"MIGHT BE WUSS."

"Don't worry, don't fuss.
"Don't fret, and don't cuss,
"For as bad as it is,
"It might 'a been wuss."

Rather uncount in diction, perhaps, but running over with comfort in times like the present.

It blocks up the complaint road completely; there is no such thing as getting around it; things "might 'a been wuss."

Those who have passed through trials and tribulations worthy the name say that things are never as bad as they seem.

They should know that they have entered into dark clouds, strayed in them for some time, and have come out happy and hopeful.

A cheery rainy-day philosopher drew comfort even from Jonah's plight than which nothing could be very much worse, and gives this bit of advice: "When down in the month, think of Jonah; he came out all right!"
After all, there are many things for which to be thankful.

COLUMBIAN WIRELESS A CLOSED INCIDENT

(Special to The Guardian)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The Colombian legation here was notified today by its Government that wireless discussion with Great Britain and France is a closed incident. British and French ministers in Bogota complained recently to the Colombian Government that there existed in the country hidden wireless stations which were keeping the German fleet informed of the Allies' ships. Great Britain and France through their ministers in Bogota both notified Colombo. Now the legation is told that no unneutral acts have been committed by that country.

WINTER GETS GRIP OF OLD ENGLAND.

LONDON, November 18.—Severe winter weather has reached England in the past 24 hours. Snow a foot deep is reported from Bakewell, Derbyshire. The highways are blocked and snow ploughs are being used. The mountain roads in North Wales are impassable owing to the blizzard, which has drifted the snow. On account of the continuous heavy rains, the rivers, the Severn and Dove are over their banks and much damage to property has resulted.

Severe weather with the thermometer at 25 degrees is reported from the Lullins, Lattinmoor Hills, Scarborough, Doncaster, and throughout the lake district. Six inches of snow has fallen in Scotland and the street cars in Aberdeen are kept running with difficulty.

Along the coasts a number of accidents to shipping have occurred. The barque Inverne, west pilot boat on Barry's Point, two pilot boats have been wrecked at Deal; the steamer Kenilworth went to the rocks at the entrance to the Tyne. The crews of all four vessels were saved.

ANNUAL MEETING OF DALTON FOX CO.

questioned to be released from their agreement of the 15 pairs. Because of the loss in the ranch we were unable to give them more than 3 pairs, and as their advertisement carried with it the fact that they were selling all pure bred Dalton, guaranteed to come from the old Dalton Ranch, your Directors decided to allow them to withdraw, leaving one option only (No. 2) sold. This option could not be taken up, and your Directors agreed with the purchasers to let the $1,400 deposit be applied to the purchase of one pair of foxes to be delivered in 1915, and at the current price.

Later the Hygrade Company accepted the offer of the foxes for $12,000; $6,500 of which has been paid in cash, and the balance by a note.

One other pup was sold for $6,000, and has been paid for.

In addition to those lost in the storm, the ranch had 11 pups this year, 10 of which were raised to maturity.

A herd book has been established for Dalton foxes, in which it is proposed to register all Dalton foxes of pure breed—that is, which have been kept pure after leaving the ranch.

The object of this is to prevent purchasers from buying inferior foxes represented as Dalton, and Dalton strains.

We believe that this registration, which is being freely accepted by the owners of pure bred Dalton foxes, will assist the Dalton Company, and all owners of Dalton pure bred, very materially in the future.

War broke out shortly after the release of the Hygrade Company, and made it impossible to sell our pups at prices which we believed, and still believe, them to be worth; hence, we have added them to the ranch in preference to sacrificing them.

Owing to the causes set forth in the foregoing part of this report, it will not be possible to pay a dividend this year. Nevertheless, your Directors feel the utmost confidence in the future. The ranch and plant were never in as good shape and condition as they now are. We have an enlarged plant of the best foxes in the world.

We firmly believe that when normal business conditions return, the ranch will again be in a position to pay handsome dividends, even on a pelt basis. The war has unsettled and will, until its close, continue to unsettle the fox industry, as it will other industries, but we do not believe, to anything like the same extent. The property today is more valuable than ever before, and your Directors look forward to an early return of the prosperity enjoyed by the Company up to the time of the unfortunate losses of last April.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated the 18th day of November, A.D. 1914.

Charlottetown, P.E. Island,
Nov. 17th, 1914.

The Charles Dalton Silver Black Fox Co., Ltd.,
Charlottetown, P.E. Island.

Gentlemen.—
This is to certify that I have carefully audited your books, examined your assets and liabilities and also all expenses, payments, etc., made during the past year, and find everything correct and in good condition.

J. A. McCLAREN,
Auditor for The Charles Dalton Silver Black Fox Co., Ltd.

The President, Hon. Charles Dalton, explained that under his agreement with the Company he was to receive a salary of $5,000 for the first year, and the Directors had an option to retain his services for other two years at the same salary. However, as the ranch had been removed to Charlottetown and he resided such a distance from the city he had voluntarily offered his services without salary for the second and third years. He had therefore received no salary for last year. The President proceeded to explain that it was nothing out of the common for young foxes to be buried in the snow. In his experience he had known foxes to bury their young and ultimately devour them. He was satisfied the removal of the ranch from Tignish did not interfere with the producing powers of the foxes, and in proof of this reminded them that his former partner Mr. Oulton, moved all his foxes from Tignish to Shemogue, N.B., and he himself had frequently moved other foxes without any injurious results.

With regard to a question that had been raised about the bona-fides of the offer made for options by Russians, Mr Dalton said the offer had been actually made and the correspondence in possession of the Secretary proved this. The last letter received from Russia stated that a representative was coming to the Island to take delivery of the foxes, but nothing further was heard from him. The foxes in question were subsequently sold to better advantage and had they been sent to Russia. There was no truth in the report that a pair of foxes in the Dalton Ranch had produced some red pups in a litter. It was true that in another ranch a pair of foxes, the male of which was a guaranteed Dalton and the female a cross and so specified, had produced a mixed litter. There were no red foxes in the litter, although there may have been some crosses. This, however, had nothing to do with the Dalton Ranch, all the foxes in which were according to specification and genuine Dalton foxes. He had not the slightest doubt that, were financial conditions to improve, as there were no doubt indications that they would before another year, they would find a market for their young, but if no young animals were sold the pelts could be sold, if absolutely necessary, and there was a good market for them in the United States.

Mr J. Stanley Wedlock corroborated this, pointing out that while he was in New York he visited the great fur house of Revillon Bros. and saw wild silver fox pelts listed at $2,000, but there was none to equal the ranch bred skins, those in stock being from Hudson Bay. The firm expressed themselves as being very anxious to get Island skins, and said that these would naturally be of greater value than the wild skins. Mr Wedlock said that the United States was just beginning to realise the value of the industry, and one American millionaire gave him $10,000 to invest in foxes in the Island.

An interesting discussion took place, taken part in by Mr A. B. Warburton, who moved the adoption of the report, Mr James Paton, Mr J. McWilliams, Mr A. West, Mr R. H. Campbell, Mr W. D. Sumner, Mr J. A. Robertson and Dr Conroy.

On the motion of Mr T. B. Woodman, seconded by Mr Wedlock the Directors were re-elected, with Mr Dalton as President. It was agreed the Directors should receive a fee of $500 if a dividend of ten per cent, or over was paid.

On the motion of Mr Moore, seconded by Mr McWilliams, the Directors were thanked for their services and in reply the President pointed out that, although they had agreed to pass the dividend this year, still for the two years of their existence the average dividend had been 20 per cent., and few industrial concerns could claim to have done as well as that.
