City early this week.

The daily average circulation of The Guardian for week ending October 30th was 7347 copies a day. The circulation of The Guardian is greater than that of all the other daily newspapers on Prince Edward Island combined. Attention is called to the statement in another column.

An instance of how carefully The Guardian's ads are read and circulated was exemplified on Saturday last when Moore & McLeod received an order from Souris for a pair of their seventy-one poums blankets, which, according to the advertisement in Friday's Guardian they were selling at $4.25. The weight of the blankets was seven pounds and that they were considered a bargain was shown by their ready sale.

Rev C. W. Corey, B. A., so well known in these Provinces as representative of Western Canadian Missions, has accepted the position of Travelling Secretary for the British and Foreign Bible Society. His field will embrace the Province of British Columbia. Mr Corey is splendidly adapted for his work and will carry with him the best wishes of a host of friends in the Maritime Provinces.

Excelsior Lodge No 10 I.O.O.F. Pownall re-opened Monday Nov 1st with a good attendance and the following efficient staff of officers were installed by Lodge Deputy, Aubrey F. CELERY

Celery is not used to the extent that it should be. The medicinal properties in Celery is very great. The Japanese diet for most all diseases and celery is claimed by them to be sure cure for rheumatism. We have experimented along these lines and found it to be correct. It is also very beneficial in any stomach trouble, and we know many who have been greatly relieved by its use. We are now taking orders for celery for winter use. We pack the celery in barrels with the roots on and with each order we send out a plan for successfully keeping it through the winter.
 Celery per barrel $2.50, for two barrels $4.50, for three barrels $6.00. We also wholesale and retail cabbage, parsnips, beets, carrots, onions, cauliflower, sugar corn, etc. Send for special prices we are growers, (not jobbers.) Buy from the producer and save money.
